Serving the Marginalized through Design Education Steven B. Webber, 2024-07-02 Design education and practice are inherently social from process to implementation This book explores the transformation in design education as educators prepare their students to address complex social design problems for all people in society This seven chapter volume provides the reader with a range of viewpoints on the role of design education in shaping the world The book begins with the overarching potential of design to address the needs of an increasingly complex society and the importance of worldview that underpins education methodology Each chapter addresses a context that varies by discipline architecture graphic packaging and interior design and location Nigeria Canada Lebanon UK and USA The authors pull back the curtain on their educational methods and provide the reader with a candid view of their teaching outcomes The needs of the marginalized victims of Asian hate students with dyslexia tomato farmers and even design students themselves are brought into focus here These specific places and peoples provide a design context that can be translated to other situations in design education and practice Design educators and practitioners of many design disciplines will benefit from the philosophical discussions and the practical education examples offered here This volume can contribute to transforming design education that will one day transform design practice to place a greater emphasis on the needs of the forgotten in society August Wilson Patti Hartigan,2023-08-15 The masterful The Wall Street Journal invaluable Los Angeles Times first authoritative biography of August Wilson the most important and successful American playwright of the late 20th century by a theater critic who knew him August Wilson wrote a series of ten plays celebrating African American life in the 20th century one play for each decade No other American playwright has completed such an ambitious oeuvre Two of the plays became successful films Fences starring Denzel Washington and Viola Davis and Ma Rainey's Black Bottom starring Viola Davis and Chadwick Boseman Fences and The Piano Lesson won the Pulitzer Prize for Drama Fences won the Tony Award for Best Play and years after Wilson's death in 2005 Jitney earned a Tony Award for Best Revival of a Play Through his brilliant use of vernacular speech Wilson developed unforgettable characters who epitomized the trials and triumphs of the African American experience He said that he didn't research his plays but wrote them from the blood's memory a sense of racial history that he believed African Americans shared Author and theater critic Patti Hartigan traced his ancestry back to slavery and his plays echo with uncanny similarities to the history of his ancestors She interviewed Wilson many times before his death and traces his life from his childhood in Pittsburgh where nine of the plays take place to Broadway She also interviewed scores of friends theater colleagues and family members and conducted extensive research to tell the absorbing richly detailed Chicago Tribune story of a writer who left an indelible imprint on American theater and opened the door for future playwrights of color Where the Heart Beats Kay Larson,2013-07-30 A heroic biography of John Cage and his awakening through Zen Buddhism a kind of love story about a brilliant American pioneer of the creative arts who transformed himself and his culture The New York Times Composer John Cage sought the silence of a mind at peace with itself and found it in Zen Buddhism a spiritual path that changed both his music and his view of the universe Remarkably researched exquisitely written Where the Heart Beats weaves together a great many threads of cultural history Maria Popova Brain Pickings to illuminate Cage's struggle to accept himself and his relationship with choreographer Merce Cunningham Freed to be his own man Cage originated exciting experiments that set him at the epicenter of a new avant garde forming in the 1950s Robert Rauschenberg Jasper Johns Andy Warhol Yoko Ono Allan Kaprow Morton Feldman and Leo Castelli were among those influenced by his teaching and preaching Where the Heart Beats shows the blossoming of Zen in the very heart of American culture Brand Antarctica Hanne Elliot Fønss Nielsen,2023-12 Antarctica is and has always been very much for sale Whales seals and ice have all been marketed as valuable commodities but so have the stories of explorers The modern media industry developed in parallel with land based Antarctic exploration and early expedition leaders needed publicity to generate support for their endeavors Their lectures narratives photographs and films were essentially advertisements for their adventures At the same time popular media began to use the newly encountered continent to draw attention to commercial products These advertisements both trace the commercialization of Antarctica and reveal how commercial settings have shaped the dominant imaginaries of the place By contextualizing and analyzing Antarctic advertisements from the late nineteenth century to the present Brand Antarctica identifies five key framings of the South Polar continent a place for heroes a place of extremity a place of purity a place to protect and a place that transforms Demonstrating how these conceptual framings of Antarctica in turn circulate through our culture Hanne Elliot F nss Nielsen challenges common assumptions about Antarctica s past and present encouraging readers to rethink their own relationship with the Far South
