Conversations With Fritzie:

Conversations with Fritzie Tony Serritella, 2014-01-29 This is a story about the beginning of an unusual relationship between a dog and his owner Tony who had previously lost their ten year old schnauzer suddenly on an operating table The grieving period lasted several months and then the journey began Gail went on the computer and looked for sites that carried homeless dogs She came across the picture of an eight month old schnauzer that weighed only six pounds a pathetic looking puppy which was abused by his owner She called to Tony to take a look and wanted to go see this dog Shrugging his shoulders Tony agreed to take the ride from Chicago to Indianapolis to see the puppy The three hour journey took five hours because of a snow storm but they finally connected with the two nurses that ran the shelter meeting at a gas station Tony brought the three hundred dollars as instructed in case they wanted the dog They met the puppy through the car window and fell in love with her She was a lovable miniature Schnauzer and Gail named her Fritzie At home Fritzie got acquainted with Rudy a previously stray cat Rudy was a lost Russian Blue four paw declaw who was given his name because he was brought home on 9 11 They immediately connected in a playful way most of the time Tony and Fritzie went for many walks together and one morning he heard sounds coming from Fritzie At first Tony didn't know what was happening but responding to the noises he noticed that Fritzie's ears were moving like she understood what Tony was thinking Her sounds then became words and it took off from there with storytelling on both their sides This was the beginning that led to many Conversations with Fritzie

Women on the Edge Corinne H. Dale, 2018-10-24 This collection of essays explores the intertwining social conditions of ethnicity and gender as they are represented in short stories by contemporary American women The introduction to the collection explains the theoretical understanding of gender and ethnicity as social constructions that provide a context for individual experience The collection brings together analyses of short stories that focus on major ethnic cultures in the United States Mexican American Puerto Rican Japanese American Asian American African American Jewish American white Protestant American and Native American Each essay testifies to the struggles of women within patriarchal cultures in America and each explores how different ethnic identities set the terms of these gender struggles The essays also reveal the complications of other important social issues such as class sexual preference and religion Individually each essay contributes a significant new analysis of a short story or collection by an important contemporary American writer Together the essays indicate the complexity and significance of this cultural approach to women's fiction demonstrate the critical theories that are currently developing in the fields of gender and ethnic studies and suggest that neither ethnicity nor gender can legitimately be considered alone

A Little of This/A Lot of That Robert Joseph Foley, 2024-07-31 From the pen of ROBERT JOSEPH FOLEY comes LIGHT INTO DARK a startling new collection of stories that move from the lighthearted and frivolous to the depths of darkness Astonishing and surprising these stories will keep the reader riveted laughing crying or terrified at the bizarre twists Foley's fiction takes PRAISE FOR FOLEY'S WORK CONSEQUENCES OF PLAYING GOD TALES

FROM LINGOR HIGH Foley's Consequences is a sly masterful acrid and wrenching collection of short stories Comparison to the work of Flannery O'Connor and Sherwood Anderson seems appropriate There is unmistakable lushness almost an embarrassment of richness to Foley's writing No lover of piercing tumultuous literature should miss it Christopher Soden Clarion Review Petty academic politics drive faculty and administration hopelessly apart while plots and counterplots rage and the student body glumly soldiers on it's insightful and comic take on the American high school and by extension American education in general strikes many of the right notes with verve and precision Blueink Review the punchy storyline keeps the pages turning An amusingly offbeat parody that will appeal to quirky academics Kirkus Reviews A LITTLE OF THIS A LOT OF THAT an entertaining exploration of religious differences ghosts of the past uncovered truths and an unwinding thread of multi generational connections Foley's offering provides quality storytelling From the opening readers are drawn into a world of mystery and reckoning The author's descriptive ability shines through Blueink Review Rich and expressive the short stories inspect the microcommunities of 1910's Jewish New York and a small Southern town an entertaining trip Unflinching detailed language describes every inch of small town Equity Falls expressive and absorbing Aimee Jodoin Foreword Reviews The book is an ambitious one and Foley is an inventive storyteller Kirkus Review Mystery at the Blue Sea Cottage James Stewart,2021-10-05 This fast paced thoughtful true crime examines the cultural shifts of Jazz Age America through a beautiful dancer's mysterious and scandalous death Kirkus starred review In January 1923 twenty year old Fritzie Mann left home for a remote cottage by the sea to meet a man whose identity she had revealed to no one The next morning the dancer's barely clad body washed up on Torrey Pines beach her party dress and possessions strewn about the sand The scene baffled investigators and abotched autopsy created more questions than it answered However the investigation revealed a scandalous secret When a Hollywood A lister was arrested for Fritzie's murder it led to the most sensational trial in San Diego's history Set against the backdrop of yellow journalism Prohibition Era corruption and a lively culture war Mystery At The Blue Sea Cottage tells the intriguing story of a beautiful dancer a playboy actor a debonair doctor and a tragic mystery that remains unsolved to this day What I Meant Was Craig Lucas,2014-10-01 A major new collection by the author of Reckless and A Prelude to a Kiss this collection includes his most ambitious work God's Heart which premiered at Lincoln Center Theatre in 1997 and his newest play The Dying Gaul which premieres this spring in New York Also included are 13 one act plays written over the past five years The Smith College Monthly ,1913 One Last Thing Rebecca St. James,Nancy N. Rue,2015-03-17 Tara had always imagined her happily ever after But her fianc's secrets are changing this story into one she doesn't even recognize Tara Faulkner and Seth Grissom grew up next door to each other in Savannah's historic district Their parents are best friends They finish each other's sentences all the time Their fairy tale wedding is a foregone conclusion until Tara discovers another side to Seth three weeks before the wedding Reality has crashed in on Tara's fairy tale but hope will lead her to a future she couldn't have planned for herself The Federal Reporter ,1987 Stage
