Faith On The Edge Religion And Marginalized Existence:

Faith on the Edge Leonardo Boff, 2011-10-07 A major voice in liberation theology and once silenced for a year by the pope for his outspoken views Leonardo Boff here presents a collection of his controversial essays attacking poverty and political persecution As a Brazilian Boff is witness to and active in the liberation movement within the Catholic Church in Latin America He claims that the Church there is redefining itself as a modern populist movement It is in Latin America writes Boff that the Church of the future is being molded There are more Catholics in Latin America than on any other continent Soon more than half of the members of the Church will live here European countries with their demographic decline and meager religious creativity their theology liturgy and pastoral ministry consisting almost entirely of syntheses of material drawn from the past are gradually losing their universal relevance It is in Latin America that the Church's principal new challenges are appearing What is the relationship between the gospel and the liberation of the oppressed How can Christian love be reconciled with participation in the wild class struggle taking place around us How can Christianity help overcome the relations of international injustice prevailing in the unequal relationships between rich countries and poor ones Advocating a sympathetic but critical relationship between liberation theology and Marxism Boff claims that historical materialism is the social scientific method conducive to liberation theology He also discusses the political dimension of faith the Church's role in the struggle for human rights the nature of the popular Church the rights of the poor and the oppressed and the kind of future they may anticipate Boff's bold reflections on these and other issues make vital reading for anyone concerned with faith and justice in today's world

Rediscovering the Triune God Stanley James Grenz, 2004 The last century has witnessed a revival and renewal of trinitarian theology led initially by Karl Barth The legendary puzzles of trinitarian theology have become especially vexing in an era of changed philosophical and cultural categories and a host of religious thinkers in the last century have tried to reformulate the main lines of thought about God's trinitarian life. Theologian Stanley Grenz here tells this story of trinitarian theology reporting and analyzing the remarkable ferment in the discipline and discussing especially eleven theologians on such issues as God's inner life vs God's relationship to creation immanent and economic trinity social vs psychological analogies for the relationships within God the relationship between trinity and Christology the feminist critique of classical categories and how God's trinitarian life figures in evolution social justice and spirituality Grenz's Introduction places this ferment historically in the course of Christian thought from the patristic period to now while his Conclusion sets a future agenda for the doctrine and theology

Slavery-Free

Communities Dan Pratt, 2021-07-30 Modern Slavery and Human Trafficking MSHT are global crimes impacting local communities. Vulnerable people are exploited through labour, sex and forced criminality. Churches and communities are increasingly encountering these victims and survivors and consequently need to develop more effective engagement. The book will highlight that churches and communities are in a unique position to partner towards slavery-free communities. Beginning with the narratives of survivors who experienced three different forms of MSHT including labour exploitation, sexual exploitation and domestic exploitation, the book then shows how practitioners and theologians respond to these narratives through exploring theologies of suffering, ecology, missiology, restorative justice, trinitarian theology and liberation theology. Offering faith responses from organisations such as The Salvation Army, The Clewer Initiative, BMS World Mission and Rene Cassinhe, the volume also includes a final resource section with prayers and liturgy for survivors and victims as well as for church and community responses. The book includes a forward by the Rt Hon Theresa May MP and an opening prayer by the Most Revd Justin Welby.

World Christianity

Graham Joseph Hill, 2024-10-08 World Christianity: An Introduction provides an accessible introduction to the discipline, methodology and field of world Christianity. In this book, Graham Joseph Hill engages with more than one hundred high-profile Majority World and First Nations Christian leaders to learn what they can teach the West about mission, leadership, hospitality, creation care, education, worship and more. Hill challenges the Western church to move away from a Eurocentric and Americentric view of church and mission and he calls for the church to engage with crucial paradigm shifts in world Christianity. The future of the global church, including the churches in the West, exists in these global exchanges. World Christianity is an indispensable guide for the church as it navigates the unique global experiences of the twenty-first century.

Emancipated Education

Azhar Ibrahim, 2022-12-06 The obsession with world rankings and vocational training has turned universities into factories for the production of students and publications. Teaching plays second fiddle to research output, normally circulated within a small circle of experts to be validated or condemned to the abyss, leading to the justifiable charge that universities are ivory towers. In Emancipated Education, Dr Azhar Ibrahim's call to reclaim the space of what he calls the educative front as a site for emancipation is timely and urgent.

Public Theology in the Secular State Rudolf von Sinner, 2023-07-04 This book gives a persuasive answer to the need for public theology today Rudolf von Sinner can draw from a rich basis of scholarship and experience related to the topic of public theology His clear awareness of the contextuality of public theology is the reason for his repeated assurance in this book that we cannot speak about public theology but always only of a public theology At the same time it is very clear for him that there is also an intercontextuality One of the great strengths of this book is its embeddedness into an international discourse on public theology with a special emphasis on the South South exchange It is a contribution to public theology scholarship in its best sense I proudly welcome its publication in our series
