Coping with Your Anger Andrew D. Lester, 1983-01-01 Argues that Christians should not suppress their anger but learn to deal with it and examines what the scriptures say about anger      The Angry Christian Andrew D. Lester, 2003-04-30 In this work respected scholar Andrew Lester discusses and incorporates the newest behavioral research models contemporary biblical and theological scholarship constructivist philosophy and narrative theory into a comprehensive pastoral theology of anger In revisiting through the lens of theological anthropology the very subject that brought him to the forefront of scholarship in pastoral care Lester presents engaging new material and innovative new methods of interventions for dealing with this often confusing human emotion      Reckoning with Aggression Kathleen J. Greider, 1997-01-01 Aggression is ambiguous in our society according to Kathleen Greider While giving us strength to fight the world's social ills or to create vital and powerful lives aggression can also lead to rage and violence Thus society has often viewed aggression as evil or sinful Greider wants Christians to repair their view of aggression and realize that aggression is what can spur them to make the world better In exploring aggression from feminist pastoral and theological perspectives Greider examines the relationships between violence and vitality passion and aggression and finds that Christians can be strong without being destructive      A Tale Of Two Perspectives Dr. Kenneth R. Norris, 2010-09-09 Siblings will rival Relatives will drop in and stay too long Children will demand to know Why Interpersonal conflict is seldom as intense as two gunslingers glaring at each other from ten paces at High Noon It is seldom as colorful as a red faced husband and wife standing in their kitchen shouting insults It is more often a tale of two perspectives demanding to be heard Conflict is one of those peculiar concepts few people can define without a dictionary but most people know it when they see it We also want it resolved promptly and to our personal satisfaction How should Christians resolve interpersonal conflict Should we simply give in to someone with whom we disagree just to avoid conflict What are the rules when Christians become petty insensitive or argumentative If we love our neighbor as we love ourselves how do we confront conflict without compromising our values The solution is to understand and learn to confront the behavior not the people we love A Tale of Two Perspectives explores the dynamics of interpersonal conflict from a Christian point of view It blends business conflict resolution strategies with biblical narratives to demonstrate a compelling and innovative point of view Dr Norris uses his background as a pastor chaplain business executive husband and father to embroider his work with contemporary examples that may sound uncomfortably familiar He examines how our communication style personality attitudes emotions frame of reference and spiritual values influence our capacity to resolve conflict effectively      Love Letter to a Conflicted Church Richard P. is given to conflicts surrounding the Bible There is a chapter on conflict and reconciliation in the Bible followed by suggestions on how people who read the Bible differently from each other can resolve some of those differences Consideration is also given to discovering biblical priorities for the contemporary church The third division offers vistas of change and reconciliation Parables of hope and promise are provided Insights from the studies of persons and communities as well as ethics and theology are summarized There is reflection on those unresolved conflicts that continue in spite of our best efforts Then moral imagination is engaged to visualize the opportunities for a church that moves beyond its present stalemates The Living Church ,1980 Genesis Celia Brewer Marshall,2005-02-15 Originally published Louisville Ky Geneva Press 1999 Pastoral Care for Survivors of Family Abuse James Leehan,1989-01-01 In this important book James Leehan emphasizes the use of the religious communities spiritual physical and financial resources to alleviate the problem of family abuse He sees ministers and their congregations as a source of support that no other sector of society can provide This book will be an asset to anyone involved in helping the survivor of abuse Strategies for Brief Pastoral Counseling Howard W. She also deals with the topics of receiving God's forgiveness, forgiving others, and seeking reconciliation. Thompson gives guidance for such ticklish questions as: Does forgiveness mean release from consequences of sin? Are there no limits to forgiveness?
