Foxes Book Of Martyrs Select Narratives Oxford Worlds Classics:

Foxe's Book of Martyrs John Foxe, 2009-03-12 A great Christian classic first published in the 16th century this book describes the heroism and martyrdom of countless believers Christian Inventing the Gothic Corpse Yael Shapira, 2018-05-22 Inventing the Gothic Corpse shows how a series of bold experiments in eighteenth century British realist and Gothic fiction transform the dead body from an instructive icon into a thrill device For centuries vivid images of the corpse were used to deliver a spiritual or political message today they appear regularly in Gothic and horror stories as a source of macabre pleasure Yael Shapira's book tracks this change as it unfolds in eighteenth century fiction from the early novels of Aphra Behn and Daniel Defoe through the groundbreaking mid century works of Samuel Richardson Henry Fielding and Horace Walpole to the Gothic fictions of Ann Radcliffe Matthew Lewis Charlotte Dacre and Minerva Press authors Isabella Kelly and Mrs Carver In tracing this long historical arc Shapira illuminates a hidden side of the history of the novel the dead body she shows helps the fledgling literary form confront its own controversial ability to entertain Her close scrutiny of fictional corpses across the long eighteenth century reveals how the dead body functions as a test of the novel's intentions a chance for novelists to declare their allegiances in the battle between the didactic and the merely pleasurable Praying in the Spirit of Christ Paul W. Chilcote, 2017-10-20 Praying in the Spirit of Christ offers contemporary readers a compelling and holistic vision of what life in Christ can mean for them It draws from the broad array of spiritual and theological literature that John Wesley considered most significant for growth in Christian discipleship In this volume author Paul Chilcote utilizes the same method or approach of his earlier devotional work Praying in the Wesleyan Spirit He has transposed brief excerpts from Wesley's fifty volume Christian Library into fluid prayers that are written in contemporary language yet faithful to the spiritual insights of the classical sources A hymn by Charles Wesley accompanies each prayer and a passage of Scripture frames the topic for each devotional reading The prayers help readers ponder themes like the desire of the heart liberty in Christ thirst for God resurrection joy and unbounded love These devotions engage head and heart and seek to shape the lives of those who pray in the spirit of Christ English Reformation: Oxford Bibliographies Online

Martyrdom CATHERINE PEPINSTER, 2020-10-22 It was the Roman writer Tertullian who said The blood of the martyrs is the seed of the Church From its origins martyrdom has had a particularly honoured place in Christianity This will be confirmed again in 2020 when the Catholic Church marks the fiftieth anniversary of the canonization of the 40 Catholic Reformation martyrs of England and Wales by Pope Paul VI The sacrifices of Catholics at the time of the Reformation were matched by those of Anglicans who were also persecuted and executed for their faith for refusing to renounce it or change to another one This book examines the significance of martyrdom for Christians today particularly for the British and analyses how churches today deal with past martyrdoms of Christians by other Christians Pepinster explores how ideas of martyrdom have changed over the centuries and considers what the stories of particular martyrs tell us today She studies how martyrdom is powerfully connected with the clash between religious beliefs and political creeds and refers to Thomas Becket and Thomas More and the confrontation between Nazism and Christianity and cites more recent examples of Oscar Romero Dorothy Stang and Martin Luther King The book also looks at the issue of conscience ideas about heroism the role of violence in Christianity and the impact of martyrdom on the arts It also considers how martyrdom is perceived today when it is often part of a narrative about religious fundamentalism and terrorist atrocities

Essex Girls Sarah Perry, 2020-10-01 Not all Essex girls are party girls They can be sages martyrs leaders In her neat and provocative little book Sarah Perry celebrates their courage and vivacity Hilary Mantel A defence and celebration of the Essex Girl by the best selling author of The Essex Serpent Essex Girls are disreputable disrespectful and disobedient They speak out of turn too loudly and too often in an accent irritating to the ruling classes Their bodies are hyper sexualised and irredeemably vulgar They are given to intricate and voluble squabbling They do not apologise for any of this And why should they In this exhilarating feminist defence of the Essex girl Sarah Perry re examines her relationship with her much maligned home county She summons its most unquiet spirits from Protestant martyr Rose Allin to the indomitable Abolitionist Anne Knight sitting them alongside Audre Lorde Kim Kardashian and Harriet Martineau and showing us that the Essex girl is not bound by geography She is a type representing a very particular kind of female agency and a very particular kind of disdain she contains a multitude of women and it is time to celebrate them

Aphra Behn and Her Female Successors Margarete Rubik, 2011 This collection of essays casts new light at Aphra Behn s poetry drama prose and literary criticism The contributors analyse her creative response to the literary theories genres and motifs of her age and point out remarkable analogies to the writings of her female successors some of whom have not hitherto been viewed in relation to this Restoration pioneer of female authorship Her influence on modern writers can still be felt in texts as diverse as Virginia Woolf s Orlando Molly Brown s historical thriller set in Restoration England and Joan Anim Addo s adaptation of Oroonoko Publisher s description

marks the 500th anniversary of the beginning of the Reformation On this occasion the Council of Lutheran Churches in Great Britain presents Martin Luther and His Legacy to tell the story of the development of Lutheran communities in the UK This historical survey takes the reader through 500 years of Lutheranism concluding with a picture of the Lutheran church as it exists in Great Britain today

The Elizabethan Mind Helen Hackett,2022-01-01 The first comprehensive guide to Elizabethan ideas about the mind What is the mind How does it relate to the body and soul These questions were as perplexing for the Elizabethans as they are for us today although their answers were often startlingly different Shakespeare and his contemporaries believed the mind was governed by the humours and passions and was susceptible to the Devil's interference In this insightful and wide ranging account Helen Hackett explores the intricacies of Elizabethan ideas about the mind This was a period of turbulence and transition as persistent medieval theories competed with revived classical ideas and emerging scientific developments Drawing on a wealth of sources Hackett sheds new light on works by Shakespeare Marlowe Sidney and Spenser demonstrating how ideas about the mind shaped new literary and theatrical forms Looking at their conflicted attitudes to imagination dreams and melancholy Hackett examines how Elizabethans perceived the mind soul and self and how their ideas compare with our own

Characters of Blood Celeste-Marie Bernier,2012 Across the centuries the acts and arts of black heroism have inspired a provocative experimental and self reflexive intellectual political and aesthetic tradition In Characters of Blood Celeste Marie Bernier illuminates the ways in which six iconic men and women Toussaint Louverture Nathaniel Turner Sengbe Pieh Sojourner Truth Frederick Douglass and Harriet Tubman challenged the dominant conceptualizations of their histories and played a key role in the construction of an alternative visual and textual archive While these figures have survived as symbolic touchstones Bernier contends that scholars have yet to do justice to their complex bodies of work or their multifaceted lives Adopting a comparative and transatlantic approach to her subjects remarkable life stories the author analyzes a wealth of creative work from literature drama and art to public monuments religious tracts and historical narratives to show how it represents enslaved heroism throughout the United States Africa and the Caribbean In mapping this black diasporic tradition of resistance Bernier intends not only to reveal the limitations and distortions on record but also to complicate the definitions of black heroism that have been restricted by ideological boundaries between heroic and anti heroic sites and sights of struggle

Insights on Insincerity Chris Edwards,2018-03-14 Erasmus praised folly and the Romantics waxed poetically about love but no one until now has traced the history and impact of insincerity on society and the humanities Insincerity arises when someone feels one way but acts another and an insincere situation looks to have one purpose but really hides another Insincerity finds expression in four types of relationships 1 From authority to the subordinate 2 From the subordinate to authority 3 Between equals 4 In society and in the self Educators can discover how highlight insincerity in literature history psychology sociology politics and popular culture All readers can learn how to identify insincerity in their everyday relationships Was that meeting at work really about conveying information and soliciting responses or was it really about reinforcing the corporate hierarchy When Galileo apologized to the Inquisition for positing a solar system did he bring an end to an era of great religious sincerity What did George Orwell get so wrong about insincerity in 1984 Most importantly readers can find out what they should do when they you encounter that modern phrase that manifests insincerity Thanks so much for your feedback The British National

Bibliography Arthur James Wells,2009 Authority, State and National Character Helmut Kuzmics,Roland Axtmann,2017-03-02 This book presents a cross disciplinary and methodologically innovative study combining historical macro sociology and a sociology of emotions with historical anthropology and cultural studies Drawing on the concepts and theories of Norbert Elias on the Civilizing Process it sets out to pin down and compare qualities that are simultaneously instantly recognisable and highly elusive that is a kind of typical Englishness and of Austrianness that developed contemporaneously in the period up to the First World War The authors chart the development of political authority structures in their varied historical manifestations as well as their affective sedimentation as collective habitus national character comparing England and Austria from 1700 to 1900 as a case study Their argument is based on an analysis of literary sources mainly novels and plays applying a sociology of literature approach Axtmann and Kuzmics argue that the very different national characters formed in England and Austria during this time are related to differences in the affective experience of power and powerlessness in short of authority They show that the formation of national character is determined partly by the different mixture of authoritative external constraints and milder self restraint and partly by the affective experience of human beings in uneven power balances Specifically they show how the formation of the bureaucratic state with strong patrimonial features in Austria and of a self organizing civil society with strong bourgeois liberal features in England resulted both in different institutional structures of authority and in different modes of the affective experience of this authority Employing empirical detail of individual cases and texts to analyse and illuminate broad processes the authors reach a clearer and deeper understanding of seemingly intangible and irrational aspects of national identity The English Imagination Stuart Holroyd,1969 The Publisher ,1902 Oxford Essays University of Oxford,1857 Oxford essays ,1857 The Bookman Illustrated History of English Literature Thomas Seccombe,Sir William Robertson Nicoll,1906

Renaissance and Reformation William Roscoe Estep,1986 Readable and informative this major text in Reformation history is a detailed exploration of the many facets of the Reformation especially its relationship to the Renaissance Estep pays particular attention to key individuals of the period including Wycliffe Huss Erasmus Luther Zwingli and Calvin Illustrated with maps and pictures The Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record of British and Foreign Literature ,1902
