Faith Ideology And Fear Muslim Identities Within And Beyond Prisons:

Faith, Ideology and Fear Gabriele Marranci, 2020-09-08 Based on four years anthropological research within prisons and Muslim communities in the UK this book offers a unique discussion of the relationship between the experience of prison among Muslims and the formation of religious identity Gabriele Marranci thoroughly examines Muslim religious life in prison the work of Muslim chaplains and imams and the overall impact that they have on Muslim prisoners providing an analysis of the current prison policies aiming to prevent radicalisation and discusses the counterproductive results of an increasing young Muslim presence in prisons as well as the reaction of the Muslim communities to this increase Marranci suggests that the prison environment and increasing restrictions therein are linked to the fear of radicalization and are facilitating identity processes in which Islam turns into an ideology This important study goes on to make a thorough examination of the lives of former Muslim prisoners showing how they are particularly vulnerable to extremists recruitment and explaining the dynamics which have led in certain cases to their recommitting offences or embarking on a path of radicalization Muslim

Identity Formation in Religiously Diverse Societies Derya Iner, Salih Yucel, 2015-10-28 This book centres on the key concept of diversity and relates it to the identity formation of Muslims Muslim identity differs specifically within certain theological social political and regional circumstances and discourses Considering the diversity of societies and the numerous factors contributing to the shaping of Muslim identity this book brings together examples from different parts of the world including Western societies and each chapter focuses on separate determinants of individual communal political institutional civic and national Muslim identities offering a blueprint for identity studies A particular strength of the book is its detailed investigation of the complexity of identity formation and the heterogeneity of the Muslim experience In addition to including a variety of themes and cases from different parts of the world diverse methodologies including quantitative and qualitative research methods further enrich the book The contributors academic backgrounds and organic relationships with their communities enable them to develop their arguments with insight Furthermore by giving voice to academics from different nationalities this book reflects neither a predominantly Western nor a distinctly Eastern approach but instead gives a balanced view from critical academia globally Religious Change and Indigenous Peoples

Helena Onnudottir, Adam Possamai, 2016-04-08 Exploring religious and spiritual changes which have been taking place among Indigenous populations in Australia and New Zealand this book focuses on important changes in religious affiliation in census data over the last 15 years Drawing on both local social and political debates while contextualising the discussion in wider global debates about changing religious identities especially the growth of Islam the authors present a critical analysis of the persistent images and discourses on Aboriginal religions and spirituality This book takes a comparative approach to other Indigenous and minority groups to explore contemporary changes in religious affiliation which have raised questions about resistance to modernity challenges to the nation state and or rejection of Christianity or Islam Helena Onnudottir Adam Possamai and

Bryan Turner offer a critical analysis to on going public political and sociological debates about religious conversion especially to Islam and changing religious affiliations including an increase in the number of people who claim no religion among Indigenous populations This book also offers a major contribution to the growing debate about conversion to Islam among Australian Aborigines Maoris and Pacific peoples Constitutional Democracy and Islam Francesco

Alicino,2023-04-07 This book outlines the legal status of Muslims in Italy In particular it highlights that when it comes to Islam the Italian legal system exacerbates the dilemma of contemporary constitutional democracies increasingly caught between the principle of equality and the right to have rights which implies the respect of diversity It provides readers with a deep understanding of how domestic and external socio political factors may muddle the interpretation of Italy s constitutional provisions starting with those relating to state secularism and religious freedom It is argued that today as never before these provisions are torn between the principle of equality and the right to be different This situation has been exacerbated by incessant states of emergency from immigration to religion inspired terrorism in light of which the presence of Islam in the peninsula has been highly politicized Italy s experience on the legal status of Muslims provides an interesting case study and as such a valuable source of empirical information for a functioning and pluralistic constitutional democracy especially when dealing with conditions of fear and insecurity The book will be of interest to researchers academics and policy makers working in the areas of law and religion constitutional law comparative law and human rights Religion and Prison: An Overview of Contemporary Europe Julia Martínez-Ariño,Anne-Laure Zwilling,2020-07-07 This volume offers a European overview of the management of religious diversity in prisons and provides readers with rich empirical material and a comparative perspective The chapters combine both legal and sociological approaches Coverage for each country includes historical background current penitentiary organization and recent changes or trends In their exploration of legal aspects the contributors look at such factors as the status of prison chaplains and regulations concerning religious practice and religious freedom These include meals prayers and visits The sociological analysis examines religious discrimination in prison church prison relations conversion and proselytism and more The European coverage includes countries for which such information is seldom available The book offers readers a better understanding of governance of religion in prisons This text appeals to students researchers and professionals in the field Prisoner Radicalization and

Terrorism Detention Policy Tinka Veldhuis,2016-05-20 Correctional policies for Islamist violent extremist offenders are often based on the premise that prisons can be hotbeds of radicalization The perception that inmates are susceptible to violent extremist belief systems has given rise to a fervent international public political and scholarly debate and has led to the introduction of drastic often expensive policies to counter the threat of prison radicalization But is the introduction of these policies justified A key question is whether violent extremist offenders should be concentrated in separate high security prisons or whether they should be integrated into the mainstream inmate population Prisoner Radicalization and Terrorism

Detention Policy argues that concentration strategies to manage violent extremist offenders are often flawed based on untested potentially false assumptions that are rooted in fear rather than in facts Little academic evidence has been produced that can valuably inform policy making in this area As a result policies to detain violent extremist offenders may be inadequately tailored to achieve their objectives and could even lead to an intensification of the violent extremist threat This book is the first to present a detailed and systematic case study of the decision making and implementation process behind terrorism detention policy It will be essential reading for students scholars and policymakers researching criminal justice terrorism and extremism

Chaplaincy and Practical Theology Stephen B. Roberts, Sarah Dunlop, 2022-02-23 Chaplaincy has emerged as a highly significant form of ministry in the twenty first century and chaplaincy studies is growing as a field of study that learns from the experience and work of chaplains in their diverse sectors Chaplains from a range of different faith traditions pioneer ministry within the secular yet religiously plural contexts of contemporary life with often considerable creativity and skill generating a wealth of insight to be gleaned for understanding the place of faith in the modern world One of the disciplines that has been most concerned with gleaning those insights and developing the field of chaplaincy studies is practical theology The journal Practical Theology formerly Contact is a key repository for much of the wisdom gained through such study and this book draws on the archive of the journal to trace the development of chaplaincy research and provide a resource for those seeking to join the conversation about the nature and significance of chaplaincy as a form of ministry and mission today Drawing on different sectors of chaplaincy and different methodological approaches this book is invaluable for those engaged in chaplaincy work those seeking to research that work and for anyone interested in contemporary pioneering forms of ministry

What Else Works? Jo Brayford, Francis B Cowe, John Deering, 2013-05-13 What Else Works has developed out of a growing awareness amongst practitioners that centralized notions of what works and one size fits all approaches to work with offenders and other groups is inevitably limited in its scope and effectiveness The book seeks to dispel the view of probation service users as offenders and socially excluded people as problems to be managed and treated and instead considers more creative alternatives to reduce both re offending and social exclusion These include working separately with women black and minority ethnic groups local community focussed projects in education and nature and conservation programmes The reader is encouraged to think about past and current policy practice and the relationship between practitioners and offenders or other socially excluded people Questions are raised as to whether and how practice could be different and contributors explore the theme of creative and change focussed practice or focus on a particular approach to a practice This book will appeal to students on criminal justice criminology and social work courses professionals operating in these fields as well as the wider audience of professionals and academics who may engage with these service users from a range of policy and practice perspectives

The Oxford Handbook of American Islam Yvonne Yazbeck Haddad, Jane I. Smith, 2014 In this volume 30 of the field s top scholars examine historical and contemporary aspects of American Islam and explore the meaning of religious identity in the context of race ethnicity gender and politics A Handbook of Chaplaincy Studies Christopher Swift, Mark Cobb, Andrew Todd, 2016-03-09 A Handbook of Chaplaincy Studies explores fundamental issues and critical questions in chaplaincy spanning key areas of health care the prison service education and military chaplaincy Leading authors and practitioners in the field present critical insight into the challenges and opportunities facing those providing professional spiritual care From young men and women in the military and in custody to the bedside of those experiencing life's greatest traumas this critical examination of the role played by the chaplain offers a fresh and informed understanding about faith and diversity in an increasingly secular society An invaluable compendium of case studies academic reflection and critical enquiry this handbook offers a fresh understanding of traditional contemporary and innovative forms of spiritual practice as they are witnessed in the public sphere Providing a wide ranging appraisal of chaplaincy in an era of religious complexity and emergent spiritualities this pioneering book is a major contribution to a relatively underdeveloped field and sets out how the phenomenon of chaplaincy can be better understood and its practice more robust and informed Criminology as a Moral Science Anthony E Bottoms, Jonathan Jacobs, 2023-09-07 This book proposes an explicit recognition of criminology as a moral science a philosophically textured appreciation of the presence and role of values in people's reasoning and motivation set within an empirically rigorous social scientific account This endeavour requires input from both criminologists and philosophers and careful dialogue between them Criminology as a Moral Science provides such a dialogue not least about the so called fact value distinction but also about substantive topics such as guilt and shame The book also provides philosophically informed accounts of morality in practice in several criminological contexts these include whistleblowing practices within a police service the dilemmas of mothers about who and what to tell about a partner's imprisonment and how persistent offenders begin to try to turn their lives around to desist from crime The issues raised go to the heart of some currently pressing topics within criminology notably the development of evidence based practice which requires some kind of stable bridge to be built between research evidence facts and proposals for policy evaluative recommendations Lived Religion, Conversion and Recovery Srdjan Sremac, Ines W. Jindra, 2020-04-23 The central theme of this book is the nexus between the self the social and the sacred in conversion and recovery The contributions explore the complex interactions that occur between the person the sacred and various recovery situations which can include prisons substance abuse recovery settings and domestic violence shelters With an interdisciplinary approach to the study of conversion the collection provides an opportunity for a better understanding of lived religion guilt shame hope forgiveness narrative identity reconstruction religious coping religious conversion and spiritual transformation This volume will be of interest to scholars and students of lived religion religious conversion recovery homelessness and substance dependence Offending and Desistance Beth Weaver, 2015-07-16 In Offending and Desistance Beth Weaver examines the role of a co-offending peer group in shaping and influencing offending and desistance focusing on three phases of their criminal careers onset persistence and desistance While there is consensus across the body of desistance research that social relations have a role to play in variously constraining enabling and sustaining desistance no desistance studies have adequately analysed the dynamics or properties of social relations or their relationship to individuals and social structures This book aims to reset this balance By examining the social relations and life stories of six Scottish men in their forties Weaver reveals the central role of friendship groups intimate relationships and families of formation employment and religious communities She shows how for different individuals these relations triggered reflexive evaluation of their priorities behaviours and lifestyles but with differing results Weaver's re-examination of the relationships between structure agency identity and reflexivity in the desistance process ultimately illuminates new directions for research policy and practice This book is essential reading for academics and students engaged in the study of criminology and criminal justice delinquency probation and criminal law

Understanding Muslim Identity G.

Marranci, 2009-01-15 In this timely book Marranci critically surveys the available theories on Islamic fundamentalism and extremism Rejecting essentialism and cultural reductionism the book suggests that identity and emotion play an essential role in the phenomenon that has been called fundamentalism

Values in Criminology and Community Justice Cowburn,

Malcolm, Duggan, Marian, Anne Robinson, Paul Senior, 2015-03-18 The stated values of criminologists policy makers and researchers don't always correspond with their responses to crime This collection parses the many different sides these professionals take on issues relating to victims and offenders punishment and protection and rights and responsibilities Drawing on empirical research crime theory and criminal justice practice the contributors explore such topics as the dynamics of race gender and age the workings of the criminal justice system the ethics of research and current debates about new criminological issues such as the green movement and Islamophobia

Positive Growth and Redemption in Prison Lila Kazemian, 2019-10-10

Although the negative consequences of rising incarceration rates have been well established criminological research has largely neglected to document psychological social and behavioral changes that occur during periods of incarceration Drawing on an original longitudinal study of long term French prisoners this book examines the process of desistance from crime and positive growth in prison It offers reflections on how personal transformation can be achieved in prison particularly among individuals serving long prison sentences This research investigates the barriers to achieving positive growth in prison as well as the different ways in which transformation can occur behind bars It also conceptualizes the process of abandoning crime in prison and sheds light on the cognitive social and structural factors that may trigger accelerate or hamper this process This book explores the circumstances under which individuals can thrive in prison and identifies key features of the narratives of prisoners who have achieved positive growth The research presented in this book also examines the intricacies of returning to society after a lengthy period of time in prison Written in a clear and accessible style this book will be invaluable reading for those engaged in studies of criminology

and criminal justice sociology criminal behavior prisons and penology It is also aimed at a variety of audiences including academics practitioners policy makers and prisoners      Understanding Muslim Chaplaincy Sophie Gilliat-Ray, Mansur Ali, 2016-02-24 Understanding Muslim Chaplaincy provides a lens through which to explore critical questions relating to contemporary religion in public life and the institutionalisation of Islam in particular Providing a rich description of the personnel practice and politics of contemporary Muslim chaplaincy the authors consider the extent to which Muslim chaplaincy might be distinctive in Britain relative to the work of Muslim chaplains in the USA and other countries This book will make a major contribution to international debate about the place of religion in public life and institutions This book derives from research that has depended on exclusive access to a wide range of public institutions and personnel who largely work behind closed doors By making public the work of these chaplains and critically examining the impact of their work within and beyond their institutions this book offers a groundbreaking study in the field of contemporary religion that will stimulate discussion for many years to come about Islam and Muslims in Western societies      Wars of Terror Gabriele Marranci, 2020-07-12 Analyzing the role of rhetoric and ideology in the western war on terror and Islamic jihad in the aftermath of 9 11 Gabriele Marranci shows that we are not experiencing a clash of civilizations but a clash among civilizers who believe they have the power to define how to be human Seeing themselves as under attack from a globalizing world that threatens to dilute their identity and very existence both sides employ a civilizational rhetoric to support its recourse to political violence Examining why some individuals are radicalized to take violent action while the majority are not the author compares the case of self identified crusader Anders Breivik with an example from his own fieldwork He shows that emotions such as indignation sense of injustice and reaction to the killing of civilians play an important role in underpinning violent acts as do the views presented by the civilizers on the other side Over time this leads to ever greater escalation as one side calls for more jihad and the other for greater anti terrorism measures drone attacks and bombings Based on twelve years of research and fieldwork in western countries as well as South and Southeast Asia Wars of Terror shows the impact labels stigma conspiracy theories and stereotypes have in maintaining this ongoing global conflict A fascinating anthropological study which makes a vital contribution to our understanding of one of the most important issues of our time

Accommodating Muslims under Common Law Salim Farrar, Ghena Krayem, 2016-07-15 The book explores the relationship between Muslims the Common Law and Shar ah post 9 11 The book looks at the accommodation of Shar ah Law within Western Common Law legal traditions and the role of the judiciary in particular in drawing boundaries for secular democratic states with Muslim populations who want resolutions to conflicts that also comply with the dictates of their faith Salim Farrar and Ghena Krayem consider the question of recognition of Shar ah by looking at how the flexibilities that exists in both the Common Law and Shar ah provide unexplored avenues for navigation and accommodation The issue is explored in a comparative context across several jurisdictions and case law is examined in the contexts of family law business and crime from selected jurisdictions with significant Muslim minority populations including Australia Canada England and Wales and the United States The book examines how Muslims and the broader community have framed their claims for recognition against a backdrop of terrorism fears and how Common Law judiciaries have responded within their constitutional and statutory confines and also within the contemporary contexts of demands for equality neutrality and universal human rights Acknowledging the inherent pragmatism flexibility and values of the Common Law the authors argue that the controversial issue of accommodation of Shar'ah is not necessarily one that requires the establishment of a separate and parallel legal system

Finding Freedom in Confinement Kent R. Kerley Ph.D., 2018-01-25 What is the nature and impact of faith and religion in prison This book summarizes contemporary and cutting edge research on religion in correctional contexts enabling a scientific understanding of how prisoners use faith in their everyday lives Religion long has been a tool for correctional treatment In the United States religion was the primary treatment modality in the first prisons Only since the 1980s however have social scientists begun to study the nature extent practice and impact of faith and faith based prison programs Bringing together the knowledge of scholars from around the world this single volume book offers readers a science and research based understanding of how prisoners use faith in everyday life examining the role of religion in prison correctional contexts from a variety of interdisciplinary and international viewpoints By considering the perspectives of professionals actually working in corrections or prison settings as well as those of scholars studying religion and or criminal justice readers of Finding Freedom in Confinement The Role of Religion in Prison Life can gain insight into the most contemporary research on religion in correctional contexts The book contains data driven conceptual and policy oriented essays that cover major religions such as Christianity Judaism and Islam within correctional environments It also addresses subject matter such as the roles of prison chaplains and correctional officers and the relationships between religion and common aspects of prison life such as drug abuse gangs violence prisoner identity rights of prisoners and rehabilitation
