It is suitable for university libraries and policy makers.

Potentials, Challenges and Prospects of Halal Tourism Development in Ethiopia Mohammed Jemal Ahmed, Atila Akbaba, 2023-02-24 This book explores the potential of halal tourism development and its implementation in Ethiopia. The insights presented assist key stakeholders to make informed decisions concerning commercial strategy, profitability, and feasibility of halal tourism from the secular perspective. This innovative book offers a unique contribution to halal tourism, being the first of its kind to assess halal tourism development in developing countries. It provides a clear understanding of what halal tourism means, how it has evolved, and the current status of the industry. The book considers the prospects of halal tourism, including the conceptual and practical challenges of halal tourism development. The example of halal tourism in Ethiopia is explored to provide a lens through which deeper understandings can be drawn on where and how to develop halal tourism. This book will be of interest to researchers, students in the disciplines of tourism, anthropology, geography, business administration, and sociology. It also provides useful insights for policy makers, planners, and professionals in the hospitality and tourism industry.

Sustainable Transport and Tourism Destinations Luca Zamparini, 2021-02-08 Transport and sustainability are intrinsically linked. This book examines the links between transport, tourism, and sustainability by means of a series of large case studies covering several countries.

Sustainable Tourism David Bruce Weaver, 2006 Divided into 11 chapters, it covers Alternative tourism, AT or small scale tourism, and its associated pros and cons. Sustainable tourism within the conventional mass tourism sector, the green consumer, transportation, accommodation, attractions, and tour operator, considering issues and developments in quality control, Destination sustainability, issues of community empowerment, and ideal sustainability models. Conclusions for the future of sustainable tourism. The wide variety of international case studies used include backpacking in Australia and Spain, Volunteer tourism in the US, Six Continents and Marriott hotels, Disney World, the Grand Prix, the Grand Canyon, mountain gorilla parks in Uganda, and many more.

Tourism and Ethnodevelopment Ismar Borges de Lima, Victor T. King, 2017-09-13 Ethnodevelopment is a well-established concept in the field of development studies. Despite its relevance to tourism initiatives and processes in the Global South, it continues to be an underutilised concept in the field. This book bridges this gap, presenting an original conceptual framework to study the relationship between tourism and ethnodevelopment. It focuses on the processes of inclusion, empowerment, self-expression, and self-determination to explore the effects of tourism initiatives on the identities, cultural resilience, livelihoods, and economic opportunities of ethnic minority communities. Chapters explore a range of concepts and issues such as gender, authenticity, indigenous knowledge, tradition, the commodification of culture, community-based tourism, local entrepreneurship, cultural heritage and tourism and the environment Drawing on rich primary research conducted across South East Asia and South and Central America the book offers detailed evaluations of the successes and failures of various tourism policies and practices This book makes a valuable contribution for students scholars practitioners and policy makers alike interested in tourism development studies geography and anthropology The Routledge Handbook of Tourism Impacts Dogan
