Postcolonial Theory and Avatar, 2015 Postcolonial Lack Gautam Basu Thakur, 2020-03-16 Postcolonial Lack reconvenes dialogue between Lacanian psychoanalysis and postcolonial theory in order to expand the range of cultural analyses of the former and make the latter theoretically relevant to the demands of contemporary narratives of othering exclusion and cultural appropriation Seeking to resolve the mutual suspicion between the disciplines Gautam Basu Thakur draws out the connections existing between Lacan's teachings on subjectivity and otherness and writings of postcolonial and decolonial theorists such as Gayatri Spivak Frantz Fanon and Homi Bhabha By developing new readings of the marginalized other as radical impasse and pushing the envelope on neoliberal identity politics the book moves postcolonial studies away from the perennial topic of identity and difference and into examining the form and function of the other as excess surplus and or lack in colonial and postcolonial literature film and social discourse Looking at writings by Mahasweta Devi Amitav Ghosh Leila Aboulela Narayan Gangopadhyay Katherine Boo and films by Gillo Pontecorvo Clint Eastwood Ryan Coogler Black Panther and Tony Gatlif Basu Thakur highlights a new set of ethical and political considerations emerging as a direct result of this shift and stakes a fundamental rethinking of postcoloniality through what he calls the politics of ontological discordance

Postcolonial Film Rebecca Weaver-Hightower, Peter Hulme, 2014-02-24 Postcolonial Film History Empire Resistance examines films of the later twentieth and early twenty first centuries from postcolonial countries around the globe In the mid twentieth century the political reality of resistance and decolonization led to the creation of dozens of new states forming a backdrop to films of that period Towards the century's end and at the dawn of the new millennium film continues to form a site for interrogating colonization and decolonization though against a backdrop that is now more neo colonial than colonial and more culturally imperial than imperial This volume explores how individual films emerged from and commented on postcolonial spaces and the building and breaking down of the European empire Each chapter is a case study examining how a particular film from a postcolonial nation emerges from and reflects that nation's unique postcolonial situation This analysis of one nation's struggle with its coloniality allows each essay to investigate just what it means to be postcolonial

Contemporary Postcolonial Theory Taylor & Francis Group, 2021-03-31 There is a crisis in contemporary postcolonial theory while an enormous body of challenging research has been produced under its auspices severely critical questions about the validity and usefulness of this theory have also been raised This Reader is positioned at the juncture where it can address these contestations It makes available some of the classics of the field engages with the issues raised by contemporary practitioners but also offers several of the arguments that strongly critique postcolonial theory Although postcolonial theory purports to be inter disciplinary and frequently anti foundationalist traces of disciplinary formations and linearity have continued to haunt its articulations This Reader on the other hand offers a uniquely inter disciplinary mapping It is concerned with three main areas definitional problems and contests including the current challenges to postcolonial theory the disciplining of knowledge where the multiple resonances of the word disciplining are all engaged and the location of practice where the relations between intellectual practice and historical conditions are explored Finally since the guiding principle of this Reader is simultaneous attention to the enabling and constraining mechanisms of historical realities and institutional practices the commentary problematizes the writing of histories the formations of canons and indeed the production of Readers
