Fanon And Education Thinking Through Pedagogical Possibilities Counterpoints:

Fanon & Education George Jerry Sefa Dei, Marlon Simmons, 2010 Fanon and Education Thinking Through Pedagogical Possibilities challenges conventional education to go beyond the formal procedures of schooling to engage in the making of multiple meanings of our world Understanding education requires a holistic approach that extends beyond contemporary classrooms Education must also be inclusive addressing questions of difference diversity and power as conceptualized through the lens of class ethnicity gender disability sexuality religion language and indigeneity These issues are thought of in the context of Fanon's oeuvre to articulate a social theory and progressive educational politics that can help us understand difference as political as well as dominant schooling as a form of internalized oppression that works differently on myriad bodies Fanon and Education will have a broad appeal to readers who want to engage Fanon's ideas in the schooling and educational politics of change and transformation It should be read by all students teachers educational practitioners community activists and researchers This book will have a particular appeal for educators in teacher training colleges as well as for graduate instruction in university departments of education social work and sociology Book Jacket

Cartographies of Blackness and Black Indigeneities George J. Sefa Dei, Ezinwanne Odozor, Andrea Vásquez Jiménez, 2020-01-31 Cartographies of Blackness and Black Indigeneities acknowledges the saliency of Blackness in contemporary social formations insisting that how bodies are read is extremely important The contributors to this volume elicit or produce both tangible and intangible social political material spiritual and emotional effects and consequences on Black and African bodies globally It is a call to celebrate Blackness in all its complexities including race ethnicity class gender sexuality disability spiritualities and geographies Understanding Blackness is to insist on Black and African political and cultural appreciation of the phenomenon outside of Euro colonial attempts to regulate and define how Black and African bodies are perceived This book intersperses discussions of Blackness with Black racial identity and cultural politics and the required responsibilities for the Global Black and African populations to build viable communities utilizing our differences knowledges cultures politics identities histories as strengths

Universities and Conflict Juliet Millican, 2017-11-08 This book uses a series of case studies to examine the roles played by universities during situations of conflict peacebuilding and resistance While a body of work dealing with the role of education in conflict does exist this is almost entirely concerned with compulsory education and schooling This book in contrast highlights and promotes the importance of higher education and universities in particular to situations of conflict peacebuilding and resistance Using case studies from Europe Africa Asia and the Middle East this volume considers institutional responses academic responses and student responses illustrating these in chapters written by those who have had direct experience of these issues Looking at a university's tripartite functions of research teaching and service in relation to the different phases or stages of conflict pre conflict violence post conflict and peacebuilding it draws together some of the key contributions a university might make to situations of instability resistance and recovery The book is organised in five sections that deal with conceptual issues institutional responses academic led or discipline specific responses teaching or curriculum led responses and student involvement Aimed at those working in universities or concerned with conflict recovery and peacebuilding it highlights ways in which universities can be a valuable if currently neglected resource This book will be of much interest to students of peace studies conflict resolution education studies and IR in general

Violence, Victimisation and Young People Ylva Odenbring, Thomas Johansson, 2021-07-08 This edited collection focuses on different aspects of everyday violence harassment and threats in schools It presents a number of in depth studies of everyday life in schools and uses examples and case studies from different countries to fuel a discussion on national differences and similarities The book discusses a broad range of concepts findings and issues under the umbrella of three main themes 1 Power relations homosociality and violence 2 Sexualized violence and schooling and 3 Everyday racism segregation and schooling Specific topics include sexuality policing bullying sexting homophobia and online rape culture The school is young people s central workplace and therefore of great importance to students general feeling of wellbeing safety and security However there is no place where youth are at greater risk of being exposed to harassment and violations than at school and on their way to and from school Threats are a relatively common experience among school students but some aspects of these mundane and frequent harassments and violations are not taken seriously and are therefore not reported Harassment and violations often have negative effects on youth and children and increase their risks of such adverse outcomes as school dropout drug use and criminal behaviour Contemporary research has shown that gender is of great importance to how students handle and report or do not report various violent situations Studies have also revealed how the notions of masculinity and of being a victim can be conflicting identities and affect how students handle situations of threat violence and harassment The importance of gender is also particularly evident with regard to sexual harassment Female students generally report greater exposure to sexual harassment than male students do Fanon, Education, Action Erica Burman, 2018 Bridging childhood studies pedagogy and educational theory critical psychology and postcolonial studies this unique book reads the role and functions of the child and childhood as both cultural motif and as embodied life condition through the work of Frantz Fanon Based on innovative readings of Fanon and postcolonial cultural studies the book offers new insights for critical pedagogical and transformative practice in forging crucial links not only between the political and the psychological but between distress therapy and personal and political learning and transformation Structured around four indicative and distinct forms of child read from Fanon s texts Idiotic Traumatogenic Therapeutic Extemic the author discusses both educational and therapeutic practices The pedagogical links the political with the personal and Fanon s revolutionary psychoaffective account offers vital resources to inform these Finally the book presents child as method as a new analytical approach by which to read the geopolitical which shows childhood education and critical psychological studies to be key to these at the level of theory method and practice By interrogating contemporary modalities of childhood as modern economic and political tropes the author offers conceptual and methodological resources for practically engaging with and transforming these This book will be vital and fascinating reading for students and scholars in psychology psychoanalysis education and childhood studies gender studies postcolonial studies and mental health Revisiting Paulo Freire's Pedagogy of the Oppressed Michel Vandebroek, 2020-09-28 This reflection on Paulo Freire's seminal volume Pedagogy of the Oppressed examines the lessons learnt from Freire and their place in contemporary pedagogical theory and practice Freire's work has inspired ground breaking research which Vandebroek has collated demonstrating the ongoing influence on early childhood educators Vandebroek brings together an international cohort of early childhood experts to present cross cultural perspectives on the impact of Freire's research on education around the globe This book covers discussions on The background to and impact of Freire's work Alternative approaches to supporting child development Pedagogical approaches in Portugal South Africa Japan New Zealand and the United States Vandebroek concludes with a vision for theorising and implementing emancipatory practice in early childhood education in contexts of neoliberalism An insightful resource for academics and students in the field of Early Childhood Education and Care Revisiting Paulo Freire's Pedagogy of the Oppressed is a benchmark of the progress made in the field over the last half a century Power, Crisis, and Education for Liberation Noah De Lissovoy, 2008-06-23 Progressive educational approaches are currently in crisis in the face of globalization and conservative retrenchment This book proposes a new framework for critical pedagogy that develops strategies for responding to the proceduralization of schooling and public life in general
