France Enchantment Of The World Second:

Rethinking the French New Right Tamir Bar-On, 2013-04-12 This book focuses on the philosophy politics and impact of the New Right which originated in France and has since influenced activism ideology and policy in a number of European countries This book explores the idea that revolutionaries do not necessarily need to come from the left nor use arms in order to overturn liberal democracy In the post World War Two era the extremists of the revolutionary right took three different paths 1 parliamentary 2 extra parliamentary and 3 metapolitical The New Right nouvelle droite ND in France took the metapolitical path but that did not mean it abandoned its revolutionary desire to smash liberal democracy throughout Europe The book examines four interpretations of the New Right These interpretations include the following 1 The New Right as a fascist or quasi fascist movement 2 The New Right as a challenge to the traditional right left dichotomy which has structured European political debates for more than 200 years 3 The New Right as an alternative modernist movement which rejects liberal and socialist narratives of modernity accepts the technical but not political or cultural effects of modernity and longs for a pan European political framework abolishing liberal multiculturalism and privileging ethnic dominance of so called original Europeans and 4 The New Right as a variant of political religion and conversionary processes The book concludes by analysing the positions cultural and political impact and relationship to democracy of the New Right This work will be of great interest to students and scholars of racism fascism extremism European politics French politics and contemporary political theory

The Vertical Imagination and the Crisis of Transatlantic Modernism Paul Haacke, 2021-03-11 From the invention of skyscrapers and airplanes to the development of the nuclear bomb ideas about the modern increasingly revolved around vertiginous images of elevation and decline and new technologies of mobility and terror from above In The Vertical Imagination and the Crisis of Transatlantic Modernism Paul Haacke examines this turn by focusing on discourses of aspiration catastrophe and power in major works of European and American literature as well as film architecture and intellectual and cultural history This wide ranging and pointed study begins with canonical fiction by Franz Kafka Virginia Woolf James Joyce and John Dos Passos as well as poetry by Guillaume Apollinaire Hart Crane and Aim C saire before moving to critical reflections on the rise of New York City by architects and writers from Le Corbusier to Simone de Beauvoir the films of Alfred Hitchcock and theories of cinematic space and time and postwar novels by Kurt Vonnegut Thomas Pynchon and Leslie Marmon Silko among many other examples In tracing the rise and fall of modernist discourse over the course of the long twentieth century this book shows how visions of vertical ascension turned from established ideas about nature the body and religion to growing anxieties about aesthetic distinction technological advancement and American capitalism and empire It argues that spectacles of height and flight became symbols and icons of ambition as well as direct indexes of power and thus that the vertical transformation of modernity was both material and imagined taking place at the same time through the rapidly expanding built environment and shifting ideological constructions of high and low

James Eglinton,George Harinck,2014-08-28 The French Revolution was the scene of much intellectual and social upheaval Its impact touched a wide range of subjects the relationship of the church to the state social relationships science literature fashion philosophy and theology Although the French Revolution's momentum was felt across Europe and North America it met a particularly interesting response in the Netherlands at that time the scene of a burgeoning neo Calvinist movement In that context the likes of Groen van Prinsterer Abraham Kuyper and Herman Bavinck responded to the French Revolution's ideals and influence in a variety of intellectual and practical ways This book approaches that Dutch response from a range of historical and theological perspectives and in so doing explores the relationship between the French Revolution and the development of neo Calvinism Beginning with historical portraits of Bavinck and Kuyper in relation to the Revolution the perspectives offered also include amongst others the place of multilingualism in neo Calvinism and the Revolution neo Calvinist and Revolutionary approaches to fashion a dialogue between Kuyperian theology and Kieslowski's Three Colours trilogy and a contemporary neo Calvinist critique of French laïcité This book forms part of a wider Project neo Calvinism supported by the Theologische Universiteit Kampen and the VU University Amsterdam El-Hi Textbooks & Serials in Print, 2000 ,2000 The Spirit of French Capitalism Charly Coleman,2021-03-16

How did the economy become bound up with faith in infinite wealth creation and obsessive consumption Drawing on the economic writings of eighteenth century French theologians historian Charly Coleman uncovers the surprising influence of the Catholic Church on the development of capitalism Even during the Enlightenment a sense of the miraculous did not wither under the cold light of calculation Scarcity long regarded as the inescapable fate of a fallen world gradually gave way to a new belief in heavenly as well as worldly affluence Animating this spiritual imperative of the French economy was a distinctly Catholic ethic that in contrast to Weber's famous Protestant ethic privileged the marvelous over the mundane consumption over production and the pleasures of enjoyment over the rigors of delayed gratification By viewing money luxury and debt through the lens of sacramental theory Coleman demonstrates that the modern economy casts far beyond rational action and disenchanted designs and in
