Healing Men's Pain Curriculum, Facilitator's Guide Dan Griffin,Jonathan De Carlo,2024-09-10 A 36 hour curriculum designed to help men overcome past trauma and develop the skills they need to live safe and caring lives Healing

Men's Pain Curriculum helps male identified participants create a vision of the men they want to be and provides them with the awareness tools and confidence to achieve that vision. Each of the 18 two hour cofacilitated sessions includes activities, exercises and experiential opportunities enabling each participant to connect with the content on a personal level. The program is wide ranging and encompasses a variety of topics to help participants develop increased self awareness to enhance their relationships. Participants explore their childhood, adolescent and adult trauma, relational struggles, particularly issues of healthy attachment and other issues that male identified individuals often experience. The material in Healing Men's Pain Curriculum will stretch both participants and facilitators alike. The sessions are designed to take a deep and comprehensive look at everything that blocks men from being the best men they can be. The curriculum speaks to all learning styles through the use of art, physical movement and roleplays. Participants are given additional learning opportunities in the form of assignments to complete between sessions. These assignments build upon the roleplays and in session practice to help participants translate the material directly into their own lives. Help men address their traumas, develop self awareness and build healthier relationships in recovery programs, mental health groups or other settings. Pick and choose from 18 intentionally designed lessons or use the entire curriculum in order. Access engaging activities that get participants moving and talking despite diverse learning styles and backgrounds. Focus on male socialization, narrative therapy and interactive learning to help participants develop understanding of themselves and others. Written by an expert on masculinity with a Master's degree in gender studies, this curriculum is an excellent foundation or supplement to addiction programs, trauma groups, men's groups, church groups and beyond. Designed as a compliment to Helping Men Recover.

Handbook of Clinical Family Therapy Jay L. Lebow, 2012-07-05. The latest theory, research and practice information for family therapy. The last twenty years have seen an explosion of new, innovative and empirically supported therapeutic approaches for treating families. Mental health professionals working with families today apply a wide range of approaches to a variety of situations and clients using techniques based on their clinically and empirically proven effectiveness, their focus on specific individual and relational disorders, their applicability in various contexts and their prominence in the field. In this accessible and comprehensive text, each chapter covers specific problems, the theoretical and practical elements of the treatment approach, recommended intervention strategies, special considerations, supporting research and clinical examples. The contributors provide step by step guidelines for implementing the approaches described and discuss particular issues that arise in different couple, family and cultural contexts. Handbook of Clinical Family Therapy covers treatment strategies for the most common problems encountered in family therapy including Domestic violence, Adolescent defiance, anxiety and depression, Trauma induced problems, Stepfamily conflicts, ADHD, disruption, Substance abuse in adults and adolescents, Couple conflict and divorce, Chronic illness. A detailed reference for today's best treatment strategies, the Handbook of Clinical Family Therapy brings together the top practitioners and scholars to produce an innovative and user friendly guide.
