startling claim that our society's ills and its cures are rooted in whether we reject or accept the divine graces made available through the Sacrament of Holy Matrimony. Man, he argues, is social in his very nature. We were created for community. As it was in the beginning, so it remains today. The family formed through the Sacrament of Matrimony is the most basic building block of every society, whether we like it or not. We've corrupted marriage, and so we have a corrupt society. If we get marriage right, our society through God's grace will flourish. This is so because Matrimony, like all the sacraments, heals and elevates human nature. Without marriage, our ambitions toward a just social order will remain forever foolhardy. With it, the seemingly impossible—a truly peaceful and humane civilization—becomes possible.
