To our respective _____ (position), Mr/Ms/Mrs _____ (name). (continue this pattern until all guest speakers and important personalities are mentioned.)

To all our instructors, parents, visitors, and fellow graduates – good morning/afternoon/evening.

II

Every day in school is a learning experience. The early mornings that my mother prepares our breakfast; the sleepy faces of my sisters and younger brother as I wake them up; the travelling from Balsik to Sta Isabel; the energetic approaches of our instructors in every subject. The recess and the lunch breaks – They are all a part of my school routine. Taking notes from lectures; making assignments and reviewing previous lessons, submitting projects and passing our quizzes and exams – These are the crucial times of being a learner. Attending our classes together with my fellow students; making new friends and avoiding quarrels; and enjoying our daily school activities with my classmates. All of these are the main reasons why we are here right now. The journey to this very moment is not an easy ride. There are many twists and turns, rough roads, and obstacles but as we go along with the ride, with the help of our teachers, friends, and families, we now reached our destination. We thank you all for this wonderful journey.

III

It is an honor for me to represent this school year's achievers for _____ (name of school). I am here in front of you, giving my very own speech while remembering my unforgettable learnings and experiences from this school of wisdom. I am very thankful because I was given the chance to walk in as a young learner and step out as a successful graduate student from this institution. To my teachers and parents, thank you for the opportunity to grow and develop my self-confidence and individuality here at _____ (name of school). It was a very joyful learning experience, and I'm sure it will be better for our students in the future.

IV

This speech is not complete without expressing my gratitude to all of the people that helped us reach this happy moment of our school life. To my friends, Thank you for your never-ending laughter and sacrifices that helped me to be true to myself and to be open to everyone as my friend. To my teachers, thank you for the knowledge and patience. This day will not be special without your hard work in teaching us academics and how to be a good citizen. And for my parents, Ma, Pa, thank you for your love and endless support. I know that it's hard to build our

 PUBLISHED BY ROUTLEDGE AND THE NATIONAL COUNCIL OF TEACHERS OF ENGLISH Grammar to Get Things Done offers a fresh lens on grammar and grammar instruction designed for middle and secondary pre service and in service English teachers It shows how form function and use can help teachers move away from decontextualized grammar instruction such as worksheets and exercises emphasizing rule following and memorizing conventional definitions and begin considering grammar in applied contexts of everyday use Modules organized by units succinctly explain common grammatical concepts These modules help English teachers gain confidence in their own understanding while positioning grammar instruction as an opportunity to discuss analyze and produce language for real purposes in the world An important feature of the text is attention to both the history of and current attitudes about grammar through a sociocultural lens with ideas for teachers to bring discussions of language as power into their own classrooms      Betrayed Chinedu Nnadi,2025-08-08 Daniel believed in love the kind that built homes weathered storms and held fast through every trial But belief is fragile when life keeps breaking it Sophia his college sweetheart was the first to shatter it sharing her body with his best friend while whispering promises of forever Alicia came next warm and affectionate until the money started vanishing She wept when caught confessing it was all for her ex Then came Natalia elegant intoxicating and ruthlessly honest I never loved you she said already leaving with a man wealthier than him Each betrayal carved deeper wounds And still Daniel tried believing hoping loving until he finally couldn t anymore One lonely night in the stillness of his apartment Daniel made a vow no more No more broken promises No more women who loved his comfort but not his soul He would never marry But he would have children on his own terms Through surrogacy he built a family untouched by deceit And when he cradled his

Dream Not of Other Worlds Huston Diehl, 2007-04 When Huston Diehl began teaching a fourth grade class in a Negro elementary school in rural Louisa County Virginia the school s white superintendent assured her that he didn t expect her to teach those children anything She soon discovered how these low expectations widely shared by the white community impeded her students ability to learn With its overcrowded classrooms poorly trained teachers empty bookshelves and meager supplies her segregated school was vastly inferior to the county s white elementary schools and the message it sent her students was clear dream not of other worlds In her often lyrical memoir Diehl reveals how in the intimacy of the classroom her students reached out to her a young white northerner and shared their fears anxieties and personal beliefs Repeatedly surprised and challenged by her students Diehl questions her long standing middle class assumptions and confronts her own prejudices In doing so she eloquently reflects on what the students taught her about the hurt of bigotry and the humiliation of poverty as well as dignity courage and resiliency Set in the waning days of the Jim Crow South Dream Not of Other Worlds chronicles an important moment in American history Diehl examines the history of black education in the South and narrates the dramatic struggle to integrate Virginia s public schools Meeting with some of her former students and colleagues and visiting the school where she once taught she considers what has and has not changed after more than thirty years of integrated schooling This provocative book raises many issues that are of urgent concern today the continuing social consequences of segregated schools the role of public education in American society and the challenges of educating minority and poor children

Civic Education in Polarized Times Elizabeth Beaumont, Eric Beerbohm, 2024-07-23 Reveals the possibilities and challenges of civic education in circumstances of extreme polarization and how civic learning and political divisiveness can interact and influence each other As fears about polarization and its contribution to democratic crisis and corrosion rise many people have posited civic education as a possible remedy In a time of increasing political polarization what should the goals of civic education be and how should they be implemented In the latest installment of the NOMOS series Eric Beerbohm and Elizabeth Beaumont bring together a distinguished group of interdisciplinary scholars across philosophy politics and law inviting us to think deeply about the complex promises and pitfalls of civic education Contributors raise a variety of crucial considerations not only about how to educate citizens in a polarized era but also for a polarized era What types of civic learning hold promise for preparing students to navigate their way through a political landscape of escalating hostile factions distrust truth decay and disagreement about basic facts Could or should civic education attempt to reduce or counteract polarization or should it focus on other aims Beaumont and Beerbohm show us that the dynamics and circumstances of polarization do not stop at the schoolhouse gates but bring new urgency together with added pressures and constraints to all civic education As political polarization continues to intensify across the globe this riveting volume illuminates the significance the possibilities and the challenges of civic education in the contemporary era
