

FOXMASK

The background of the cover is a painting of a young woman with long, flowing blonde hair lying face down on a rocky, mossy ground. She is wearing a light-colored, possibly white, dress. Her hair is spread out around her head, and some thin, dark, branch-like structures are draped over her. The scene is set in a forest with a stream or waterfall in the background, creating a somber and ethereal atmosphere. The title 'FOXMASK' is written in a large, ornate, golden-yellow font at the top. A quote from Sara Douglass is centered below the title. The author's name, 'Juliet Marillier', is written in the same ornate font at the bottom.

"Juliet Marillier is among the most skilled of fantasy writers—she is far better than Marion Zimmer Bradley."

—Sara Douglass

Marillier, 2007-04-01 Captivating historical fantasy an artful mix of myth and magic from the national bestselling author of Wolfskin Publishers Weekly After much pain and sorrow Norseman Eyvind and his priestess bride Nessa have managed to create a society where the Norse warriors and the gentle folks of the Orkney Isles live and thrive in contentment at last A decade and more has passed since the devastating events of the creation of the settlement and Eyvind and Nessa have watched their children grow and thrive in peace But not all on the islands are content or at peace Thorvald the young son of Margaret widow of the slain king and Eyvind's war leader has always felt apart and at odds with all he knows He learns upon his coming to manhood that he is not his father's son but that of the love that Margaret bore for the hated Somerled and that Somerled was not killed for his treachery but sent on a boat adrift with little more than a knife and skein of water doomed to the god's will Thorvald is determined to find a boat and cast off to the West in a desperate bid to find a father he never knew and to find out if he is made of the same stuff as the heinous traitor The tragedy of this scheme would be horrific enough if it were not for the fact that Creidhe the winsome daughter of Eyvind and Nessa has loved Thorvald since birth and
