Cooperative Argumentation A Model For Deliberative Community:

Cooperative Argumentation Josina M. Makau,Debian L. Marty,2001-01-19 As the globe shrinks it is more important than ever to search for and discover ways for diverse groups to coexist peacefully This salient well researched text offers a practical guide for understanding and learning the skills and knowledge needed to participate effectively in cooperative argumentationa model for deliberative community Developing the capacity to engage meaningfully and successfully in cooperative argumentation across differences prepares individuals for ethical and effective deliberation in diverse twenty first century contexts The authors use a wide variety of examples to illustrate concrete proposals for cultivating moral abilities cognitive skills and communicative virtues Argument in Composition John Ramage,Micheal

Callaway,2009-09-14 ARGUMENT IN COMPOSITION provides access to a wide range of resources that bear on the teaching of writing and argument The ideas of major theorists of classical and contemporary rhetoric and argument from Aristotle to Burke Toulmin and Perelman are explained and elaborated especially as they inform pedagogies of argumentation and composition Environmental Communication and Community Tarla Rai Peterson,Hanna Ljunggren Bergeå,Andrea M. Feldpausch-Parker,Kaisa Raitio,2016-04-28 As society has become increasingly aware of environmental issues the challenge of structuring public participation opportunities that strengthen democracy while promoting more sustainable communities has become crucial for many natural resource agencies industries interest groups and publics The processes of negotiating between the often disparate values held by these diverse groups and formulating and implementing policies that enable people to fulfil goals associated with these values can strengthen communities as well as tear them apart This book provides a critical examination of the role communication plays in social transition through both construction and destruction of community The authors examine the processes and practices put in play when people who may or may not have previously seen themselves as interconnected communicate with each other often in situations where they are competing for the same resources Drawing upon a diverse selection of case studies on the American Asian and European continents the chapters chart a range of approaches to environmental communication including symbolic construction modes of organising and agonistic politics of communication This volume will be of great interest to researchers teachers and practitioners of environmental communication environmental conflict community development and natural resource management

Rhetoric and Argumentation in the Beginning of the XX Century Henrique Jales Ribeiro,2009-12-01 This book is the edition of the Proceedings of the International Colloquium Rhetoric and Argumentation in the Beginning of the XXIst Century which was held at the Faculty of Letters of the University of Coimbra in October 2 4 2008 and was organized by Henrique Jales Ribeiro Joaquim Neves Vicente and Rui Alexandre Gr cio The main purpose of the Colloquium was to commemorate the publication in 1958 of the books La nouvelle rh torique Trait de l argumentation and The Uses of Arguments by respectively C Perelman L Olbrechts Tyteca and S Toulmin But another important goal was to take stock of the state of rhetoric and argumentation theory at the beginning of a new century It was a unique event without parallel in Portugal and worldwide considering its theme and its aims which gathered some of the World's most renowned rhetoric and argumentation theorists Alan Gross Douglas Walton Erik Krabbe Frans V Eemeren F Snoeck Henkemans Guy Haarscher John Anthony Blair Marianne Doury Oswald Ducrot Ruth Amossy The book includes a variety of very important contributions to rhetoric and argumentation theory ranging from those that naturally fall within the subject matter to the areas of philosophy linguistics communication theory education theory and law theory The art as it was called in the Medieval curricula is no longer a discipline amongst others and has become according to the view of some specialists and largely owing to Perelman and Toulmin influences a new paradigm of rationality for our age which auspiciously encompasses all fields of knowledge and culture The book is divided into five parts I Historical and philosophical studies on the influences of Perelman and Toulmin II Studies in argumentation theory III Linguistic approaches to argumentation theory IV Rhetoric and communication theory education theory approaches to argumentation and V Law theory approaches to argumentation

Speech and Debate as Civic Education J. Michael Hogan, Jessica A. Kurr, Michael J. Bergmaier, Jeremy D. Johnson, 2017-11-08 In an era increasingly marked by polarized and unproductive political debates this volume makes the case for a renewed emphasis on teaching speech and debate both in and outside of the classroom Speech and debate education leads students to better understand their First Amendment rights and the power of speaking It teaches them to work together collaboratively to solve problems and it encourages critical thinking reasoned and fact based argumentation and respect for differing viewpoints in our increasingly diverse and global society Highlighting the need for more emphasis on the ethics and skills of democratic deliberation the contributors to this volume leading scholars teachers and coaches in speech and debate programs around the country offer new ideas for reinvigorating curricular and co curricular speech and debate by recovering and reinventing their historical mission as civic education Combining historical case studies theoretical reflections and reports on programs that utilize rhetorical pedagogies to educate for citizenship Speech and Debate as Civic Education is a first of its kind collection of the best ideas for reinventing and revitalizing the civic mission of speech and debate for a new generation of students In addition to the editors the contributors to this volume include Jenn Anderson Michael D Bartanen Ann Crigler Sara A Mehlretter Drury David A Frank G Thomas Goodnight Ronald Walter Greene Taylor W Hahn Darrin Hicks Edward A Hinck Jin Huang Una Kimokeo Goes Rebecca A Kuehl Lorand Laskai Tim Lewis Robert S Littlefield Allan D Loudon Paul E Mabrey III Jamie McKown Gordon R Mitchell Catherine H Palczewski Angela G Ray Robert C Rowland Minhee Son Sarah Stone Watt Melissa Maxcy Wade David Weeks Carly S Woods and David Zarefsky

Argumentation in Everyday Life Jeffrey P. Mehlretter Drury, 2019-01-21 Good coverage of concepts with understandable explanations of theory Very user friendly with exercises to use in and out of class Connects well with other communication classes through the application of other communication concepts to argumentation Christopher Leland Azusa Pacific University Argumentation in Everyday Life provides students with the tools they need to argue effectively in the classroom and beyond Jeffrey P Mehlretter Drury offers rich coverage of theory while balancing everyday applicability allowing students to use their skills soundly Drury introduces the fundamentals of constructing and refuting arguments using the Toulmin model and ARG conditions Acceptability Relevance and Grounds Numerous real world examples are connected to the theories of rhetoric and argumentation discussed enabling students to practice and apply the content in personal civic and professional contexts as well as traditional academic debates Encouraging self reflection this book empowers students to find their voice and create positive change through argumentation in everyday life Unique resources to help students navigate this complex terrain of argumentation The Debate Situation offers students a birds eye view of any given debate or exchange of arguments between two or more people organized around three necessary components arguments issues and the proposition The visual model of the debate situation illustrates how these features work together in guiding a debate and it lays the groundwork for understanding and generating arguments Easy to Use Standards for Evaluating Arguments combine a prominent argument model named after logician Stephen Toulmin with a standards based approach the ARG conditions to test of quality of an argument The ARG conditions are three questions an advocate should ask of an argument in determining whether or not it is rationally persuasive These questions are best served by research but don t necessary require it and thus they provide a useful posture for critically assessing the arguments you encounter Multiple Everyday Life examples with an emphasis on context help students to connect the lessons more fully to their everyday life and encourages them to grapple explicitly with dilemmas arising in different contexts Find Your Voice Prompts focus on choice empowerment to offer strategies for students to choose which arguments to address and how to address them empowering students to use argumentation to find their voice Build Your Skill Prompts use objective applications to test how well students have learned the information They offer a chance to apply the material to additional examples that students can check against the answers in Appendix II Two application exercises at the end of each chapter encourage students to think critically about the content discuss their thoughts with their peers and apply the material to everyday situations
