Entrapment and Other Writings Nelson Algren, 2011-01-04 Nelson Algren sought humanity in the urban wilderness of postwar America where his powerful voice rose from behind the billboards and down tin can alleys from among the marginalized and ignored the outcasts and scapegoats the punks and junkies the whores and down on their luck gamblers the punch drunk boxers and skid row drunkies and kids who knew they'd never reach the age of twenty one all of them admirable in Algren's eyes for their vitality and no bullshit forthrightness their insistence on living and their ability to find a laugh and a dream in the unlikeliest places In Entrapment and Other Writings containing his unfinished novel and previously unpublished or uncollected stories poems and essays Algren speaks to our time as few of his fellow great American writers of the 1940s and 50s do in part because he hasn't yet been accepted and assimilated into the American literary canon despite that he is held up as a talismanic figure You should not read Algren if you can't take a punch Ernest Hemingway declared Mr Algren can hit with both hands and move around and he will kill you if you are not awfully careful The Short Writings of Nelson Algren Richard F. Bales, 2022-09-15 Nelson Algren was a renowned Chicago writer known for his social commentary and his novels like The Man with the Golden Arm and A Walk on the Wild Side Although he continues to be remembered almost exclusively for his novels this book aims to highlight the value and influence of his short form works Before he died in 1981 Algren had amassed a genre defying body of work including short stories articles poems and book reviews The present book features a comprehensive analysis and discussion of Algren's lost literature including everything but his novels One of the pieces covered is a masterpiece of race relations written in 1950 more than 60 years before the galvanization of the Black Lives Matter movement Another is a scathing poem about Algren's transatlantic love affair with Simone de Beauvoir Both items are reprinted in the book courtesy of the Algren estate This book also includes references to Algren's works that have yet to be studied by Algren scholars

Nelson Algren Richard F. Bales, 2024-11-07 This book addresses critical gaps in existing biographies of Nelson Algren providing new perspectives on his writing style literary contributions professional colleagues and personal life especially his relationship with Simone de Beauvoir Although Beauvoir maintained a simultaneous relationship with philosopher Jean Paul Sartre the correspondence exchanged between Beauvoir Algren and Sartre as this book discusses sheds new light on her transatlantic love affair with Algren Moreover this work challenges the assertion that Algren's writing aligns seamlessly with the New Journalism style popularized by Tom Wolfe It investigates how Algren's literary legacy might have diverged had he embraced more of the principles associated with New Journalism The Encyclopedia of Twentieth-Century Fiction, 3 Volume Set Brian W.  Wilderness Nelson Algren, 2023-10-10 As rock and roll novelist Tom Carson writes in his introduction The Neon Wilderness is the pivotal book of Nelson Algren's career the one which bid a subdued but determined farewell to everything that had earlier made him no more than just another good writer and inaugurated the idiosyncratic bedevilled cantankerously poetic sensibility that would see him ranked among the few literary originals of his times Algren's classic 1947 short story collection is the pure vein Algren would mine for all his subsequent novels and stories The stories in this collection are literary triumphs that don't fade away Among the stories included here are A Bottle of Milk for Mother about a Chicago youth being cornered for a murder and The Face on the Barrage Floor in which a legless man pummels another man nearly to death the seeds that would grow into the novel Never Come Morning Algren's World War II stories whose final expression would be in the novel The Man with the Golden Arm are also part of this collection So Help Me Algren's first published work is here Other stories include The Captain Has Bad Dreams in which Algren first introduced the character of the blameless captain who feels such a heavy burden of guilt and wonders why the criminal offenders he sees seem to feel no guilt at all And then there is Design for Departure in which a young woman drifting into hooking and addiction sees her own dreaminess outlasting her hopes The Man with the Golden Arm Nelson Algren, 2023-01-31 A novel of rare genius The Man with the Golden Arm describes the dissolution of a card dealing WWII veteran named Frankie Machine caught in the act of slowly cutting his own heart into wafer thin slices For Frankie a murder committed may be the least of his problems The literary critic Malcolm Cowley called The Man with the Golden Arm Algren's defense of the individual while Carl Sandburg wrote of its strange midnight dignity. A literary tour de force here is a novel unlike any other one in which drug addiction, poverty, and human failure somehow suggest a defense of human dignity and a reason for hope. Seven Stories Press separately publishes the critical edition of The Man with the Golden Arm, the first critical edition of an Algren work featuring an extra 100 pages of insightful essays by Russell Banks, Bettina Drew, James R. Giles, Carlo Rotella, William Savage, Lee Stringer, Studs Terkel, Kurt Vonnegut, and others.

Never Come Morning Nelson Algren, 2021-07-27 Never Come Morning is unique among the novels of Algren. The author's only romance, the novel concerns Bruno Bicek, a would-be boxer from Chicago's Northwest side, and Steffi, the woman who shares his dream while living his nightmare. It is an unusual and brilliant book, said The New York Times. A bold scribbling upon the wall for comfortable Americans to ponder and digest. This new edition features an introduction by Kurt Vonnegut Jr. and an interview with Nelson Algren by H. E. F. Donohue.

Nonconformity Nelson Algren, 2025-07-15 The struggle to write with deep emotion is the subject of this extraordinary book, the previously unpublished credo of one of America's greatest 20th-century writers. You don't write a novel out of sheer pity any more than you blow a safe out of a vague longing to be rich, writes Nelson Algren in his only longer work of nonfiction, adding, "A certain ruthlessness and a sense of alienation from society is as essential to creative writing as it is to armed robbery." Nonconformity is about 20th-century America. Never on the earth of man has he lived so tidily as here amidst such psychological disorder. And it is about the trouble writers ask for when they try to describe America. Our myths are so many, our vision so dim, our self-deception so deep, and our smugness so gross that scarcely any way now remains of reporting the American Century except from behind the billboards where there are still defeats in which everything is lost and victories that fall close enough to the heart to afford living hope. In Nonconformity, Algren identifies the essential nature of the writer's relation to society, drawing examples from Dostoyevsky, Chekhov, Twain, and Fitzgerald, as well as utility infielder Leo Durocher and legendary barkeep Martin Dooley. He shares his deepest beliefs about the state of literature and its role in society along the way, painting a chilling portrait of the early 1950s Joe McCarthy's heyday when many American writers were blacklisted and ruined for saying similar things to what Algren is saying here.
