Fortress Europe Dispatches From A Gated Continent:

Fortress Europe Matthew Carr, 2012-09-04 Looks at the status of immigration in the world's most affluent region examining issues and the human cost of an immigration crisis across Europe in which tens of thousands of migrants have died

Fortress Europe Matthew Carr, 2016-01-12 Singled out by Foreign Affairs for its reporting on the brutal frontiers of new Europe Fortress Europe is the story of how the world's most affluent region and history's greatest experiment with globalization has become an immigration war zone where tens of thousands have died in a humanitarian crisis that has galvanized the world's attention Journalist Matthew Carr brings to life remarkable human dramas based on extensive interviews and firsthand reporting from the hot zones of Europe's immigration battles in a narrative that moves from the desperate immigrant camps at the mouth of the Channel Tunnel in Calais France to the chaotic Mediterranean sea where African migrants have drowned by the thousands Speaking with key European policy makers police soldiers on the front lines immigrant rights activists and an astonishing range of migrants themselves Carr offers a lucid account both of the broad issues at stake in the crisis and its exorbitant human costs The paperback edition includes a new afterword by the author which offers an up to the minute assessment of the 2015 crisis and a searing critique of Europe's response to the new waves of refugees

Migration at the End of Empire Joseph John Viscomi, 2024-06-06 How has migration shaped Mediterranean history And what role did conflicting temporalities and the politics of departure play in the age of decolonisation Using a microhistorical approach Migration at the End of Empire explores the experiences of over 55 000 Italian subjects in Egypt during the late nineteenth and twentieth centuries Before 1937 Ottoman era legal regimes fostered the coupling of nationalism and imperialism among Italians in Egypt particularly as the fascist government sought to revive the myth of Mare Nostrum With decolonisation however Italians began abandoning Egypt en masse By 1960 over 40 000 had deserted Egypt some as emigrants others as repatriates and still others as national refugees The departed community became an emblem around which political actors in post colonial Italy and Egypt forged new ties Anticipated actual and remembered departures of Italians from Egypt are at the heart of this book's ambition to rethink European and Mediterranean periodisation

Screening Asylum in a Culture of Disbelief Olga Jubany, 2017-01-25 This ethnographic book enhances our understanding of asylum screening an area of immigration that is often overlooked and remains under researched Falsely perceived as a one dimensional function of static state power it is here revealed that asylum decisions at borders respond to a complex cultural construction saturated by a meta message of disbelief denial and moral panics The author demonstrates that immigration officers work patterns behavior and decisions are informed by such stereotyping which has led to asylum narratives being interpreted in the light of concepts of social acceptability and rejection Establishing a parallel with law enforcement the author argues that this process replicates a professional world of categorization and control forged within an autonomous immigration service subculture This timely work will appeal to students and scholars of migration studies identity and ethnic studies social anthropology sociology law and policy studies The German Migration Integration Regime Morgan Etzel, 2023-10-23 Syrian refugees who gained asylum in Germany following the so called refugee crisis in 2015 quickly entered into an integration regime which produced a binary notion of well integrated migrants versus refugees falling short of the narrow social and political definitions of a good refugee Etzel's rich ethnographic study shows how refugees navigated this conditional inclusion While some asylum seekers gained international protection others were left with limited agency to demand government accountability for the ever moving target of integration Putting a spotlight on the inconsistencies and failings of a universal approach to integration this is an important contribution to the wider field of migration and anthropology of the state Routledge International Handbook of Rural Studies Mark

Migrant, Refugee, Smuggler, Saviour Tinti Peter, Tuesday Reitano, 2018-03-15 As millions of people seek passage to Europe in order to escape conflict repression poverty and natural catastrophe their movements are enabled and encouraged by ruthless professional criminal networks that earn billions of pounds from this insidious new trade Migrant Refugee Smuggler Saviour investigates one of the most under examined aspects of the great migration crisis of our time to discover who profits from it The human suffering that results extends well beyond the Mediterranean the smugglers routes cross the Sahara penetrate deep into the Balkans and reach hidden corners of Europe s capitals But smugglers are also revered as saviours by many of those they move delivering them to a safer place and a better life Disconcertingly it is often criminals who help the most desperate when the international system turns them away This book is a measured attempt born of years of research and reporting in the field to better understand how people smuggling networks function the ways in which they have evolved and their long term impact on both migration and global organised crime Clues: A Journal of Detection, Vol. 41, No. 1 (Spring 2023)

After the shock decision to leave the EU in 2016 what can we learn about our divided and increasingly unequal society and the need to listen to each other This engaging and accessible book addresses the causes and implications of Brexit exploring this moral anger against political elites and people feeling estranged from a political process and economic system that no longer expressed their will Seidler argues that we need new political imaginations across class race religion gender and sexuality to engage in issues about the scale and acceleration of urban change and the time people need to adjust to new realities He suggests we need to listen to people s concerns not only about the impact of immigration and globalisation on their lives but also about the injustice of a capitalist economy that makes them pay through austerity and cuts in social welfare for a financial crisis they were not responsible for He imagines alternative futures that will allow different generations to still appreciate themselves as Europeans with a future in Europe Migrant, Refugee, Smuggler, Savior Peter Tinti,Tuesday Reitano,2017-03-07

Migrant Refugee Smuggler Savior investigates one of the most under examined aspects of the great migration crisis of our time As millions seek passage to Europe in order to escape violent conflicts repressive governments and crushing poverty their movements are enabled and actively encouraged by criminal networks that amass billions of dollars by facilitating their transport Many of these smugglers carry out their activities with little regard for human rights which has led to a manifold increase in human suffering not only in the Mediterranean Sea but also along the overland smuggling routes that cross the Sahara penetrate deep into the Balkans and through hidden corners of Europe s capitals But some of these smugglers are revered as saviors by those they move for it is they who deliver men women and children to a safer place and a better life Disconcertingly it is often criminals who help the most desperate among us when the international system fails to come to their aid This book is a measured attempt born of years of research and reporting in the field to better understand how human smuggling networks function the ways in which they have evolved and what they mean for peace and security in the future Backstage

Governing the Social in Neoliberal Times Deborah R. Brock, 2019-11-01 Neoliberalism is most commonly associated with free trade the minimal state and competitive individualism But in this latest stage of capitalism it is not simply national economies that are being neoliberalized it is us Inspired by Michel Foucault and other governmentality theorists the contributors to this volume reveal how neoliberalism s power to redefine normal is refashioning every facet of our lives from our consumer choices and approaches to the environment whether it be buying yoga pants or a hybrid car to larger questions of national security and border control By providing enlightening examples and case studies of neoliberalism in action this thought provoking volume not only reveals how we are being constituted as biopolitical and neoliberal subjects it encourages us to think of the world as more than a marketplace and to open ourselves up to the possibilities of resistance Inside Immigration Law Tobias G. Eule, 2016-05-23 Inside Immigration Law analyses the practice of implementing immigration law examining the different political and organisational forces that influence the process Based on unparalleled academic access to the German migration management system this book provides new insights into the black box of regulating immigration revealing how the application of immigration law to individual cases can be chaotic improvised and sometimes arbitrary and either informed or distorted by the complex politically laden and changeable nature of both German and EU immigration laws Drawing on extensive empirical material including participant observation interviews and analyses of public as well as confidential documents in German immigration offices Inside Immigration Law unveils the complex practices of decision making and work organisation in a politically contested environment A comparative critical evaluation of the work of offices that examines the discretion and client interactions of bureaucrats the management of legal knowledge and symbolism and the relationships between immigration offices and external political forces this book will be of interest to sociologists legal scholars and political scientists working in the areas of migration integration and the study of work and organisations

Figures of the Migrant Siobhan Brownlie, Rédouane Abouddahab, 2021-09-12 This volume seeks to investigate the representation of the migrant and migration in literary texts and the arts Through studies that examine works in a range of art forms novels theatre poetry creative non fiction documentary films and performance and video installations that evoke a variety of historical and trans national contexts the volume focuses on the question of the roles of literature and the arts in representing migration An important issue considered is the extent to which artistic figuration can act as a counterpoint to social discourse on migrants that often involves stereotypes and reductive views The different contributions to the volume illustrate that literature and the arts can provide readers and viewers with a space for fluid knowledge production and affective expansion and that within that overarching function artistic works play three main roles with regard to representing migration undertaking a socio political and cultural critique presenting alternative views to stereotypes that highlight the singularity and complexity of the migrant and providing proposals for different futures

Border Politics Nancy A. Naples, Jennifer Bickham Mendez, 2015 In the current historical moment borders have taken on heightened material and symbolic significance shaping identities and the social and political landscape Borders defined broadly to include territorial dividing lines as well as sociocultural boundaries have become increasingly salient sites of struggle over social belonging and cultural and material resources How do contemporary activists navigate and challenge these borders What meanings do they ascribe to different social cultural and political boundaries and how do these meanings shape the strategies in which they engage Moreover how do these social movements confront internal borders based on the differences that emerge within social change initiatives Border Politics edited by Nancy A Naples and Jennifer Bickham Mendez explores these important questions through eleven carefully selected case studies situated in geographic contexts around the globe By conceptualizing struggles over identity social belonging and exclusion as extensions of border politics the authors capture the complex ways in which geographic cultural and symbolic dividing lines are blurred and transcended but also fortified and redrawn This volume notably places right wing and social justice initiatives in the same analytical frame to identify patterns that span the political spectrum Border Politics offers a lens through which to understand borders as sites of diverse struggles as well as the strategies and practices used by diverse social movements in today s globally interconnected world Contributors Phillip Ayoub Renata Blumberg Yvonne Braun Moon Charania Michael Dreiling Jennifer Johnson Jesse Klein Andrej Kurnik Sarah Maddison Duncan McDuie Ra Jennifer Bickham Mendez Nancy A Naples David Paternotte Maple Razsa Raphi Rechitsky Kyle Rogers Deana Rohlinger Cristina Sanidad Meera Sehgal Tara Stamm Michelle T llez
