Four Lessons Of Psychoanalysis:

Four Lessons of Psychoanalysis Moustafa Safouan, 2013-03-26 In this delightfully readable and clearly written volume the world renowned psychoanalyst Moustafa Safouan considers the works of Freud and Lacan When Safouan met Lacan in 1949 he was all but ready to abandon the field due to the many contradictions and obscurities he found in Freud Yet thanks to Lacan's early presentation of the father as real imaginary and symbolic Safouan stayed on working with Lacan until Lacan's death in 1981 One can track the evolution of Safouan's teaching through his participation in Lacan's published seminars and his early contributions Safouan wrote this book in English starting with a transcript from a series of lectures he delivered to the Lacanian School of Psychoanalysis in San Francisco in March of 2001 Safouan clears up many of Lacan's own obscurities although he is quick to point out that there are no contradictions in Lacan Readers will find the cause of desire both through the signifier and through the normative rather than normal development of the child Safouan explains the three forms of lack the root of subjectivity the desire of the analyst the Other as different from the other the object cause of desire transference countertransference and lateral transference and the analytic act in a narrative that brings these and other concepts together in a dictionary that could never be divided by terms Hysteria From Freud to Lacan Juan-David Nasio, 2020-10-13 In the English speaking psychoanalytic world few diagnostic categories are as controversial as hysteria This concept widely held to reflect outmoded cultural prejudices aganist women has virtually disappeared from our theoretical literature diagnostic manuals and traning programs However far from being gender bound hysteria from Jacques Lacan represents a psychic strategy that bears on one of the most fundamental preoccupations of existence What does it mean to be a woman What does it mean to be a man Lacan and the Destiny of Literature Ehsan Azari,2011-10-27 In contemporary academic literary studies Lacan is often considered impenetrably obscure due to the unavailability of his late works insufficient articulation of his methodologies and sometimes stereotypical use of Lacanian concepts in literary theory This study aims to integrate Lacan into contemporary literary study by engaging with a broad range of Lacanian theoretical concepts often for the first time in English and using them to analyse a range of key texts from different periods Azari explores Lacan's theory of desire as well as his final theories of lituraterre littoral and the sinthome and interrogates a range of poststructuralist interpretive approaches In the second part of the book he outlines the variety of ways in which Lacanian theory can be applied to literary texts and offers detailed readings of texts by Shakespeare Donne Joyce and Ashbery This ground breaking study provides original insights into a number of the most influential intellectual discussions in relation to Lacan and will fill a recognised gap in understanding Lacan and his legacy for literary study and criticism Derrida and Lacan Michael Lewis, 2008-11-03 Derrida and Lacan Another Writing argues that Jacques Derrida's philosophical understanding of language should be supplemented by Jacques Lacan's psychoanalytic approach to the symbolic order Lacan adopts a non philosophical genetic or developmental approach to the question of language and in doing so isolates a dimension that Derrida cannot properly envisage the imaginary Michael Lewis argues that the real must be understood not just in relation to the symbolic but also in relation to the imaginary The existence of an alternative approach to the real that is other than language allows us to identify the idiosyncrasies of Derrida's purely transcendental approach an approach that addresses language in terms of its conditions of possibility Lacan shows us that an attention to the genesis of the symbolic order of language and culture should lead us to understand this real other in a different way This book relates transcendental thought to the insights of non philosophical thought and more specifically it proposes a way in which philosophy might relate to the insights of the human and natural sciences By critically juxtaposing Derrida and Lacan Derrida and Lacan Another Writing attempts to systematise Slavoj Zizek s presentation of a Lacanian alternative to Derridean deconstruction This work should be of interest to all readers in continental thought and transcendental philosophy deconstruction psychoanalysis and literary studies Introduction to the Reading of Lacan Joel Dor, 2013-03-26 About this Book A major and long overdue addition to the America English psychoanalytic literature All major concepts among them the mirror stage the Name of the Father metaphor and metonymy the phallus the foreclosure of the subject are developed in depth Nicholas Kouretsas Dead Subjects Antonio Viego, 2007-11-01 Examines how Lacanian theory lends itself to a new Harvard Medical School way of thinking about ethnic racialized subjectivity applying it to notions of Latino a subjectivity and experience in particular

Femininity and Psychoanalysis Agnieszka Piotrowska, Ben Tyrer, 2019-05-29 For Freud famously the feminine was a dark continent or a riddle without an answer This understanding concerns man's relationship to the question of woman but femininity is also a matter of sexuality and gender and therefore of identity and experience Drawing together leading academics including film and literary scholars clinicians and artists from diverse backgrounds Femininity and Psychoanalysis Cinema Culture Theory speaks to the continued relevance of psychoanalytic understanding in a social and political landscape where ideas of gender and sexuality are undergoing profound changes This transdisciplinary collection crosses boundaries between clinical and psychological discourse and arts and humanities fields to approach the topic of femininity from a variety of psychoanalytic perspectives From object relations to Lacan to queer theory the essays here revisit and rethink the debates over what the feminine might be The volume presents a major new work by leading feminist film scholar Elizabeth Cowie in which she presents a first intervention on the topic of film and the feminine for over 20 years as well as a key essay by the prominent artist and psychoanalyst Bracha Ettinger Written by an international selection of contributors this collection is an indispensable tool for film and literary scholars engaged with psychoanalysts and anybody interested in different approaches Theorizing Desire K. Gorton, 2008-03-13 What is the nature of desire This book gives an to the question of the feminine accessible introduction to the concept and a coherent critique of the competing theories of desire within contemporary theory Through analysis of representations of desire in television and film it considers ways in which the concept is theorized and presented on screen Planning in Ten Words Or Less Michael Gunder, Jean Hillier, 2009 Based on a range of international studies on planning policy and practice this book takes a Lacanian and related post structuralist perspective to demythologize ten of the most heavily utilized terms in spatial planning Dreams That Matter Amira Mittermaier, 2011 This brilliant study presents contemporary anthropology at its best Whether one s goal is understanding the permeability of traditions and modernities or the changing shape of religious imagination and thought in one of the most pivotal countries of the Middle East this book is an outstanding point of departure Dale F Eickelman author of The Middle East and Central Asia An Anthropological Approach 4th ed Dreams That Matter is an insightful and well crafted study of the practice of dreaming in contemporary Egypt Mittermaier provides a superb analysis of the imaginative repertoires of Islamic traditions and shows how the dream has remained not only a site of Muslim scholarly interest but an important part of the way ordinary Muslims encounter and engage with the divine Charles Hirschkind author of Powers of the Secular Modern Talal Asad and His Interlocutors Amira Mittermaier has given us the most complete anthropological study of dream culture in the Middle East perhaps in any culture It is a sensitive intellectually challenging indeed a courageous investigation of the psychological ontological and ethical assumptions that lie behind dreams visions and dream visitations in contemporary Egypt where the dream is a vibrant site of political religious and interpretive contest Dreams That Matter will rank among the most important contributions to the anthropology of the imagination for years to come Vincent Crapanzano author of The Harkis The Wound That Never Heals Hegelian-Lacanian Variations on Late Modernity Alireza Taheri, 2020-12-29 The current rise in new religions and the growing popularity of New Ageism is concomitant with an increasingly anti philosophical sentiment marking our contemporary situation More specifically it is philosophical and psychoanalytic reason that has lost standing faced with the triumph of post secular spirituality Combatting this trend this treatise develops a theoretical apparatus based on Hegelian speculative reason and Lacanian psychoanalysis With the aid of this theoretical apparatus the book argues how certain conceptual pairs appear opposed through an operation of misrecognition christened following Hegel as diremption The failure to reckon with identities in difference relegates the subject to more vicious contradictions that define central aspects of our contemporary predicament The repeated thesis of the treatise is that the deadlocks marking our contemporary situation require renewed engagement with dialectical thinking beyond the impasses of common understanding Only by embarking on this philosophical psychoanalytic path of despair Hegel will we stand a chance of achieving joyful wisdom Nietzsche Developing a unique dialectical theory based on readings of Hegel Lacan and i ek in order to address various philosophical and psychoanalytic questions this book will be of great interest to anyone interested in German idealism and or Lacanian Psychotherapy With Children Catherine Mathelin, 1999-01-17 In a groundbreaking psychoanalytic theory integration of the work of Lacan Winnicott and Tustin Catherine Mathelin reveals how a child's symptoms can be a striking reflection of its parents unresolved conflicts She shows how her patients art much of it reproduced here can communicate both initial anguish and progress in treatment and draws on her experience of working on a neonatal unit to argue
