George Steiner Language And Silence:

Language and Silence George Steiner, 1985 Language and Silence George Steiner, 2013-04-16 The evolution and manipulation of language from the celebrated author of After Babel A keenly discriminating literary mind at work on what it loves The New York Times Book Review Language and Silence is a book about language and politics meaning silence and the future of literature Originally published between 1958 and 1966 the essays that make up this collection ponder whether we have passed out of an era of verbal primacy and into one of post linguistic forms or partial silence Steiner explores the idea of the abandonment of contemporary literary criticism from the classics to the works of William Shakespeare Lawrence Durrell Thomas Mann Leon Trotsky and more Language and Silence George Steiner, 1967 Language and silence : essays on language, literature, and the inhuman George Steiner (Homme de lettres, France, Grande-Bretagne), 1970 New Theatre Quarterly 69: Volume 18, Part 1 Clive Barker, Simon Trussler, 2002-12-12 Provides an international forum where theatrical scholarship and practice can meet Elie Wiesel, the Shtetl, and Post-Auschwitz Memory Christine June Wunderli, 2023-04 How are Holocaust events remembered and narrated and why What knowledge can Holocaust testimony convey Christine June Wunderli explores these questions as she examines four works by Holocaust survivor Elie Wiesel Guided by Bourdieu's theory of literary field as well as Young's theory of literary representation she traces Hasidic influences in Wiesel's writing Her conclusions are telling Wiesel's narratives are born as memory is pulled towards both Auschwitz and the shtetl caught up in the tension between the two Still the emerging trajectory is one of hope led by a new categorical imperative Witness Through the Imagination S. Lillian Kremer, Lilian Kremer, 2018-02-05 Witness through the Imagination presents a critical reading of themes and stylistic strategies of major American Holocaust fiction to determine its capacity to render the prelude progress and aftermath of the Holocaust Criticism of Holocaust literature is an emerging field of inquiry and as might be expected the most innovative work has been concentrated on the vanguard of European and Israeli Holocaust literature Now that American fiction has amassed an impressive and provocative Holocaust canon the time is propitious for its evaluation Witness Through the Imagination presents a critical reading of themes and stylistic strategies of major American Holocaust fiction to determine its capacity to render the prelude progress and aftermath of the Holocaust The unifying critical approach is the textual explication of themes and literary method occasional comparative references to international Holocaust literature and a discussion of extra literary Holocaust sources that have influenced the creative writers treatment of the Holocaust universe Impossibility Fiction , 2023-12-18 Impossibility fiction is an intergenre that has recently been the resort of many writers searching for new ways of understanding and expressing the real world of the imagination making use of fantasy alternative history and science fiction Coping with ideas that are both impossible and realistically constructed is the ultimate contemporary challenge of our technology The chapters of this book move towards establishing appropriate readings that allow contemporary readers to negotiate unreality a skill that the end of the millennium is making inevitably necessary Such strategies have long been the preserve of literary and cultural study and here a number of well regarded scholars and some new to the field make their contribution to an area that has become increasingly important in recent years From Mary Shelley to Philip K Dick Iain M Banks to J G Ballard taking in African American science fiction Jurassic Park and Kurt Vonnegut and exploring issues of alternative history and ideology feminism the holocaust characterisation and impossible geography this collection is an important source book for all those interested in the literature culture and philosophy of realistic impossible worlds Language and Silence George Steiner, 1969

German Literature, Jewish Critics Stephen D. Dowden, Meike Werner, 2002 Proceedings of the Brandeis conference on Jewish Germanists who fled Nazi Germany and their impact on Anglo American German studies Among the Jewish academics and intellectuals expelled from Germany and Austria during the Nazi era were many specialists in German literature Strangely their impact on the practice of Germanistik in the United States England and Canada has been given little attention Who were they Did their vision of German literature and culture differ significantly from that of those who remained in their former homeland What problems did they face in the American and British academic settings Above all how did they help shape German studies in the postwar era This unique and important symposium which convened at Brandeis University under the auspices of its Center for German and European Studies addresses these and many other questions Among its distinguished participants who numbered over thirty in all are Peter Demetz Yale emeritus Gesa Dane Gtingen Amir Eshel Stanford Willi Goetschel Toronto Barbara Hahn Princeton Susanne Klingenstein MIT Christoph K nig Deutsches Literaturarchiv Marbach Ritchie Robertson Oxford Egon Schwarz Washington University St Louis emeritus Hinrich Seeba UC Berkeley Walter Sokel University of Virginia emeritus Frank Trommler University of Pennsylvania and many more The volume includes not only the revised essays of the participants but also their prepared responses transcripts of the panel discussion and dialogue of the participants with members of the audience Stephen D Dowden is professor of German at Brandeis University Meike G Werner is assistant professor of German at Vanderbilt University Ethics and Remembrance in the Poetry of Nelly Sachs and Rose Ausländer Kathrin M. From Something to Nothing Harry Fox, Daniel Maoz, Tirzah Meacham, 2019-05-24 Jewish mysticism approaches God as no thing or nothing reflecting Judaism's traditional identification of God as incorporeal Whereas technical philosophical language often employed to discuss Jewish mysticism has a tendency to ward off otherwise interested readers this study sufficiently breaks down the technical language of Jewish mysticism in its various expressions to allow a beginner to benefit from what may otherwise be indescribable and only approached by consideration of what is not rather than what is Integral to the title From Something to Nothing is the concept that God cannot be something because that would be restricting so God is simply no thing Ironically the conventional religious expression for the biblical notion of creation is something from nothing whereas the title of this volume is its precise opposite which may at first seem to be illogical creation in reverse However in a volume dedicated to various deliberations on magic and mysticism the ultimate reality may receive expression as nothingness that is no thingness no quality associated with things What adds to our difficulty today is that nothingness is inextricably linked with silence Is silence also an element or indication of an ultimate reality or its absence Or is it merely the reflection of nothing whatsoever This is at the heart of modern debates between atheists and believers Believers feel that even this silence speaks to this ultimate reality whereas atheists claim that if you cannot show it then you do not know it In other words believers are victims of their own wishful thinking From Something to Nothing memorializes Canadian mystic and scholar Zalman Schachter Shalomi's engaging in particular aspects that he addressed at some phase of his colourful and erudite life providing the reader with a broad spectrum of both phenomenological and intellectual topics

Adventures in the French Trade Jeffrey Mehlman, 2010-09-09 This memoir is less a chronicle of the life of a leading scholar critic of matters French and a key figure in the naturalization of French theory in English than a series of differently angled fragments episodes each with its attendant surprise in what one commentator has called his amour vache his injured and occasionally injurious love for France and the French

Witnessing the Witness of War Crimes, Mass Murder, and Genocide Manuela Consonni, Philip Galland Nord, 2023-07-24 Rethinking the concepts of witnessing and witness is highly relevant to the study of war crimes mass murder and genocide Through multiple readings the volume shows the meanings and functions of witnessing in a political and historical context marked by the emergence of multiculturalism The ultimate goal is the exploration of divergent and intersectional positions of the witness and witnessing as both concrete and hermeneutical categories As a result the mechanisms of social political and psychological oppression murder and genocide will become tangible and understandable with greater precision and finesse

European Identity and the Second World War Menno Spiering, Michael Wintle, 2011-03-08 The two concepts at the centre of this book Europe and the Second World War are constantly changing in public perception Now that Europe is an even more contested idea than ever this volume informs the current discourse on European identity by analysing Europe's reaction to the tragedy heroism and disgrace of the Second World War

Gestures Alice Butler, Nell Osborne, Hilary White, 2025-01-28 Gestures A body of work is a cross disciplinary collection of feminist approaches to gesture that considers the term's complex registers across embodied aesthetic and political scenes Attending to gestural movements languages feelings and communications the book argues that gestures can unsettle gendered sexed and racialised relations norms and affects Contributors activate the lens of gesture to offer innovative readings of art and literary works from the 1960s onwards and in transnational contexts Experiments in art writing and autotheory reflect on the entanglement of the body gesture and feminist practice The book proposes that gesture be rethought as a mode of feminist practice that includes art writing performance and theory Mixing disciplines forms genres and voices these contributions and the book's gestural structure offer a bold intervention into the conventions of critical writing When God is Silent Barbara Brown Taylor, 1998-01-25 Reading of God's silence in the Bible gives me courage to explore the practice of restraint in preaching not as a deliberate withholding of God's word nor I hope as a rationale for my own reticence but as a sober reaching for more reverence in the act of public speaking about God In these 1997 Lyman Beecher Lectures in Preaching delivered at Yale Divinity School Barbara Brown Taylor focuses on the task of those who preach and those who hear sermons in a world where people thirst for a word from God How may we approach this seemingly silent God with due respect proclaiming the Word without violating the silence by speaking with restraint Her first chapter examines the late twentieth century language with which we talk about God in theology and speak to God in prayer The second chapter addresses the question of God's communication in Scripture and how the voice of God was heard less and less in the land as the centuries progressed Finally Taylor explores what the silence of God means for Christians and how we may exercise homiletical restraint in speaking of the divine Language and Negativity in European Modernism

Shane Weller, 2018-11-22 This book charts the history of a distinct strain of European literary modernism that emerged out of a radical re engagement with late nineteenth century language scepticism Focusing first on the literary and philosophical strands of this language sceptical tradition the book proceeds to trace the various forms of linguistic negativism deployed by European writers in the interwar and post war years including Franz Kafka Georges Bataille Samuel Beckett Maurice Blanchot Paul Celan and W G Sebald Through close analyses of these and other writers attempts to capture an unspeakable experience Language and Negativity in European Modernism explores the remarkable literary attempt to deploy the negative potentialities of language in order to articulate an experience of what shortly after the Second World War Beckett described as a vision of humanity in ruins Donald MacKinnon's Theology

Andrew Bowyer, 2019-08-22 Andrew Bowyer presents the first comprehensive examination of Donald MacKinnon's theology in relation to his moral philosophy He offers an original and creative reading of MacKinnon's methodology and important insights into the key influences and core questions which stood at the heart of his work Bowyer outlines MacKinnon's contributions to Anglican theology in the aftermath of the Second World War highlighting the therapeutic nature of his approach in as far as it combined a call for intense self awareness with a commitment to moral realism As one of the most influential Anglican theologians in the mid twentieth century MacKinnon's writings reveal him as a restive and unsystematic thinker However Bowyer argues that a series of reoccurring questions obsessions might better honour the memory of MacKinnon's temperament appear throughout his work relating to the tensions between the realism and idealism the call to be morally serious the nature of theological truth claims and the perennially disruptive presence of Christ Bowyer examines the key influences on MacKinnon's thought the centrality of Christology to his project his engagement with literature and literary criticism as well as his response to Wittgenstein's later philosophy This volume offers an appreciation of his contribution and a critique of his legacy Encountering the Past within the Present Siobhan Kattago, 2019-11-27 Encountering the Past within the Present Modern Experiences of Time examines different encounters with the past from within the present whether as commemoration nostalgia silence ghostly haunting or combinations thereof Taking its cue from Hannah Arendt's definition of the present as a time span lying between past and future the author reflects on the old philosophical question of how to live the good life not only with others who are physically with us but also with those whose presence is ghostly and liminal While tradition may no longer command the same authority as it did in antiquity or the middle ages individuals are by no means severed from the past Rather nostalgic longing for bygone times and traumatic preoccupation with painful historical events demonstrate the vitality of the past within the present Divided into three parts chapters examine ways in which the legacies of World War II the Holocaust and communism have been remembered after 1945 and 1989 Maintaining a sustained reflection on the nexus of memory modernity and time in tandem with ancient questions of responsibility for one another and the world the volume contributes to the growing field of memory studies from a philosophical perspective As such it will appeal to scholars of sociology social theory and philosophy with interests in collective memory and heritage
