Negotiating Boundaries of Southern Womanhood Janet L. Coryell, 2000 In eleven thought provoking essays covering the early nineteenth through the early twentieth centuries Negotiating Boundaries of Southern Womanhood examines the complex intersections of race class and gender and the ways in which southern women dealt with the powers that be and in some instances became those powers Elitism status and class were always filtered through a prism of race and gender in the South and women of both races played an important role in maintaining as well as challenging the hierarchies that existed to claim a share of power for themselves in a male dominated world Copyright Libri GmbH All rights reserved Social Security Benefits for Widows and Spouses United States.
