Double Takes Zev Garber, Bruce Zuckerman, 2004 This book comprises a series of ten essays written by the authors both individually and collaboratively While the subjects of these essays are wide ranging they share a common recognition that issues at the forefront of contemporary Jewish thought must be measured against the background of ancient traditions which revisit rabbinic and biblical times and beyond The intent of these essays is to illustrate how shadows of longstanding traditions continue to shade current perceptions Double Takes challenges the reader's assumptions about modern Jewish thought by demonstrating how the past can be an unpredictable lens for the present day An examination of contemporary themes in a historical perspective reveals unanticipated even disconcerting refractions The book appears in the Studies in the Shoah series as volume 26

Double Impact G. Wesley Johnson, 1985-11-14 This collection of original historical essays sheds new light on the French colonial experience and the African reaction to it and breaks new ground by looking at both sides of the colonial equation Editor G Wesley Johnson believes that a double impact characterized French colonial rule in Africa during the first six decades of the twentieth century The contributors selected for their long experience with France or French speaking Africa examine nine thematic areas the economy the military elites education art architecture literature race relations and prejudice and politics to see if and how reciprocal impact was felt Finally Johnson considers the utility of double impact as a concept for understanding France and French colonial society Africa and its colonial society and the colonial period which enmeshed the two cultures as a whole
