Formations Of The Secular Formations Of The Secular:

Formations of the Secular Talal Asad, 2003-02-03 Opening with the provocative query what might an anthropology of the secular look like this book explores the concepts practices and political formations of secularism with emphasis on the major historical shifts that have shaped secular sensibilities and attitudes in the modern West and the Middle East Talal Asad proceeds to dismantle commonly held assumptions about the secular and the terrain it allegedly covers He argues that while anthropologists have oriented themselves to the study of the strangeness of the non European world and to what are seen as non rational dimensions of social life things like myth taboo and religion the modern and the secular have not been adequately examined The conclusion is that the secular cannot be viewed as a successor to religion or be seen as on the side of the rational It is a category with a multi layered history related to major premises of modernity democracy and the concept of human rights This book will appeal to anthropologists historians religious studies scholars as well as scholars working on modernity

Formations of the Secular, 2003 Varieties of Secularism in a Secular Age Michael Warner, Jonathan VanAntwerpen, Craig J. Calhoun, 2013-03-04 What does it mean to say that we live in a secular age This apparently simple question opens into the massive provocative and complex A Secular Age where Charles Taylor positions secularism as a defining feature of the modern world not the mere absence of religion and casts light on the experience of transcendence that scientific explanations of the world tend to neglect In Varieties of Secularism in a Secular Age a prominent and varied group of scholars chart the conversations in which A Secular Age intervenes and address wider questions of secularism and secularity The distinguished contributors include Robert Bellah Jos Casanova Nil fer G le William E Connolly Wendy Brown Simon During Colin Jager Jon Butler Jonathan Sheehan Akeel Bilgrami John Milbank and Saba Mahmood Varieties of Secularism in a Secular Age succeeds in conveying to readers the complexity of secularism while serving as an invaluable guide to a landmark book

Euro Western states are debated and understood as competing groups contest and rearrange the meaning of these terms This is especially true in the digital age as online cultures have transformed how information is spread how we imagine our communities build alliances and produce shared meaning From recent attempts to prohibit religious symbols in public to Trump s so called Muslim bans to growing disenchantment with the promises of digital media this study turns the lens how nation states organizations and individuals attempt to own the secular to manage cultural differences shore up group identity and stake a claim to some version of Western values amidst the growing uncertainties of neoliberal capitalism The Oxford Handbook of Secularism Phil Zuckerman, John R. Shook, 2017 The Oxford Handbook of Secularism offers a wide ranging examination of secularism on a global scale bringing together an international collection of views from prominent experts in a variety of fields This volume reflects the impressive level of academic attention now given to secularism across the humanities social sciences law and public policy and international relations Long reigning theories about the pace of secularization and ideal church state relations are here scrutinized by a new generation of scholars studying secularism with new questions better data and fresh perspectives Religion and Equality Law Nelson Tebbe, 2017-07-05 The essays selected for this volume address topics at the intersection of religion and equality law including discrimination against religion discrimination by religious actors and discrimination in favor of religious groups and traditions The introduction provides a conceptual guide to these types of inequality which are often misunderstood or conflated and it offers an analysis of different species of discrimination within each broad category Each section of the volume contains both theoretical essays which set out frameworks for thinking about the relevant type of inequality and essays that examine real world disputes For example the articles address the conflicts over headscarf laws in France and Turkey the place of so called traditional religions in Africa the display of Roman Catholic crucifixes in Italian classrooms and the ability of American religious organizations to be free of employment laws in their treatment of clergy This volume brings together classic articles which are otherwise difficult to access enables students to study key articles side by side and provides instructors with a valuable teaching resource Islam and Secularism in Post-Colonial Thought Hadi Enayat, 2017-06-30 This book is a theoretically and historically informed exploration of secularism in Muslim contexts It does this through a critical assessment of an influential tradition of thinking about Islam and secularism derived from the work of anthropologist Talal Asad and his followers The study employs the tools of comparative historical sociology and sociology of knowledge to engage with the assumptions of Asadian theory Ultimately Enayat argues against nativist assertions drawn from the experience of Western modernity and provides a qualified defense of secularism Religion, Discourse, and Society Marcus Moberg, 2021-12-30 This book focuses on the utility and application of discourse theory and discourse analysis in the sociological study of religious change It presents an outline of what a discursive sociology of religion looks like and brings scholarly attention to the role of language and discourse as a significant component in contemporary processes of religious change Marcus Moberg addresses the concept of discourse and its main meta theoretical underpinnings and discusses the relationship between discourse and religion in light of previous research The chapters explore key notions such as secularism and public religion as well as the ideational and discursive impact of individualism and market society on the contemporary Western religious field In addition to providing scholars with a thorough understanding and appreciation of the analytic utility of discourse theory and analysis in the sociological study of religious change the book offers a cohesive and systematized framework for actual empirical analysis

The Political Psychology of the Veil Sahar Ghumkhor,2019-11-21 Veiled women in the West appear menacing Their visible invisibility is a cause of obsession What is beneath the veil more than a woman This book investigates the preoccupation with the veiled body through the imaging and imagining of Muslim women It examines the relationship between the body and knowledge through the politics of freedom as grounded in a natural body in the index of flesh The impulse to unveil is more than a desire to free the Muslim woman What lies at the heart of the fantasy of saving the Muslim woman is the West s desire to save itself The preoccupation with the veiled woman is a defense that preserves neither the object of orientalism nor the difference embodied in women s bodies but inversely insists on the corporeal boundaries of the West s mode of knowing and truth making The book contends that the imagination of unveiling restores the West s sense of its own power and enables it to intrude where it is other thus making it the centre and the agent by promising universal freedom all the while stifling the question of what freedom is

Political Theology Reimagined Alex Dubilet,Vincent W. Lloyd,2025-07-25 The contributors to Political Theology Reimagined center decolonial Black queer feminist and Marxist modes of critical practice to offer a cutting edge vision of the field that foregrounds a political theology animated by both a fascination with and suspicion of the secular

Mapping the Academic Debate Johannes Duschka,Christoph Kleine,Monika Wohlrab-Sahr,Florian Zemmin,2024-12-16 This volume maps the international academic debate on secularity It places seminal contributions from within Western academia alongside less well known texts from various parts of the world in several cases this is the first time that they have been translated into English The volume demonstrates that the academic debate on secularity was and is a global debate with contributions from many regions The collected texts relate to each other either directly or indirectly by referring to similar arguments whether reinforcing or criticising them and thus create a discourse When speaking of global secularity we therefore do not insinuate a uniform world secularity resulting from the alleged global diffusion of Western norms ideas and concepts It is rather a web of relations that is constituted via various different references These references are not evenly distributed the development in the West is often the point of reference to which positions from other regions relate to which they connect or from which they distance themselves But the references are not completely unidirectional We also present texts from Europe that underline the multidirectionality of the process even early on Thereby the volume offers the reader the material with which to trace these global exchanges and references

Comparative Secularisms in a Global Age L. Cady, E. Hurd, 2010-05-10 The history and politics of secularism and the public role of religion in France India Turkey and the United States It interprets the varieties of secularism as a series of evolving and contested processes of defining and remaking religion rather than a static solution to the challenges posed by religious and political difference

Multiple Modernities and Postsecular Societies Kristina Stoeckl, 2016-04-15 Engaging with the idea that the world reveals not one but many routes to modernity this volume explores the role of religion in the emergence of multiple forms of modernity which evolve according to specific cultural conditions and interpretations of the modern project It draws upon case study material from Africa The Middle East Russia and South America to examine the question of whether modernity democracy and secularism are universalistic concepts or are on the contrary unique to Western civilization whilst considering the relationship of postsecularism to the varied paths of modern development Drawing together work from leading social theorists this critical theoretical contribution to current debates will appeal to sociologists social theorists and political scientists with interests in religion secularization and postsecularization theory and transitions to modernity in the contemporary globalized world

Tibetan Democracy Trine Brox, 2016-06-10 How do you govern 130 000 people from exile Tibet and the struggles of diaspora Tibetans are elements of an ongoing and highly debated issue The Dalai Lama's democratisation process during his time in India from 1959 2011 and the subsequent election of Lobsang Sangay as prime minister in exile marked to the Tibetan people the move away from a seemingly feudal societal structure and traditional theocratic governance Central to these Tibetan democracy aspirations is the freedom struggle in which Tibetans dream of an ideal politics which includes both Tibetans residing in Tibet and those in exile with the ultimate goal of returning to a self ruled Tibet However some have questioned whether the fight for democracy has helped or hindered a united and free Tibet To elucidate this complex debate Trine Brox has undertaken extensive fieldwork investigating how democracy is viewed and practised amongst Tibetans in exile In so doing she explores how the Tibetans living in India imagine organise and negotiate governance that is modern and democratic but uniquely Tibetan This is an important book for those with an interest in Tibet diaspora communities and democracy

The Evolution of Atheism Stephen LeDrew, 2016 In The Evolution of Atheism Stephen LeDrew argues that militant atheists have more in common with religious fundamentalists than they would care to admit advancing what LeDrew calls secular fundamentalism LeDrew draws on public relations campaigns publications podcasts and in depth interviews to explore the belief systems internal logics and self contradictions of atheists He argues that evolving understandings of what atheism means and how it should be put into action are threatening to irrevocably fragment the movement      After Secular Law Winnifred Sullivan, Mateo Taussig-Rubbo, 2011-08-29 Bringing together scholars with a variety of perspectives and orientations this work examines the interconnections between law and religion and the unexpected histories and anthropologies of legal secularism in a globalizing modernity
