Faith Beyond Borders Don Mosley, Joyce Hollyday, 2011-12-01 For more than thirty years Don Mosley has traveled the globe working for the cause of justice on behalf of two organizations he helped to found Habitat for Humanity and Jubilee Partners a community of believers who have welcomed 3 000 refugees from danger zones around the world In this book he uses stories from his remarkable walk of faith to issue an action call for Christians to live out the teachings of Jesus no matter where they take us or what they require us to do

Living into God's Dream Catherine Meeks, 2016-11-01 An unflinching look at the failure to achieve an equitable society with faith based approaches to a meaningful racial reconciliation While the dream of post racial America remains unfulfilled and the current turmoil George Floyd and Breonna Taylor to name a few this examination of racism is more relevant and consequential than ever Living into God's Dream combines frontline personal stories with theoretical and theological reflections It aims to forge new and truthful conversations on race and doesn't shy away from difficult discussions such as reasons for the failure of past efforts to achieve genuine racial reconciliation and the necessity to honor rage and grief in the process of moving to forgiveness and racial healing This collection of nine essays is honest pragmatic and courageous in its real world view of racism and how people of faith and conscience can work together to dismantle racism Review questions at the end of the book appropriate for individual or group study can engender deeper discussions and reflections

Wu,2022-10-25 You Were Once Strangers Jesus said I was a stranger and you invited me in Matthew 25 35 More than two thousand years ago Jesus challenged us to welcome and care for the strangers among us How do we fulfill this challenge What does compassion look like today A Better Country aims to help Christians specifically Christians in the United States think theologically and practically about the ongoing and changing refugee needs This workbook is divided into six lessons followed by a personal action plan as your application The second edition includes additional questions for discussion along with spiritual practices at the end of each chapter for transformation of mind heart and soul in our posture toward refugee welcome This resource balances information and reflection that will stimulate excellent group discussions and individual study May you be inspired to action and may you develop a heart to welcome refugees with compassion and dignity in Jesus s name US Foreign Policy on Transitional Justice Annie R. Bird,2015-03-04 Since the end of the Cold War the United States has been a key driver of transitional justice It has provided crucial political backing as well as technical and financial assistance for trials truth commissions and other measures aimed at helping societies address serious human rights violations Surprisingly however scholars have not analyzed closely the role of the US in transitional justice This book offers the first systematic and cross cutting account of US foreign policy on transitional justice It explores the development of US foreign policy on the field from World War I to the present and provides an in depth examination of US involvement in measures in Cambodia Liberia and Colombia Annie Bird supports her findings with nearly 200 interviews with key US and foreign government officials staff of transitional justice measures and country experts By opening the black box of US foreign policy the book shows how the diverse and evolving interests of presidential administrations Congress the State Department and other agencies play a major role in shaping US involvement in transitional justice The book argues that despite multiple influences US foreign policy on transitional justice is characterized by a distinctive approach that is symbolic retributive and strategic As the book concludes this approach has influenced the field as a whole including the establishment design and implementation of transitional justice measures To Do Justice Rebecca Todd Peters, Elizabeth L.
