Haunted Spaces in Twenty-First Century British Nature Writing Anneke Lubkowitz, 2020-06-08 This study investigates the figure of haunting in the New Nature Writing It begins with a historical survey of nature writing and traces how it came to represent an ideal of natural space as empty of human history and social conflict Building on a theoretical framework which combines insights from ecocriticism and spatial theory the author explores the spatial dimensions of haunting and hauntology and shows how 21st century writers draw on a Gothic repertoire of seemingly supernatural occurrences and spectral imagery to portray natural space as disturbed uncanny and socially contested Iain Sinclair and Robert Macfarlane are revealed to apply psychogeography's interest in hidden histories and haunted places to spaces associated with wilderness and the countryside Kathleen Jamie's allusions to the Gothic are put in relation to her feminist re-writing of the outdoors and John Burnside's use of haunting is shown to dismantle fictions of the far north This book provides not only a discussion of a wide range of factual and fictional narratives of the present but also an analysis of the intertextual dialogue with the Romantic tradition which enfold in these texts

Terry, J. Ryan Lister, 2018-10-02 Christians ought to be leading the way in creativity but we rarely do God is the Creator of all things and He created us in His image Creativity is woven into the very fabric of our humanity Therefore Christians should value and champion creativity as a vital part of our image bearing role Instead Christians often don't know what to do with creatives and creatives don't know what to do with Christianity On one side you have Christians who neglect or discount art imagination and beauty altogether On the other you have artists who make idols out of each of these good things Ryan Lister a theology professor and Thomas Terry a spoken word artist and founder of Humble Beast team up to help restore the connection between creativity and theology Images Idols is a theological and artistic exploration of creativity in the Christian life It will help creatives build a strong theological foundation for their art while challenging the church to embrace a theology of beauty and creativity A Library of the World's Best Literature - Ancient and Modern - Vol. XLII \(Forty-Five Volumes\); Dictionary of Authors \(A-J\) Charles Dudley Warner, 2008-07-01 Popular American essayist novelist and journalist CHARLES DUDLEY WARNER 1829 1900 was renowned for the warmth and intimacy of his writing which encompassed travelogue biography and autobiography fiction and more and influenced entire generations of his fellow writers Here the prolific writer turned editor for his final grand work a splendid survey of global literature classic and modern and it's not too much to suggest that if his friend and colleague Mark Twain who stole Warner's quip about how everybody complains about the weather but nobody does anything about it had assembled this set it would still be hailed today as one of the great achievements of the book world Volume 42 is Part One of a dictionary of authors from Alexis Aar to Juvenal that serves as a handy condensed reference to the authors quoted in the first 40 volumes as well as a guide to thousands more authors whose works are notable but not featured in this set Kevyn Aucoin a Beautiful Life Kerry Diamond, Kevyn Aucoin, 2004-10-05 The late A list celebrity makeup artist recounts his painful childhood early career with Vogue magazine and behind the scenes perspectives on the fashion industry offering tips on how he created some of his most popular looks A Necessary Fantasy? Dudley Jones, Tony Watkins, 2021-10-28 This book addresses a variety of issues through the examination of heroic figures in children's popular literature comics film and television Journal of Horticulture, Cottage Gardener, and Country Gentleman (varies Slightly), 1898 Medieval Fantasy as Performance Michael A. Cramer, 2010 In this book Michael Cramer views the Society for Creative Anachronism SCA an organization that studies and recreates the middle ages as a case study for a growing fascination with medieval fantasy in popular culture He explores the act of medieval re creation as performance by focusing on the SCA describing the group's activities investigating its place in popular culture and looking at the SCA not so much as a historical society but as an on going work of performance art a postmodern counter culture riff on what it means to be medieval Cramer examines the group's activities from persona and character development to theatrical performance and personal interaction from the complex official ceremonies to full contact armored combat with mock broadswords He explores the SCA in detail to discover how its members adapt and employ ideas about the Middle Ages in performance ritual reenactment living history and re creation analyzing the performance of identity through ritual sport drama and personal interaction and he focuses on the reconstruction of the medieval king game a game in which a mock king is chosen to reign over a mock court The book also studies various ideas about medievalism including the contrast between reenactment and re creation and places these activities in the context of contemporary American society With three appendixes a bibliography and a selection of photos Cramer demonstrates how and why medieval fantasy is increasingly used in popular culture and analyzes the dissatisfaction with contemporary culture that leads people into these realms of fantasy
