Being a

Child in a Global World Betül Karagöz Yerdelen, Kamuran Elbeyoğlu, Osman Sirkeci, Yasemin Mamur Işıkcı, Simon Grima, Rebecca E. Dalli Gonzi, 2022-09-30 Combining global perspectives and knowledge of different disciplines Being a Child in a Global World is a truly ground breaking and comprehensive multidisciplinary study answering urgent challenges of our time a must read for scholars interested in the global condition of childhood Children's Rights Law in the Global Human Rights Landscape Eva Brems, Ellen Desmet, Wouter Vandenhoele, 2017-04-21 Children's rights law is often studied and perceived in isolation from the broader field of human rights law This volume explores the inter relationship between children's rights law and more general human rights law in order to see whether elements from each could successfully inform the other Children's rights law has a number of distinctive characteristics such as the emphasis on the best interests of the child the use of general principles and the inclusion of third parties e.g. parents and other care takers in treaty provisions The first part of this book questions whether these features could be a source of inspiration for general human rights law In part two the reverse question is asked could children's rights law draw inspiration from developments in other branches of human rights law that focus on other specific categories of rights holders such as women persons with disabilities indigenous peoples or older persons Finally the interaction between children's rights law and human rights law and the potential for their isolation inspiration or integration may be coloured or determined by the thematic issue under consideration Therefore the third part of the book studies the interplay between children's rights law and human rights law in the context of specific topics intra family relations LGBTQI marginalization migration media the environment and transnational human rights obligations Implementing Article 12 of the UN Convention on the Rights of the Child Rebecca Thorburn Stern, 2017-07-31 In Participation Power and Attitudes Implementing Article 12 of the Convention on the Rights of the Child Rebecca Thorburn Stern analyses how CRC state parties describe their implementation of Article 12 on respect for the child's views The focus of the study is on if and how references to traditional attitudes are used by state parties to explain their actions and inactions when implementing this key right and principle It is shown that traditional attitudes are employed less as justification of poor implementation than as a way of allocating responsibility to the population rather than to the state party and that references to tradition remain a mainly non Western phenomenon thus also overlooking the impact of traditional attitudes in Western societies Towards a Child-friendly Justice System in Egypt Implementing the Sustainable Development Goals OECD, 2023-07-25 This report analyses Egypt's legal and policy framework and takes stock of the Egyptian Government's efforts to co-ordinate child justice services and make the justice system in Egypt more child friendly It includes an analysis of specific design and delivery mechanisms of justice and support services based on the legal needs of children and identifies the roles responsibilities and co-operation opportunities for relevant governmental stakeholders involved in child friendly justice Making Sense of Every Child Matters Richard Barker, 2009 This much needed book examines the implications of the Every Child Matters ECM national and local framework
