Multigenerational Congregation Gilbert R. Rendle,2001-12-01 Congregations need to learn new cultural languages and practices in order to speak to and be heard by new generations of people But how do congregations enter the wilderness of ministry with these new generations when many of those in the entourage do not appreciate the trip In contrast to many writers about church growth Rendle works with three important observations 1 Most congregations are not pure markets discrete groups with uniform values and behaviors that can be targeted to the exclusion of all other audiences 2 Some of the differences and discomforts experienced in the congregation are based on the members tenure or length of membership rather than their age and 3 Leadership in congregations is not a matter of marketplace savvy but of spiritual authenticity in which we continue to shape our faith tradition to be heard and understood by a changing culture Computerworld,1998-11-23 For more than 40 years Computerworld has been the leading source of technology news and information for IT influencers worldwide Computerworld s award winning Web site Computerworld com twice monthly publication focused conference series and custom research form the hub of the world s largest global IT media network New York Magazine,1985-08-05 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine s consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea
