Chadwick, 2001 For nearly two thousand years courageous men and women have been tortured and killed because of their confessions of Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior This updated edition of Foxes Book of Martyrs contains stories of persecution up to 2001 Stories of heroic courage and overcoming faith Stories of love of God and Christ Stories of the amazing grace of God that enabled men women and children to endure persecutions and often horrible deaths Fox's Book of Martyrs John Foxe, 1829

Expanding the Canon of Early Modern Women's Writing Paul Salzman, 2010-07-12 This exciting collection of original essays on early modern women's writing offers a range of approaches to a growing field As a whole the volume introduces readers to a number of writers such as Mirabai and Liu Rushi who are virtually invisible in Anglophone scholarship and to writers who remain little known such as Elizabeth Melville Elizabeth Hatton and Jane Sharpe The volume also represents critical strategies designed to open up the emergent canon of early modern women's writing to new approaches especially those that have consolidated the integration of literary and intellectual history with an emphasis on religion legal issues and questions of genre The authors expand the methodological possibilities available to approach early modern women who wrote in a diverse number of genres from letters to poetry autobiography and prose fiction The sixteen essays are a major contribution to an area that has attracted the interest of a number of fields including literary studies history cultural studies and women s studies
