Coping With Misconduct In The College Classroom A Practical Model:

Coping with Misconduct in the College Classroom Gerald Amada, 2015-07-31 Here are practical answers instructors and administrators need on common disruptive classroom behaviors effective principles and strategies for dealing with classroom misconduct planning non disciplinary responses One of the chapters is titled Everything you ve always wanted to know about classroom misconduct and were afraid to ask your Dean This a guide that every college instructor needs to read in order to more confidently fairly and safely cope with the many different disruptive incidents that are apt to occur when teaching in a college classroom environment The History and Practice of College Health H. Spencer Turner, Janet L. Hurley, 2014-07-11 This volume is the first definitive reference and textbook in the one hundred fifty year history of college health Written for professionals and for those working in student services and higher education administration it covers the history of college health administrative matters including financing and accreditation and clinical issues such as women s health HIV AIDS and mental health The book also focuses on prevention including immunization and tuberculin testing The contributors are well respected in the field and are actively working in the specific areas on which they write College Mental Health Practice Paul A. Grayson, Philip W. Meilman, 2006-11-06 Paul Grayson a co editor of the successful 1989 book College Psychotherapy has teamed up with Phil Meilman a seasoned veteran of college counseling and psychological services to compile this needed comprehensive up to date treatment guide After an opening discussion of the campus environment and student mentality the book provides an overview of the state of college mental health at the start of the 21st century touching on the issues faced by students of every generation as well as those concerns unique to this day and age With an emphasis on practice and not theory this easily referenced treatment guide will be of use to anyone working in the mental health fields in and around a college environment The Virginia Tech Massacre Aradhana Bela Sood, Robert Cohen, 2015 The Virginia Tech Massacre take readers on a journey examining the mental health vulnerabilities of youth transitioning to adulthood the limitations of existing warning tools for violence and local regional and national gaps in mental health service delivery across the United States The book provides concrete and pragmatic recommendations for how to begin overhauling the delivery for mental health services Talking Diversity with Teachers and Teacher Educators Barbara C. Cruz, Cheryl R. Ellerbrock, Anete Vásquez, Elaine V. Howes, 2014-05-01 Featuring content specific strategies assignments and classroom activities this book will help pre and inservice teachers develop the dispositions and knowledge they need to teach all students well Focusing on the importance of creating a classroom community in which necessarily difficult dialogues are inspired and supported the authors present content area chapters on language arts social studies mathematics science ESOL foreign language and teaching exceptional students in the inclusive environment Each content area chapter includes a vignette illustrating a difficult conversation dealing with diversity and presents research based classroom ready exercises effective pedagogic strategies and action oriented interventions many of which the authors created and used in their own classrooms The book concludes with an appendix of instructional and curricular resources This practical volume provides teacher educators and professional development personnel with a framework for Inspiring challenging and productive discussions about diversity in education Using content specific research based strategies for discussing diversity issues in deep and complex ways Understanding how teacher candidates develop as culturally competent educators Addressing conflicts that might arise when talking about diversity and self awareness Contributors Vonzell Agosto Sylvia Celed n Pattichis Kathryn B Chval Deirdre Cobb Roberts B rbara C Cruz Cheryl R Ellerbrock Elaine V Howes Zorka Karanxha Deoksoon Kim Miyoun Lim Patricia Alvarez McHatton Adam Schwartz Roseanne K Vallice Anete V squez Eugenia Vomvoridi Ivanovi and Eric Williams Fostering Civility on Campus Judy Rookstool,2007 Offers a definition of civility and common sense approaches that instructors and administrators can use to foster and maintain a civil environment in the classroom and on campus Provided by publisher The Lowering of Higher Education in America Jackson Toby,2009-11-12 A top educator looks at the causes and national costs of the lowering of college admission and academic standards in the United States then proposes confronting the problem by tying federal student grants and loans to academic performance as well as to financial need After a half century of teaching distinguished educator Jackson Toby concludes that all too often our current system gives high school students the impression that college is an entitlement and not a challenge The Lowering of Higher Education Why Financial Aid Should be Based on Student Performance is Toby s unflinching look at this broken system and the ways it can be fixed The Lowering of Higher Education documents just how far college admission standards have fallen then measures the cost of remedial programs for underprepared high school students just to get them to where they should have been in the first place Toby also pulls no punches on the issue of grade inflation which rewards laziness while demoralizing hard working students In conclusion Toby proposes an innovative solution base financial aid solely on academic performance creating a compelling incentive for students to develop serious attitudes and study approaches in high school
