Fractured Spectrum Perspectives On Christian Muslim Encounters In Nigeria:

Fractured Spectrum Akintunde E. Akinade, 2013 Fractured Spectrum Perspectives on Christian Muslim Encounters in Nigeria deals with an important African dimension in Christian Muslim relations. The essays in this book, written by Christian and Muslim scholars who are actively engaged with the Nigerian context, examine some of the issues germane to Christian Muslim relations in Nigeria.

Christian Responses to Islam in Nigeria A. Akinade, 2014-07-10 This book examines the various Christian responses to Islam in Nigeria. It is a study of the complex interreligious relationships in Nigeria. Using a polymethodic approach, the book grapples with many narratives dealing with interreligious competition and cooperation in Nigeria.

Through the Flames Yakubu T. Jakada, 2024-01-19 The persecution of Christians is on the increase worldwide. In Nigeria, persecution has had an immense impact on the religious, economic, and social life of Nigerians, especially in northern Nigeria. Many Christians are concerned about how to properly respond to such oppression. This book meticulously examines contemporary responses to persecution alongside biblical and historical experience using the theoretical framework of Fight, Flight, and Fortitude. The writer is convinced that if Christians respond to persecution properly, the gospel witness will be strengthened and bridges for peaceful interrelationship will be built in communities experiencing religious and cultural diversity.

Interreligious Curriculum for Peace Education in Nigeria Isaiah Ekundayo Dada, 2019-04-18 Nigeria, a country under a military regime for several years, transitioned to a civilian regime in May 1999. Since this change, violent conflicts between Christians and Muslims have continued to erupt. They constitute one of the gravest dangers facing Nigeria, a country with a population of 189 million people. What have Nigerian religious leaders done about this situation, especially in educational circles? Have they received formal educational training to understand the causes of this violence and especially how to provide alternatives for more peaceful relations within Nigeria? Does the current educational system in Nigeria provide the main ingredients for the promotion of a culture of peace? The absence and neglect of interreligious peace education as part of a peace education core program and the lack of an interreligious curriculum for peace education in the training of religious leaders are the two problems contributing towards the lack of effectiveness of religious leaders in promoting less violent and more peaceful living. The solution to the problem is proposed in this book, entitled Interreligious Curriculum for Peace Education in Nigeria. The book develops a one-year curriculum building on Yoruba Islamic Christian conceptions of peace and teaches how to create safe, caring, spiritual, peaceful, and successful interfaith relationships between all Nigerian religious communities. In the long term, the book helps to educate religious leaders to contribute in themselves and with the help of their respective religious communities to reducing the growing religious violence in Nigeria.

Nigerian Pentecostalism and Development Richard Burgess, 2020-04-06 This book examines the contributions, both intentional and unintentional, of Nigerian Pentecostal churches and NGOs to development, studying their development practices broadly in relation to the intersecting spheres of politics, economics, health, education, human rights, and peacebuilding In sub Saharan Africa Pentecostalism is fast becoming the dominant expression of Christianity but while the growth and civic engagement of these churches has been well documented their role in development has received less attention The Nigerian Pentecostal landscape is one of the most vibrant in Africa Churches are increasingly assuming more prominent roles as they seek to address the social and moral ills of contemporary society often in fierce competition with Islam for dominance in Nigerian public space Some scholars suggest that the combination of an enchanted worldview an emphasis on miracles and prosperity teaching and a preoccupation with evangelism discourages effective political engagement and militates against development However Nigerian Pentecostalism and Development argues that there is an emerging movement within contemporary Nigerian Pentecostalism which is becoming increasingly active in development practices This book goes on to explore the increasingly transnational approach that churches take often seeking to build multicultural congregations around the globe for instance in Britain and the United States Nigerian Pentecostalism and Development Spirit Power and Transformation will be of considerable interest to scholars and students concerned with the intersection between religion and development and to development practitioners and policy makers working in the region

At the Feet of Abraham Levi UC Nkwocha, 2020-11-30 This book advances an Abrahamic asymmetric mutual substitutive model of hospitality as a practical approach to establish peaceful coexistence between Muslims and Christians The merits include its helpful survey of the four models of interfaith dialogue and its clear exposition of the dialogue of life its constructive use of the philosophy of Levinas particularly in supporting its vision of asymmetrical moral responsibility among Muslim and Christians and its familiarity with an extensive philosophical literature on alterity gift exchange and responsibility The research also demonstrates strong command of the relevant Christian and Muslim scriptures and Catholic teaching on interfaith relations in addition to a wide range of background material on African Ubuntu spirit visible in Nigerian sociocultural and religious interdependent relations Through a consistent engagement of these philosophical ethical and cultural dimensions the Abrahamic theology of hospitality is ingeniously crafted to fill the age old gap mutual inability to deal with religious otherness At once the book provokes further scholarship inquiries on and around the identified concerns Its commonness and concreteness with the proposed respect for each other's faith commitment further underscores its quality

Christianities in Migration Peter C. Phan, Elaine Padilla, 2016-04-29 This book migrates through continents regions nations and villages in order to tell the stories of diverse kinds of nomadic dwellers It departs from Africa en routes itself toward Asia Oceania Europe and culminates in the Americas with the territories of Latin America Canada and the United States The volume travels through worn out pathways of migration that continue to be threaded upon today and theologically reflects on a wide range of migratory aims that result also in diverse forms of indigenization of Christianity Among the main issues being considered are How have globalization and migration affected the theological self understanding of Christianity In light of globalization and migration how is the evangelizing mission of Christianity to be understood and carried out What ecclesiastical reforms if any are required to enable the church to meet present day challenges The Pentecostal World Michael Wilkinson, Jörg Haustein, 2023-04-01 The Pentecostal World provides a comprehensive and critical introduction to one of the most vibrant and diverse expressions of contemporary Christianity Unlike many books on Pentecostalism this collection of essays from all continents does not attempt to synthesize and simplify the movement's inherent diversity and fragmented dispersion Instead the global flows of Pentecostalism are firmly grounded in local histories and expressions as well as the various modes of their worldwide reproduction The book thus argues for a new understanding of Pentecostal and Charismatic movements that accounts for the simultaneous processes of pluralization and homogenization in contemporary World Christianity Written by a distinguished team of international contributors across various disciplines the volume is comprised of six parts with each offering a critical perspective on classical themes in the study of Pentecostalism Led by a programmatic introduction the thirty six chapters within these parts explore a variety of themes history and historiography conversion spirit beliefs and exorcism prosperity politics gender relations sexual identities racism development migration pilgrimage interreligious relations media ecumenism and academic research The Pentecostal World is essential reading for students and researchers in anthropology history political science religious studies sociology and theology The book will also be very useful for those in related fields such as culture studies black studies ethnic studies and gender studies

Religiosity on University Campuses in Africa Abdoulaye Sounaye, Frédéric Madore, 2023 This volume examines religiosity on university campuses in Sub Saharan Africa Focusing on both individuals and organized groups the contributions open a window onto how religion becomes a factor affects social interactions is experienced and mobilized by various actors It brings together case studies from various disciplinary backgrounds anthropology sociology history religious studies literature and theoretical orientations to illustrate the significance of religiosity in recent developments on university campuses It pays a particular attention to religion informed activism and contributes a fresh analysis of processes that are shaping both the experience of being student and the university campus as a moral space Last but not least it sheds light onto the ways in which the campus becomes a site of a reformulation of both religiosity and sociality Handbook of Global Contemporary Christianity, 2015-03-20 The Handbook of Global Contemporary Christianity Themes and Developments in Culture Politics and Society maps the transformations as well as the continuities of the largest of the major religions engaging with the critical global issues which relate to the faith in a fast changing world International experts in the area offer contributions focusing on global movements regional trends and developments Christianity the state politics and polity and Christianity and social diversity Collectively the contributors provide a comprehensive treatment of health of the religion as Christianity enters its third millennium in existence and details the challenges and dilemmas facing its various expressions both old and new The volume is a companion to the Handbook of Contemporary Global Christianity Movements Institutions and Allegiance Pathways to Peacebuilding Uchenna D. Anyanwu, 2022-11-30 Given the consistent challenge of Islamist acute violence particularly in Nigeria this monograph attempts to respond to the question How can Jesus s followers pattern response to violence after Jesus s model demonstrated in his triumph over death evil sin and violence through staurocentric pathways And how can Jesus s followers in Nigeria adopt the same staurocentric model in order to not only overcome acute violence within the country but also to extend hands heads hearts and homes of staurocentric forgiveness hospitality and other practices toward Muslims In this study I posit that peacebuilding contextual theology be grounded on the mystery of the cross stauros a theologico theoretical framework that the church in Nigeria should espouse in order to position herself to extend hands heads hearts and homes of staurocentric practices whose appropriation must be undertaken through constructive and critical integration of the God given African peacebuilding concepts autochthonous to Africa s mosaic cultural contexts The pivotal thesis is that the staurocentric model remains the triune God s instrument for triumphing over violence and thus should be espoused by Jesus s followers in every era and context for peacebuilding in contexts of violence through a triadic constructive and critical integration of indigenous peacebuilding concepts

Jesus for Zanzibar: Narratives of Pentecostal (Non-)Belonging, Islam, and Nation Hans Olsson,2019-07-29 In Jesus for Zanzibar Narratives of Pentecostal Non Belonging Islam and Nation Hans Olsson offers an ethnographic account of the lived experience and socio political significance of newly arriving Pentecostal Christians in the Muslim majority setting of Zanzibar This work analyzes how a disputed political partnership between Zanzibar and Mainland Tanzania intersects with the construction of religious identities Undertaken at a time of political tensions the case study of Zanzibar s largest Pentecostal church the City Christian Center outlines religious belonging as relationally filtered in between experiences of social insecurity altered minority majority positions and spiritual powers Hans Olsson shows that Pentecostal Christianity as a signifier of un wanted social change exemplifies contested processes of becoming in Zanzibar that capitalizes on and creates meaning out of religious difference and ambient political tensions

The Oxford History of Protestant Dissenting Traditions, Volume IV Jehu J. Hanciles,2019-03-07 The five volume Oxford History of Protestant Dissenting Traditions series is governed by a motif of migration out of England It first traces organized church traditions that arose in England as Dissenters distanced themselves from a state church defined by diocesan episcopacy the Book of Common Prayer the Thirty Nine Articles and royal supremacy but then follows those traditions as they spread beyond England and also traces newer traditions that emerged downstream in other parts of the world from earlier forms of Dissent Secondly it does the same for the doctrines church practices stances toward state and society attitudes toward Scripture and characteristic patterns of organization that also originated in earlier English Dissent but that have often defined a trajectory of influence independent ecclesiastical organizations Volume IV examines the globalization of dissenting traditions in the twentieth century During this period Protestant Dissent achieved not only its widest geographical reach but also the greatest genealogical distance from its point of origin Covering Africa Asia the Middle East America Europe Latin America and the Pacific this collection provides detailed examination of Protestant Dissent as a globalizing movement Contributors probe the radical shifts and complex reconstruction that took place as dissenting traditions encountered diverse cultures and took root in a multitude of contexts many of which were experiencing major historical change at the same time This authoritative overview unambiguously reveals that Dissent was transformed as it travelled The Oxford Handbook of the Study of Religion Michael

Stausberg, Steven Engler, 2016-11-17 The Oxford Handbook of the Study of Religion provides a comprehensive overview of the academic study of religion Written by an international team of leading scholars its fifty one chapters are divided thematically into seven sections The first section addresses five major conceptual aspects of research on religion Part two surveys eleven main frameworks of analysis interpretation and explanation of religion Reflecting recent turns in the humanities and social sciences part three considers eight forms of the expression of religion Part four provides a discussion of the ways societies and religions or religious organizations are shaped by different forms of allocation of resources Other chapters in this section consider law the media nature medicine politics science sports and tourism Part five reviews important developments distinctions and arguments for each of the selected topics The study of religion addresses religion as a historical phenomenon and part six looks at seven historical processes Religion is studied in various ways by many disciplines and this Handbook shows that the study of religion is an academic discipline in its own right The disciplinary profile of this volume is reflected in part seven which considers the history of the discipline and its relevance Each chapter in the Handbook references at least two different religions to provide fresh and innovative perspectives on key issues in the field This authoritative collection will advance the state of the discipline and is an invaluable reference for students and scholars Macht im interreligiösen Dialog Merdan Güneş, Andreas Kubik, Georg Steins, 2022-07-11 Dialog gilt allgemein als anerkanntes Ziel interreligiöser Begegnungen Bei Schwierigkeiten und Konflikten wird rasch zur Intensivierung des Dialogs aufgerufen Doch verdient das Dispositiv Dialog einen genauen Blick es steht nicht bei den Konflikten und jenseits der Interessen Wer bestimmt die Gestaltung und die Ziele von Dialogen Welche Bedeutung hat die unterschiedliche Verteilung von Diskurspositionen Interessen Geldern Publikationsmöglichkeiten Und wie steht es um den Einfluss der Vorverständnisse von Religion Vernunft und Verständigung und Gesellschaft Diesen eindeutigen Machtfragen gehen Wissenschaftlerinnen und Wissenschaftler aus den Bereichen Theologie Religionswissenschaft Philosophie Pädagogik und Soziologie nach Der Blick auf den europäischen Kontext wird ergänzt durch Beiträge aus afrikanischer und asiatischer Sicht Teaching Migration in Literature, Film, and Media Masha Salazkina, Yumna Siddiqi, 2025-06-14 People migrate to seek opportunities to unite with family and to escape war persecution poverty and environmental disasters A phenomenon that has real lived effects on individuals and communities migration also carries symbolic ideological significance Its depiction in literature film and other media powerfully shapes worldviews identities attitudes toward migrants and a political landscape that is both local and global It is imperative then to connect the disciplinary and theoretical tools we have for understanding migration and to put them in conversation with students experiences Featuring a wide range of classroom approaches this volume brings together topics that are often taught separately including tourism slavery drug cartels race whiteness settler colonialism the Arab Spring assimilation and disability Readers are introduced to terminology and legal frameworks and to theories of migration in relation to Black studies ethnic studies Asian American studies Latinx studies border studies postcolonial studies and Indigenous studies

Muslim-Christian Encounters in Africa
Benjamin Soares,2006-09-01 This timely collection offers new perspectives on Muslim Christian encounters in Africa Working against political and scholarly traditions that keep Muslims and Christians apart the essays in this multidisciplinary volume locate African Muslims and Christians within a common analytical frame In a series of historical and ethnographic case studies from across the African continent the authors consider the multiple ways Muslims and Christians have encountered each other borrowed or appropriated from one another and sometimes also clashed Contributors recast assumptions about the making and transgressing of religious boundaries Christian Muslim relations and conversion This engaging collection is a long overdue attempt to grapple with the multi faceted and changing encounters of Muslims and Christians in Africa
