Integrated Approach to Schizophrenia, 1994 Mental Health Systems Compared R. Paul Olson, 2006 The primary objective of this book is to provide comprehensive descriptions and make comparative evaluations of each of the mental health systems of four Western industrialized countries The countries selected illustrate a continuum from a highly centralized and publicly financed national health service in Great Britain to a predominantly decentralized and more privately financed market of mental health services in the United States In between these two contrasting types are examples of national health services and insurance programs in Norway and Canada Contributing experts from each country begin their chapters with an overview of the geographic demographic political economic and cultural contexts in which their mental health systems are situated Thereafter they present national data to estimate the need for mental health services b describe national mental health policies and programs designed to meet their population's needs, c indicate how mental health services are organized and delivered and d discuss how their system is financed and provided resources. A common chapter outline facilitates comparisons among all four systems on relevant evaluation criteria: a access and equity, b quality and efficacy, c cost and efficiency, d financing and fairness, e protection and participation, and f population relevance. In the final section of each chapter, the authors provide recommendations for improved performance of their mental health system. In the initial chapter, the editor provides an overview, introduces the four countries selected, and defines the evaluation criteria applied by all contributing authors. The final two chapters address convergence and divergence among the four systems and provide recommendations for improvement and for future comparative studies. The intended audience includes mental health policymakers, program administrators and managers, teachers of graduate level courses, and related professionals.

Kaleidoskop Sandra Petersen, 2011-11-20 Konflikten i Midtsten er en av de mest omtalte og langvarige konfliktene verden har opplevd i nyere tid. Nyhetsbildet preges av selvmordsangrep, gjengjeldelser og forhandlinger om fred med mer eller mindre mislykkede resultater. Det finnes mange stemmer blant israelere og palestinere som har oppfatninger og synspunkter vi sjelden finner i nyhetsbildet. I denne boka møter du noen av dem, både israelere og palestinere med ulike perspektiver og oppfatninger om samfunnet de lever i, konflikten de er en del av og den bakenforliggende historien. I denne boka er det menneskene som formidler synspunktene: jøder, muslimer, ortodokse kristne, akademikere, aktivister og journalister. På samme måte som kaleidoskopet viser oss nye mønstre med det samme speilbildet, som utgangspunkt gir denne boka nye perspektiver på en vedvarende konflikt. Når du har lest denne boka vil du forstå hvor komplisert konflikten mellom israelere og palestinere er.

Dagbladet Sandra Petersen har en mastergrad fra School of Oriental and African Studies i London. Hennes mastergradsoppgave dreftet problemstillingen knyttet til tittelen: Statslig diplomati i Palestina. Hun har også studert hebraisk ved Hebrew University. I en rekke år har hun reist i Israel og de palestinske områdene. Tonje Merete Viken er journalist med bakgrunn fra Morgenbladet, NRK og Dagbladet. Viken har bodd i Jerusalem og Tel Aviv og har fulgt konflikten i Midtsten på nært hold.
