Geschichte Malerei Iv Richard Muther:

Anglo-German Interactions in the Literature of the 1890s Patrick Bridgwater, 2017-12-02 This is a study of what the main aesthetic writers of late 19th century Britain made of German literature and of how Germany in turn reacted to them The impact of Anglo Scottish art nouveau in fin de siecle Austria and Germany made it predictable that Keats Pater and Rossetti among others would be well received but no one could have known in advance that by the time of their deaths Swinburne and Wilde would be more highly regarded in Germany than in Britain Bridgwater s documented study casts light on the central cultural issues of the day including ideas of morality truth and subjectivism in art comparing Pater and Wilde with Nietzsche and George Moore that chameleon of the decadent 90s with Schopenhauer The National Union Catalog, Pre-1956 Imprints Library of Congress, American Library Association. Committee on Resources of American Libraries. Easton, 2006-01-25 A richly contextualized portrait of a key Weimar figure who deserves to be better known Easton is a lively writer Martin Jay University of California Berkeley Provocative and original The Red Count should be welcomed by a growing number of cultural historians interested in reassessing the politics of European modernism and in current debates about the trajectory of German political culture and cultural politics in the decades before the rise of fascism Kevin Repp Yale University A major addition to understanding the cultural contributions Germany made to the modernist impulse especially in the years before 1914 Kessler s numerous activities as delineated by the author attest to the cosmopolitanism of many within Germany s urban liberal elite The Red Count is extremely well written Easton s prose is fluid colorful and eminently readable Marion Deshmukh George Mason University Representing the Past in the Art of the Long Nineteenth Century Matthew C. Potter, 2021-09-30 This edited collection explores the intersection of historical studies and the artistic representation of the past in the long nineteenth century The case studies provide not just an account of the pursuit of history in art within Western Europe but also examples from beyond that sphere These cover canonical and conventional examples of history painting as well as more inclusive popular and vernacular visual cultural phenomena General themes explored include the problematics internal to the theory and practice of academic history painting and historical genre painting including compositional devices and the authenticity of artefacts depicted relationships of power and purpose in historical art the use of historical art for alternative Liberal and authoritarian ideals the international cross fertilisation of ideas about historical art and exploration of the diverse influences of socioeconomic and geopolitical factors This book will be of particular interest to scholars of the histories of nineteenth century art and culture The Art Collector Alfred Trumble, 1893 Congress of Arts and Science, Universal Exposition, St. Louis, 1904 International Congress of Arts and Science, St. Louis, 1904, 1906 Catalogue of the Harvard University Fine Arts Library,
