For the Time Being Annie Dillard, 2000 The Living Church ,1999 A Literary Shema Lori A. Kanitz, 2020-02-10 For the duration of her writing career Pulitzer Prize winning author Annie Dillard has unflinchingly asked and kept on asking enormous and difficult questions What is the relation of Creator to creation Why is there evil and unjust suffering How do we make meaning of our experiences Who is responsible for redeeming the world's brokenness Moreover she has done so in every genre within the impressive range of her canon her poetry literary nonfiction novels autobiography literary criticism and memoirs Two enduring influences have shaped Dillard s cosmos spanning questions and their metanarratives Christianity and Jewish mysticism particularly Hasidism and Isaac Luria s Kabbalism Though much scholarly attention has been paid to the influence of Christian mysticism in Dillard's work none has yet explored the role of her lifelong interest in Jewish mystical traditions This book seeks to fill that scholarly gap and demonstrate how Dillard's theological vision and voice both reflect and enact central features of Hasidic and Kabbalistic thought resulting in what could be called Dillard s literary shema The Truth of the Matter Is. Rita Warren, 2007-08 Warren presents a compilation of essays expressing her opinion on a wide variety of topics Practical Life Making Nature Sacred John Gatta, 2004-10-14 Since colonial times the sense of encountering an unseen transcendental Presence within the natural world has been a characteristic motif in American literature and culture American writers have repeatedly perceived in nature something beyond itself and beyond themselves In this book John Gatta argues that the religious import of American environmental literature has yet to be fully recognized or understood Whatever their theology American writers have perennially construed the nonhuman world to be a source in Rachel Carson's words of something that takes us out of ourselves Making Nature Sacred explores how the quest for natural revelation has been pursued through successive phases of American literary and intellectual history And it shows how the imaginative challenge of reading landscapes has been influenced by biblical hermeneutics Though focused on adaptations of Judeo Christian religious traditions it also samples Native American African American and Buddhist forms of ecospirituality It begins with Colonial New England writers such Anne Bradstreet and Jonathan Edwards re examines pivotal figures such as Henry Thoreau and John Muir and takes account of writings by Mary Austin Rachel Carson and many others along the way The book concludes with an assessment of the spiritual renaissance underway in current environmental writing as represented by five noteworthy poets and by authors such as Wendell Berry Annie Dillard Marilynne Robinson Peter Matthiessen and Barry Lopez This engaging study should appeal not only to students of literature but also to those interested in ethics and environmental studies religious studies and American cultural history The Dharma in Difficult Times Stephen Cope, 2023-01-10 The seguel to the bestseller The Great Work of Your Life shows us the way through our darkest times to our truest calling How do we make sense of our lives when our world seems to be falling apart This beautifully written guide from scholar and teacher Stephen Cope shows that crises don't have to derail us from our purpose they can actually help us to find our purpose and step forward as our best selves In this seguel to his best loved book The Great Work of Your Life Cope again takes the ancient yogic text the Bhagavad Gita the epic narrative of the warrior Arjuna's odyssey of self discovery as a roadmap for our journey to our own true calling Then he builds on that foundation using the stories and teachings of famous figures as well as stories of ordinary people and his own rich personal experience Along the way we find striking examples for finding meaning and purpose in our lives Gandhi shows how to tap our spiritual resources and listen for our inner voice Sojourner Truth and Henry David Thoreau inspire us to seek out the unmistakable signs of dharma in the midst of chaos Marian Anderson and Ruby Sales shed light on dharma s mystic power and how we learn to trust in it And more In the spirit of Pema Ch dr n s When Things Fall Apart this book is required reading when you find yourself forging a path through crisis or seeking a way through your darkest times to your truest self The Call Craig R. Smith, Michael Hyde, 2022-01-01 This book is a unique examination of the phenomenon of the call Characterizing the call as a rhetorical event the book identifies how speakers can use eloquence in the service of truth Authors Craig R Smith and Michael J Hyde offer the rare combination of a phenomenology of the call linked closely to eloquence and explore this linkage by examining the components of eloquence including examples of its misuse by George W Bush and Donald Trump The bulk of the text examines case studies of eloquence in the service of truth including epideictic forensic and deliberative eloquence with examples drawn from addresses by Barack Obama Daniel Webster Ronald Reagan Margaret Chase Smith Susan Collins and Mitt Romney The authors also examine the Epistles of St Paul the writings of St Augustine and the preaching of Jonathan Edwards Finally the book explores eloquence in filmic narratives and dialogic communication between artists and writers concluding with a study of the sublime and how it is evoked with awe using the work of Annie Dillard Cathedrals of Bone John C. Waldmeir, 2009-08-25 The metaphor of the Church as a body has shaped Catholic thinking since the Second Vatican Council Its influence on theological inquiries into Catholic nature and practice is well known less obvious is the way it has shaped a generation of Catholic imaginative writers Cathedrals of Bone is the first full length study of a cohort of Catholic authors whose art takes seriously the themes of the Council from novelists such as Mary Gordon Ron Hansen Louise Erdrich and J F Powers to poets such as Annie Dillard Mary Karr Lucia Perillo and Anne Carson to the Pulitzer Prize winning playwright John Patrick Shanley Motivated by the inspirational yet thoroughly incarnational rhetoric of Vatican II each of these writers encourages readers to think about the human body as a site perhaps the most important site of interaction between God and human beings Although they represent the body in different ways these late twentieth century Catholic artists share a sense of its inherent value Moreover they use ideas and terminology from the rich tradition of Catholic sacramentality especially as it was articulated in the documents of Vatican II to describe that value In this way they challenge the Church to take its own tradition seriously and to reconsider its relationship to a relatively recent apologetics that has emphasized a narrow view of human reason and a rigid sense of orthodoxy The God Who Believes Christian D. Kettler, 2005-09-01 How does one deal with doubt Are faith and doubt irreconcilable Does one s understanding of God affect the answers to these questions Christian Kettler investigates these questions from a christological perspective drawing implications from the Scottish theologian T F Torrance and his doctrine of the vicarious humanity of Christ If we take the humanity of Christ seriously should we not speak of the faith of Jesus as a vicarious faith believing for us and in our place when it is difficult if not impossible to believe How Christians know God Jesus Knows God for Us and in Our Place who God is Who is the God Whom Jesus Knows and how to believe in God in a world of suffering and evil Providence Evil Suffering and the God Who Believes receive new insight in light of this christological exploration Wendell Berry's poignant novel of a humble country barber Jayber Crow adds an incarnational context to a discussion with important pastoral and existential dimensions In the vicarious faith of Christ we are not left as James Torrance cautions us to be thrown back upon ourselves but called to participate by the Spirit in the faith of Jesus Crossing the Event Horizon Jonathan Zap, 2012-02-24 Crossing the Event Horizon provides evidence that we are both individually and collectively hurtling toward an evolutionary event horizon Using the tools of Jungian psychology the nature of the singularity is defined by its myriad manifestations emerging from the collective unconscious These include dreams motifs and themes found in art science fiction and fantasy literature and films religious cults and the paranormal especially near death experiences and UFO encounters Key aspects of the Singularity Archetype include Logos Beheld visually comprehended linguistic intent often associated with a collective telepathic network Homo gestalt a new species where individuality is conserved but also telepathically networked and a parallelism between the individual event horizon of death and eschaton the collective event horizon of the species Apocalypticism is analyzed as an example of the Singularity Archetype pathologizing A study of the Heaven's Gate saucer suicide cult illustrates what can happen when people become possessed by the Singularity Archetype and are driven by it into delusory projections The Singularity Archetype is viewed apocalyptically by the ego and as a transcendent evolutionary event by the Self and the duality of these views is explored in many examples The evolutionary origins of the ego and its metamorphosis as it approaches the event horizon are explored Evolutionary theory which relates to the Singularity Archetype through a number of dynamic paradoxes is discussed Many popular books and movies are analyzed as permutations of the Singularity Archetype including Avatar Childhood's End Village of the Damned Powder and 2001 A Space Odyssey The Singularity Archetype is a primordial image of human evolutionary metamorphosis which emerges from the collective unconscious How the Archetype Manifests a Composite Picture A rupture of plane event occurs usually threatening the survival of the individual and or species The event is a shock that disrupts the equilibrium of body physical world and also individual collective psyche It is an ontological shock that will be viewed as the worst thing possible by individual collective ego There is another rupture of plane that may actually be the same rupture as above but seen from a cosmic rather than a personal view The shock is revealed to be a transcendent evolutionary event The revelation of the transcendent aspect will often involve spiral motifs and unusual lights Consciousness and communication metamorphose and with them core aspects ego individuality connection to linear time corporeality gender identification social order etc fundamentally transform There is a vision or actualization of release from some or all limits of corporeal incarnation and the emergence of glorified bodies which have enhanced powers and various degrees of etherialization More visual and telepathic modes of consciousness and communication emerge and this is part of a transformation of individuality into Homo gestalt a new species where individual psyches are networked telepathically The Singularity Archetype may be experienced and even actualized to various degrees by an individual through transcendent and or anomalous experiences such as near death experiences NDEs UFO abduction close encounter experiences kundalini and psychotropic episodes As with encounters with all archetypes individuals and groups attach idiosyncratic material to it such as particular end dates and scenarios Another way of defining the Singularity Archetype in its collective form is as a resonance flowing backward through time of an approaching Singularity at the end of human history The Singularity Archetype relates to both the evolutionary event horizon of the species and for the individual Poems Containing History Gary Grieve-Carlson, 2013-11-08 Ezra Pound's definition of an the event horizon of death epic as a poem containing history raises questions how can a poem contain history And if it can does it help us to think about history in ways that conventional historiography cannot Poems Containing History Twentieth Century American Poetry s Engagement with the Past by Gary Grieve Carlson argues that twentieth century American poetry has contained and helped its readers to think about history in a variety of provocative and powerful ways Tracing the discussion of the relationship between poetry and history from Aristotle's Poetics to Norman Mailer's The Armiesof the Night and Hayden White's Metahistory the book shows that even as history evolves into a professional academic discipline in the late nineteenth century and as its practitioners emphasize the scientific aspects of their work and minimize its literary aspects twentieth century American poets continue to take history as the subject of their major poems Sometimes they endorse the views of mainstream historians as Stephen Vincent Ben t does in John Brown s Body but more often they challenge them as do Robert Penn Warren in Brother to Dragons Ezra Pound in TheCantos or Charles Olson in TheMaximus Poems In Conquistador Archibald MacLeish illustrates Aristotle's claim that poetry tells more philosophical truths about the past than history does while in Paterson William Carlos Williams develops a Nietzschean suspicion of history's value Three major American poets T S Eliot in Four Quartets Hart Crane in TheBridge and Carolyn Forch in The Angel of History present different challenges to professional historiography s assumption that the past is best understood in strictly material terms Poems Containing History devotes chapters to each of these poets and offers a clear sense of the seriousness with which American poetry has engaged the past as well as the great variety of those engagements The Broadview Anthology of Expository Prose - Third Edition Laura Buzzard, Don LePan, Nora Ruddock, Alexandria Stuart, 2016-08-29 The third edition of this anthology has been substantially revised and updated for a contemporary American audience a selection of classic essays from earlier eras has been retained but the emphasis is very much on twenty first century expository writing Works of different lengths and levels of difficulty are represented as are narrative descriptive and persuasive essays and new to this edition lyric essays For the new edition there are also considerably more short pieces than ever before a number of op ed pieces are included as are pieces from blogs and from online news sources The representation of academic writing from several disciplines has been increased and in some cases the anthology also includes news reports presenting the results of academic research to a general audience Also new to this edition are essays from a wide range of the most celebrated essayists of the modern era from James Baldwin Susan Sontag Joan Didion and Annie Dillard to Eula Biss and Ta Nehisi Coates The anthology remains broad in its thematic coverage but certain themes receive special emphasis notably issues of race class and culture in twenty first century America For the new edition the headnotes have been expanded providing students with more information as to the context in which each piece was written Questions and suggestions for discussion have been moved online to the instructor website Pronoia Is the Antidote for Paranoia Rob Brezsny, 2005 In this how to book Rob Brezsny builds a case for cagey optimism a perspective which engages rather than represses difficulty and views the universe as inherently friendly Provided by publisher She Who Imagines Laurie Cassidy, Maureen H. O'Connell, 2012-11-01 The idea and ideal of beauty has been used to oppress women of different ages body types skin color and physical ability The theoretical discussion of aesthetics has also been conditioned by these same dynamics of power and oppression In She Who Imagines a diverse set of scholars challenges the exclusion and false definitions while constructing capacious ideas that discover beauty in unexpected places In these essays the authors draw on a variety of arts media painting photography portraiture craftwork poetry and hip hop music thereby joining beauty to truth and in a richly defining way to the practice of justice In a variety of ways all the essays link women s definitions of beauty with experiences of suffering and hence with the yearning for justice All clearly
