Darrel Wanzer-Serrano, 2015-06-12 The Young Lords was a multi ethnic though primarily Nuyorican liberation organization that formed in El Barrio Spanish Harlem in July of 1969 Responding to oppressive approaches to the health educational and political needs of the Puerto Rican community the movement s revolutionary activism included organized protests and sit ins targeting such concerns as trash pickups and lead paint hazards The Young Lords advanced a thirteen point political program that demanded community control of their institutions and land and challenged the exercise of power by the state and outsider run institutions In The New York Young Lords and the Struggle for Liberation Darrel Wanzer Serrano details the numerous community initiatives that advanced decolonial sensibilities in El Barrio and beyond Using archival research and interviews he crafts an engaging account of the Young Lords discourse and activism He rescues the organization from historical obscurity and makes an argument for its continued relevance enriching and informing contemporary discussions about Latino a politics

What Has Wittenberg to Do with Azusa? David J. Courey, 2015-02-26 Global Pentecostalism is a twenty first century phenomenon Yet in North America where the movement was born it has stalled Courey uncovers the cause of this plateau in the triumphalism that is characteristic of both North American Protestantism and Pentecostalism Through the identification of parallels between Martin Luther and contemporary Pentecostals Courey detects in Luther s Theology of the Cross a potent remedy for this tension Utilising this insight Courey reflects on other faith traditions and provides a counterpoint to the triumphalism that inhibits the development of Pentecostalism in North America and around the world This work comprises of three parts The first is historical charting the antecedents and development of Pentecostal triumphalism The second is an experiment in historical theology seeking basic resonances between Luther and early Pentecostals and examining the Theology of the Cross as a means of probing Pentecostalism The final section is an effort in constructive theology applying the theologia crucis to some of the central aspects of Pentecostalism Frank Leslie's Illustrated Newspaper John Albert Sleicher, 1875
