

Night Reading Guide Chapter 2-3

Chapter 2

1. After the train stopped, a German officer shouted that anyone who still owns what must hand them over now?

Gold, silver, or watches

2. Who started screaming "Fire! I see a fire! I see a fire!"?

Mrs. Schachter

3. What smell was in the air?

Smell of burning flesh

Think/Write/Share

The purpose of the Think/Write/Share activity is to give students time to think, process, and write before sharing with partners, small groups, or in whole group. (Suggested time: Give students 1-2 minutes to think and write before sharing.)

Do you think Mrs. Schachter actually saw fire?

Students might discuss:

No, Mrs. Schachter didn't see fire; she was under stress and was grieving; she was crazy; it was just a premonition; this is an example of foreshadowing; the fire is a symbol for the events of the Holocaust, etc.

Yes, Mrs. Schachter did see fire. Perhaps she saw some fire in the distance; For Mrs. Schachter, her premonitions were very real, etc.

Why do you think Weiss includes this person in his memoir?

Students might discuss how Mrs. Schachter was expressing the fears they were all trying to avoid, how the others treated her and continued to ignore the danger, how she foreshadowed the crematoria, how this scene created a lot of suspense and tension, how it is might relate to her and her son because he is also just a child.

Co-Teaching for English Learners Maria G. Dove, Andrea Honigsfeld, 2017-09-27 Dove and Honigsfeld's new book arrives at the perfect time as an increasing number of schools move to a collaborative instructional model and are searching for guidance. The authors not only tell us how to effectively collaborate and co-teach to benefit English learners; they actually show us what each component of the collaborative instructional cycle looks and feels like, complemented by innovative video and web content.

DIANE STAEHR FENNER Coauthor of Unlocking ELs Potential and President of SupportEd. Because teacher collaboration isn't an option, it's a MUST. The proof is borne out by any assessment: our non-native speakers learn faster and achieve more when general ed teachers and EL specialists co-plan and co-deliver instruction in the very same classroom. That's why you'll want to put Co-Teaching for English Learners at the top of your reading list.

Step by step, EL authorities Maria Dove and Andrea Honigsfeld walk you through the entire collaborative instruction cycle along with seven potential classroom configurations from which to choose. Whether you're new to co-teaching or just see room for improvement in your practice, this practical handbook delivers every technique and tool you need to make the most of your collaboration, including video footage of co-teaching in action. Inside, you'll find in-depth profiles of the seven models with detailed descriptions and analyses, a review of advantages and challenges of each model's implementation, clear explanations of each teacher's role along with self-assessment tools, tried and true strategies for the entire instructional cycle, co-planning, co-instruction, co-assessment, and reflection. Real-life accounts from co-teaching veterans: Long gone are the days when our ELs are taught in isolation and rightfully so. Read Co-Teaching for English Learners, implement its strategies, and soon enough you too can set up a learning environment in which all students thrive.

Inquiry and the Literary Text James Holden, John Stephen Schmit, 2002. Inquiry and the Literary Text will help newcomers and veterans alike make the most of student discussion and inquiry in classrooms from middle school to high school to college. The contributors, secondary and college practitioners, offer theory-grounded, classroom-tested approaches for literature study in which students engage in democratic dialogue and practice authentic collaborative inquiry. The book opens with a concise primer on discussion-based classes, seminars, and inquiry-focused instruction. It then moves into three main sections that provide ideas to invigorate discussion and inquiry in any classroom, and it closes with an annotated bibliography of suggested readings.

Long Night's Journey into Day Alice L. Eckardt, A. Roy Eckardt, Irving Greenberg, Franklin H. Littell, 2016-11-08. Long Night's Journey Into Day is a stimulating and provocative attempt to deal with the impact and meaning of the Holocaust within contemporary Christian and Jewish thought. To Jews, the Holocaust is the most terrible happening in their history, but it must also be seen as a Christian event. The Eckardts call for a radical rethinking of the Christian faith in the light of the Holocaust, examining such issues as the relation between human and demonic culpability, the charge of God's guilt, and the reality of forgiveness. They clarify the theological meaning of the Holocaust and the responsibility that must be borne for it by the Christian Church and discuss possible responses to it as exemplified in the writings of selected modern theologians and church councils This enlarged and revised edition takes into account new topics and developments including the issue of Austrian responsibility for the Holocaust the significance and aftermath of Bitburg and antisemitism in German feminism More detailed attention is also given to other modern genocides and occasions of humanly caused mass death Additional literary historical and religious works are considered and appropriate quotations incorporated The new edition also includes a revised preface an updated bibliography and two new appendices

Bearing Witness Philip Rosen,Nina Apfelbaum,2001-11-30 This resource guide will help readers locate over 800 first person accounts fiction poetry art interpretations and music by Holocaust victims and survivors as well as videos relating the testimony and experiences of Holocaust survivors In addition to the few well known writers artists and musicians whose work so eloquently captures their experience during the Holocaust this guide will introduce the reader to the lives and work of more than 250 lesser known or unrecognized writers artists and musicians from many countries who documented their experience of persecution at the hands of the Nazis This guide will help students gain firsthand knowledge of what it was like to experience the Holocaust and how ordinary people coped and created art and meaning from the ashes of their lives The entry on each writer artist and musician features a biographical sketch and list of his or her works with full bibliographic data Entries on literature and videos are annotated and include recommendations for age appropriateness The work is divided into five parts writers of memoirs diaries and fiction poets artists composers and musicians and videos that feature testimony by survivors Each part features an introductory overview of the artists and art created in that genre out of Holocaust experience Title artist writer and nationality indexes will help the reader select materials and an index organized by age appropriate levels will help teachers and librarians to select literature and videos for students

Teaching Integrated Reading Strategies in the Middle School Library Media Center Kathleen M. Alley,2008-06-30 Drawing on the success of the popular elementary level book Teaching Reading Strategies in the School Library Walker and Shaw Libraries Unlimited 2004 this title will provide library media specialists with a resource to help integrate research based reading strategies into the middle school library curriculum as part of the library lesson The strategies discussed are those commonly used by teachers in the classroom and are easily adapted to use in the library media center allowing library teachers to support school wide reading initiatives through instruction while sharing appreciation of literature Reading strategies are incorporated in a chapter format explaining the strategy and benefits of integration as well as offering resources a review of the relevant research methods and a clear step by step approach to instruction Chapters share general knowledge about reading instruction and illustrate how media specialists can incorporate specific examples including reproducible items and graphic organizers The overall outline of the book parallels the usual reading instructional pattern of strategies to use before during and after reading Grades 6 8
