Four Passions Four Passions:

The Cambridge Companion to Philo Adam Kamesar, 2009-04-20 The works of Philo of Alexandria a slightly older contemporary of Jesus and Paul constitute an essential source for the study of Judaism and the rise of Christianity They are also of extreme importance for understanding the Greek philosophy of the time and help to explain the onset of new forms of spirituality that would dominate the following centuries This handbook presents an account of Philo s achievements It contains a profile of his life and times a systematic overview of his many writings and survey chapters of the key features of his thought as seen from the perspectives of Judaism and Greek philosophy The volume concludes with a section devoted to Philo s influence and significance Composed by an international team of experts The Cambridge Companion to Philo gives readers a sense of the state of scholarship and provides depth of vision in key areas of Philonic studies Summa

Theologica, Part I-II (Pars Prima Secundae) Thomas Aquinas, 2021-12-12 Summa Theologica Part I II Pars Prima Secundae Thomas Aquinas The Summa Theologiae Latin Compendium of Theology or Theological Compendium also subsequently called the Summa Theologica or simply the Summa written 1265 1274 is the best known work of Thomas Aquinas c 1225 1274 and although unfinished one of the classics of the history of philosophy and one of the most influential works of Western literature It is intended as a manual for beginners in theology and a compendium of all of the main theological teachings of the Church It presents the reasoning for almost all points of Christian theology in the West The Summa s topics follow a cycle the existence of God Creation Man Man s purpose Christ the Sacraments and back to God courtesy of wikipedia com This is part 1 2 Pars Prima Secundae In a chain of acts of will man strives for the highest end They are free acts insofar as man has in himself the knowledge of their end and therein the principle of action In that the will wills the end it wills also the appropriate means chooses freely and completes the consensus Whether the act be good or evil depends on the end The human reason pronounces judgment concerning the character of the end it is therefore the law for action Human acts however are meritorious insofar as they promote the purpose of God and his honor By repeating a good action man acquires a moral habit or a quality which enables him to do the good gladly and easily This is true however only of the intellectual and moral virtues which Aquinas treats after the manner of Aristotle the theological virtues are imparted by God to man as a disposition from which the acts here proceed while they strengthen they do not form it The disposition of evil is the opposite alternative An act becomes evil through deviation from the reason and from divine moral law Philo of Alexandria Maren R. Niehoff, 2018-01-09 Philo was a Hellenistic Jewish philosopher who left behind one of the richest bodies of work from antiquity yet his personality and intellectual development have remained a riddle Maren Niehoff presents the first biography of Philo arguing that his trip to Rome in 38 CE was a turning point in his life There he was exposed not only to new political circumstances but also to a new cultural and philosophical environment Following the pogrom in Alexandria Philo became active as the head of the Jewish embassy to Emperor Gaius and as an intellectual in the capital of the empire

responding to the challenges of his time and creatively reconstructing his identity though always maintaining pride in the Jewish tradition Philo's trajectory from Alexandria to Rome and his enthusiastic adoption of new modes of thought made him a key figure in the complex negotiation between East and West

The Cardinal Virtues in the Middle Ages

Reflecting Subjects

Jacqueline Taylor,2015-01-15 Jacqueline Taylor offers an original reconstruction of Hume s social theory which examines the passions and imagination in relation to institutions such as government and the economy Reflecting Subjects begins with a close examination of Hume s use of an experimental method to explain the origin nature and effects of pride an indirect passion that reflects a person s sense of self worth in virtue of her valuable qualities for example her character or wealth In explaining the origin of pride in terms of efficient causes Hume displaces the traditional appeal to final causes and is positioned to give an account of the significance for us of the passions in terms of a social theory Subsequent chapters reconstruct this social theory looking in particular at how the principle of sympathy functions to transmit cultural meanings and values before examining Hume's account of social power especially with regard to rank and sex Turning to Hume's system of ethics Taylor argues for the importance of Hume's more sophisticated moral philosophy in his Enquiry concerning the Principles of Morals since it emphasizes certain virtues of good moral evaluation She demonstrates that the principle of humanity stands as the central concept of Hume's

Enlightenment philosophy Reincarnation in Philo of Alexandria Sami Yli-Karjanmaa, 2015-12-30 The best current research on Philo's allegorical exegesis of Scripture The strong element of Greek philosophy in Philo's thought has been recognized since antiquity but his relation to the Pythagorean Platonic tenet of reincarnation has been a neglected even avoided topic in research This book confirms the view common in the seventeenth to nineteenth centuries that Philo accepted the doctrine of reincarnation even though he preferred not to speak openly about it The book shows how allegorization enabled Philo to give a reincarnational interpretation to very different scriptural passages Features Highlights the importance of reading Philonic parallel passages together for fuller understanding of Philo's message Discusses the difference between protological and universal allegory in Philo's exegesis of the first chapters of Genesis Introduces new concepts to Philonic research such as the corporealization of the mind the result of transgression and a driving force for reincarnation and monadization the human soul's transformation into pure mind upon salvation Asceticism Vincent L.

Wimbush, Richard Valantasis, 2002 The only comprehensive reference work on asceticism with a multicultural multireligious and multidisciplinary perspective Asceticism offers a sweeping view of an elusive and controversial aspect of religious life and culture Providing a broad historical and comparative perspective contributions by more than forty preeminent scholars in a wide range of fields and disciplines explore asceticism from antiquity to the present in European Near Eastern African Asian and North American settings An incomparable reference Asceticism offers a model for an understanding of a most important dimension of religious life Platonic Theology: Books XVII-XVIII Marsilio Ficino, 2001 Marsilio Ficino's

Platonic evangelising was eminently successful and widely influential His Platonic Theology is one of the keys to understanding the art thought culture and spirituality of the Renaissance Summa Theologica (Complete) Saint Thomas Aquinas, 1955-01-01 Objection 1 It seems that besides philosophical science we have no need of any further knowledge For man should not seek to know what is above reason Seek not the things that are too high for thee Ecclus 3 22 But whatever is not above reason is fully treated of in philosophical science Therefore any other knowledge besides philosophical science is superfluous Objection 2 Further knowledge can be concerned only with being for nothing can be known save what is true and all that is is true But everything that is is treated of in philosophical science even God Himself

so that there is a part of philosophy called theology or the divine science as Aristotle has proved Metaph vi Therefore besides philosophical science there is no need of any further knowledge On the contrary It is written 2 Tim 3 16 All Scripture inspired of God is profitable to teach to reprove to correct to instruct in justice Now Scripture inspired of God is no part of philosophical science which has been built up by human reason Therefore it is useful that besides philosophical science there should be other knowledge i e inspired of God I answer that It was necessary for man s salvation that there should be a knowledge revealed by God besides philosophical science built up by human reason Firstly indeed because man is directed to God as to an end that surpasses the grasp of his reason The eye hath not seen O God besides Thee what things Thou hast prepared for them that wait for Thee Isa 66 4 But the end must first be known by men who are to direct their thoughts and actions to the end Hence it was necessary for the salvation of man that certain truths which exceed human reason should be made known to him by divine revelation Even as regards those truths about God which human reason could have discovered it was necessary that man should be taught by a divine revelation because the truth about God such as reason could discover would only be known by a few and that after a long time and with the admixture of many errors Whereas man s whole salvation which is in God depends upon the knowledge of this truth Therefore in order that the salvation of men might be brought about more fitly and more surely it was necessary that they should be taught divine truths by divine revelation It was therefore necessary that besides philosophical science built up by reason there should be a sacred science learned through revelation language and culture in forming human cognition has been understood from the mid sixteenth century to the mid nineteenth
