The Path of 8 Amber Christensen, 2015-07-07 In 2002 Amber Christensen was brutally bitten by a dog while traveling through Argentina She was forced to change her travel plans which led her to Aconcagua the highest mountain in the Southern

Hemispherewhere she met a handsome and charming Argentine mountain guide named Fede After spending only three days together the two had fallen deeply in love They embarked upon a bicontinental life together lit by love and adventure fraught with challenges and darkened by senseless tragedy After only three years of marriage Fede was caught in a storm on the summit of the same mountain where their love story had begun A torturous search and rescue effort ensued ultimately ending in his death A video later surfaced which revealed that the rescue attempt had been negligent In the wake of Fedes untimely passing Amber was forced to face the mountain that had both blessed and cursed her life and to find a way to create meaning and purpose from insurmountable loss This is a story of love death and moving mountains Christensen recounts her journey of bicultural love and grief which brings her back again and again to a twisting mountain trail that offers her transformation transcendence and an ultimate acceptance that in any language culture or moment comprender la muerte es comprender la vida to understand death is to understand life

The Creative

Process of Els Joglars and Teatro de La Abadía Simon Breden, 2014 The rehearsal processes of theatre companies are an oft neglected area of research in Drama and Performance Studies This work on the Catalan devising collective Els Joglars and the Madrid producing venue Teatro de la Abad a seeks to redress the balance with a close analysis of methodologies employed in rehearsal In effect both companies have created distinctive rehearsal processes by applying ideas and techniques from a wider European context to a Spanish theatre scene which had been seen to follow rather than develop trends and techniques visible in theatre across France Italy and Germany Critically their hybrid rehearsal processes generate heightened theatrical results for the audience Thus the book shifts the focus of academic study away from product and towards process demonstrating how an understanding of process assists in the reading of the theatrical product Simon David Breden obtained a PhD in Drama Hispanic Studies from Queen Mary University of London He has worked as a professional director and expert in Spanish theatre in London and Madrid
