Generational Key to History Michael A. Susko, 2025-01-17

Generational Key to History Tracing Phases From Ancient Egypt to America This work explores the use of a time chart based on generations as a way to understand history A sole reliance on yearly dating tends to obscure the historical reality and deter us from further exploration However patterns are revealed if we number generations and we become intrigued by the connections and hypotheses raised The author uses 15 year intervals to date events and mark when people turn 30 and tend to enter history The 15 year generational interval was first used by the medieval historian Bede and later advocated by Ortega E Gasset a leading Spanish philosopher of the 20th century In brief the phases of history found are 1 A partly invisible beginning phase 0 15 generations 2 An establishment phase at 15 20 generations 3 A consolidating and opening up stage at 30 generations 4 A crisis and creativity phase at 40 generations 5 An empire and inclusionary phase at 50 generations and 6 Renewal or rigidification phase at the 60 generational node Importantly special attention is given to the often neglected 30th generational period in which an openness to beauty and light pervade Interestingly these phases also resonate with the human life cycle The tour of cultures covered includes ancient Egypt Israel Judah Rome and the Medieval Modern Taking us into contemporary times America United States is addressed in the second part of this work You are invited to go on an intriguing journey in which generational patterning becomes a Rosetta key for understanding history

Generational Mapping Through Phases Michael A. Susko, 2025-05-25 In Generational Mapping Through Phases Bridging Ancient Civilizations U S and Ancestral Pueblo History Complete Three Volume Edition the author presents a novel approach to understanding history through the lens of generational mapping which reveals distinct phases This comprehensive work explores the rise transformation and legacy of six important historical traditions Ancient Egypt Ancient Israel Ancient Rome Medieval Modern Europe U S History and the history of the Ancestral Pueblo peoples of the American Southwest Divided into three volumes the series introduces the theory that ancient civilizations U S history and Indigenous histories long viewed through static or compartmentalized frameworks can be studied instead as dynamic evolving processes marked by generational phases In brief they are 1 Invisible Beginnings 2 Establishment and Testing 3 Consolidation and Opening Up to outside influences 4 Crisis and Creativity 5 Empire and Inclusion and 6 Renewal or Rigidification The work redefines how we engage with the past weaving together archaeology anthropology and historical analysis to map the interconnectedness of civilizations and the generational forces that shape them From the achievements of Ancient Egypt to the enduring presence of the Ancestral Pueblo peoples the generational method offers fresh insight into how time identity and transformation shape the arc of human history This complete edition of Generational Mapping of World History is for readers seeking a deeper understanding of the structural rhythms that define civilizations across time including the living continuity of Indigenous
