Dan Connell, Tom Killion

Conversations With Eritrean Political Prisoners:

Conversations with Eritrean Political Prisoners Dan Connell, 2005 In 2001 after a devastating war with Ethiopia a huge debate erupted within Eritrea regarding government policy This book revisits that debate through interviews with five critics top government officials and former liberation movement leaders shortly before they disappeared into the Eritrean gulag As these conversations reveal the speakers knew what was in store for them arrest and indefinite detention This book not only opens a critical window into that seminal moment it also signals the persistent dream of a democratic future yet to be fulfilled

Battling Terrorism in the Horn of Africa Robert I. Rotberg, World Peace Foundation, 2005-11-17 Examines the state of governance in the countries of the greater Horn of Africa region Djibouti Eritrea Ethiopia Kenya Somalia the Sudan and Yemen and discusses strategies to combat the transnational threat of terrorism including suggestions for more effective U S engagement in the region Provided by publisher

East Africa after Liberation Jonathan Fisher, 2020-03-05 A novel far reaching analysis of contemporary history and politics in East Africa focusing on the crisis in the region s postcolonial political order

Coercion Kelly M. Greenhill, Peter Krause, 2018 From the rising significance of non state actors to the increasing influence of regional powers the nature and conduct of international politics has arguably changed dramatically since the height of the Cold War Yet much of the literature on deterrence and compellence continues to draw whether implicitly or explicitly upon assumptions and precepts formulated in and predicated upon politics in a state centric bipolar world Coercion moves beyond these somewhat hidebound premises and examines the critical issue of coercion in the 21st century with a particular focus on new actors strategies and objectives in this very old bargaining game The chapters in this volume examine intra state inter state and transnational coercion and deterrence as well as both military and non military instruments of persuasion thus expanding our understanding of coercion for conflict in the 21st century Scholars have analyzed the causes dynamics and effects of coercion for decades but previous works have principally focused on a single state employing conventional military means to pressure another state to alter its behavior In contrast this volume captures fresh developments both theoretical and policy relevant This chapters in this volume focus on tools terrorism sanctions drones cyber warfare intelligence and forced migration actors insurgents social movements and NGOs and mechanisms trilateral coercion diplomatic and economic isolation foreign imposed regime change coercion of nuclear proliferators and two level games that have become more prominent in recent years but which have yet to be extensively or systematically addressed in either academic or policy literatures of Life and Death Matters was a breakthrough text centralizing the experiences of those on the front lines of environmental crises and forging new paradigms for understanding how crises emerge and how different groups of actors respond to them. This second edition fully updated with both expanded and new chapters once again provides a benchmark for the field and opens important pathways for further research. Authors reassess the state of scholarship and grassroots activism in a new century when social and environmental systems are being reconceptualised within post 9/11 security and biosecurity frameworks when global warming and resource scarcity are not fears but realities when global power and politics are being realigned and when ecocide, ethnocide and genocide are daily tragedies. This bold new edition of Life and Death Matters will be a widely used textbook and essential reading for students, scholars and policy makers.

The African Garrison State

Kjetil Tronvoll, Daniel Rezenek Mekonnen, 2014. When Eritrea gained independence in 1991, hopes were high for its transformation. In two decades, however, it became one of the most repressive in the world, effectively a militarised garrison state. This comprehensive and detailed analysis examines how the prospects for democracy in the new state turned to ashes, reviewing its development and, in particular, the loss of human rights and the state's political organisation. Beginning with judicial development in independent Eritrea, subsequent chapters scrutinise the rule of law and the court system, the hobbled process of democratisation and the curtailment of civil society, the Eritrean prison system and everyday life of detention and disappearances, and the situation of minorities in the country, first in general terms and then through exploration of a case study of the Kunama ethnic group. While the situation is bleak, it is not without hope; however, the conclusion focuses on opposition to the current regime and offers scenarios of regime change and how the coming of a second republic may yet reconfigure Eritrea politically. Kjetil Tronvoll is Professor of Peace and Conflict Studies at Bjoerknes College, founding and senior partner of the International Law and Policy Institute Oslo, and a former Professor of Human Rights at the University of Oslo. Daniel R. Mekonnen is Senior Legal Advisor, International Law and Policy Institute Oslo, and former Judge of the Zoba Maekel Provincial Court in Eritrea.

From Revolutionary Movements to Political Parties K. Deonandan, D. Close, 2007-12-09

The book analyzes the factors influencing the success and failure of these former politico-military movements within their new democratic contexts.

Out of Africa

Giovanni Carbone, 2017-12-15. The EU is struggling to cope with the so-called migration crisis that has emerged over the past few years. Designing the right policies to address immigration requires a deep understanding of its root causes. Why do Africans decide to leave their home countries? While the dream of a better life in Europe is likely part of the explanation, one also needs to examine the prevailing living conditions in the large and heterogeneous sub-Saharan region. This Report investigates the actual role of political, economic, demographic and environmental drivers in current migration flows. It offers a comprehensive picture of major migration motives as well as of key trends. Attention is also devoted to the role of climate change in promoting migration and to intra continental mobility two thirds of sub Saharan migrant flows start and end within the region Two country studies on Eritrea and Nigeria are also included to get a closer sense of local developments behind large scale migration to Europe Soldiers, Martyrs, Traitors, and Exiles Tricia M. Redeker Hepner,2009-08-11 The first ethnography of the Eritrean struggle for independence documents the transnational dimensions of revolution and nation building from the dual perspective of both Eritrea and its U S diaspora Africans on the Move Fasil Demissie,2016-03-17 The 20th century witnessed the large scale displacement and dispersal of populations across the world because of major political upheavals among them the two European wars decolonization and the Cold War These major events were followed by globalization which accelerated free trade and the mobility of capital new technologies of communication and the movement of people commodities ideas and cultures across the world This book explores the complexity of African migration and diaspora the discourse of diaspora engagement and new models of citizenship and transnationalism in the context of these issues This book was originally published as a special issue of African and Black Diaspora An International Journal

The Struggling State Jennifer Riggan,2016-02 A 2003 law in Eritrea a notoriously closed off heavily militarized and authoritarian country mandated an additional year of school for all children and stipulated that the classes be held at Sawa the nation s military training center As a result educational institutions were directly implicated in the making of soldiers putting Eritrean teachers in the untenable position of having to navigate between their devotion to educating the nation and their discontent with their role in the government program of mass militarization In her provocative ethnography The Struggling State Jennifer Riggan examines the contradictions of state power as simultaneously oppressive to and enacted by teachers Riggan who conducted participant observation with teachers in and out of schools explores the tenuous hyphen between nation and state under lived conditions of everyday authoritarianism The Struggling State shows how the hopes of Eritrean teachers and students for the future of their nation have turned to a hopelessness in which they cannot imagine a future at all Service for Life Human Rights Watch (Organization),2009 Methodology Recommendations Part 1 background Part 2 human rights violations Part 3 the experience of Eritrean refugees Part 4 Eritrea s legal obligations Part 5 Responding to Eritrea s crisis Post-Conflict Referendums and Peace Processes Kentaro Fujikawa,2024-12-10 This book provides a comparative study of the impact of referendums on conflict resolution and peacebuilding in post conflict societies Post conflict referendums have increasingly been held as part of peace processes While policy makers are hopeful that these referendums serve peace and democracy the burgeoning literature on them has expressed significant reservations about their use particularly on territorial issues because referendums do not have mechanisms for compromise To gauge the actual impact of these referendums on peace processes the book systematically compares three post conflict referendums on self determination held with their respective central governments consent in Eritrea East Timor and Southern Sudan Relying on more than 70 elite interviews it examines 1 the rationales behind the decision to hold referendums 2 the referendums impact on resolving the original self determination conflicts and 3 their impact on post conflict peacebuilding inside the newly independent states The three case studies reveal various rationales behind such referendums and show that referendums play a limited albeit positive role in settling the original conflicts Furthermore holding referendums after civil wars has various positive negative and often unexpected impacts on domestic and international peacebuilding efforts inside newly independent states This book provides careful thorough and well balanced accounts of these referendums impact on peace processes This book will be of much interest to students of peace and conflict studies African and South East Asian politics and International Relations Chapter 1 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license
