Astaire by Numbers Todd R. Decker, 2022 Astaire by Numbers looks at every second of dancing Fred Astaire committed to film in the studio era all six hours thirty four minutes and fifty seconds Using a quantitative digital humanities approach as well as previously untapped production records author Todd Decker takes the reader onto the set and into the rehearsal halls and editing rooms where Astaire created his seemingly perfect film dances Watching closely in this way reveals how Astaire used the technically sophisticated resources of the Hollywood film making machine to craft a singular career in mass entertainment as a straight white man who danced Decker dissects Astaire's work at the level of the shot the cut and the dance step to reveal the aesthetic and practical choices that yielded Astaire's dancing figure on screen He offers new insights into how Astaire secured his masculinity and his heterosexuality along with a

From Over the Rainbow to Moon River and from Al Jolson to Barbra Streisand The Songs of Hollywood traces the fascinating history of song in film both in musicals and in dramatic movies such as High Noon Extremely well illustrated with 200 film stills this delightful book sheds much light on some of Hollywood's best known and loved repertoire explaining how the film industry made certain songs memorable and highlighting important moments of film history along the way The book focuses on how the songs were presented in the movies from early talkies where actors portrayed singers performing the songs to the Golden Age in which characters burst into expressive integral song not as a performance but as a spontaneous outpouring of feeling The book looks at song presentation in 1930s classics with Fred Astaire and Ginger Rogers and in 1940s gems with Judy Garland and Gene Kelly The authors also look at the decline of the genre since 1960 when most original musicals were replaced by film versions of Broadway hits such as My Fair Lady
