Baack,Eric G. Harris,Donald Baack,2013 International Marketing presents an innovative integrated approach to the course in which marketing concepts are explored in depth within the international context. The authors identify five key factors that impact any international marketing venture: culture, language, political, legal, systems, economic systems, and technological operational differences, and discuss them in relation to the core marketing concepts of markets, products, pricing, distribution, place, and promotion. Uniquely, the book provides discussions of sustainability and bottom of the pyramid concepts within each chapter and is richly illustrated with examples from both multinational companies as well as smaller local concerns. Setting the path for the future direction of this course, the authors provide instructors and students with the first truly international marketing textbook. Whither South East Asian

Management? Chris Rowley, Malcolm Warner, 2013-09-13. This book examines the directions in which various structures and processes of management and business are moving in South East Asia, covering Indonesia, Malaysia, Thailand, and Vietnam. It aims to update previous works in the field, covering management and business in these countries. It goes on to deal with a wide variety of themes and issues: functional and practice areas, sectors, and organisational types. Many key sectors are also covered, such as finance, retailing, telecoms, etc. The types of organisations covered range from multinational companies to state-owned enterprises. The contributors cover current and ongoing developments of these themes, particularly in the context of globalization. The book also addresses the future directions management may be moving in this important part of the international economy. The authors are all experts in their fields and are all based in universities and business schools in the region within the respective countries involved. The work is aimed at undergraduate and postgraduate students in business administration, especially those on MBA programmes, development economics, management studies, and related fields, as well as lecturers in those subjects and researchers in the field. This book was published as a special issue of Asia Pacific Business Review.

Reengineering Corporate Communication Uwe Seebacher, 2022-07-28. This book employs the latest insights from modern marketing into the theory and practice of corporate communication, including the main stages and goals, and highlights the key potentials for the field. It briefly presents the essential features of the methodological and structural sciences in order to illustrate to the reader how, from a marketer's point of view, these new insights can be derived objectively, reliably, and validly for the field of corporate communication according to scientific criteria. The book then introduces the maturity model for modern corporate communication and describes which fields of activity must be gone through in order to be able to implement the change management process towards corporate communication excellence efficiently and effectively. Building on this, it introduces and defines the most important new concepts of corporate communication in the twenty-first century and thus clearly delineates the field of research for this corporate function in the coming years. The book goes on to address the important areas of IT and HR in order to provide a 360° view of the developments to be realized in the field of corporate communication. A CC self-test at the end of the book is intended to help the reader immediately recognize where their own organization stands and, against this backdrop, to be able to start the necessary activities towards corporate communication excellence immediately on the basis of the maturity model Prof Dr Uwe Seebacher takes us on a timely and informative read on what could be the biggest crisis for Corporate Communications remaining stagnant in a time of great change With rich context and fine detail he illuminates the opportunities to reengineer Corporate Communications and quantify its role in truly impacting business From the importance of predictive intelligence underpinned by authenticity and empathy to building trust this book is a guide for successful business in the 21st Century I highly recommend it Heidi Eusebio Strategist and Executive Director Edelman Uwe Seebacher has once again demonstrated in a well founded manner what methodological and structural science is capable of namely to precisely logically derive the long overdue process of change in the field of corporate communications and thereby make it comprehensible But he also takes the important next step of operationalizing his thoughts in a directly measurable way by providing an easy applicable concrete process model for reengineering corporate communication with many tips templates and inputs for HR and IT
