

sing that Good News back to each other in the congregation, building up one another with the only truly nourishing word, and singing that Good News to the world in proclamation and praise.

So how is the church's song doing in your congregation? Is that great narrative story of God's plan of salvation the constant refrain of the song heard in your congregation?

It is all too easy for us as church musicians, enamored by a catchy tune or clever new musical setting, to overlook a text that tells another or different story, or no story at all. Or it is too easy settling for texts which are little more than a gauzy "spirituality," texts that are all about us and how we feel about things, or music that has little more than a catchy rhythm or a clever melody.

What is the narrative of the songs sung in your congregation? Too many congregations are, sadly, unfamiliar with the church's rich heritage of song. Too many congregations pass over this rich treasury of song, opting instead for the comfortable old "chestnuts," most of which could be characterized as hymns "lite"—no calories with little, if any, real nourishment.

Perhaps its time for a real revival of the church's song in your congregation. If not now, when?
