Laughing Back at Empire Angie Wong, 2023-09-01 Asian Canadian activism resistance and art of the 1970s and 80s Laughing Back at Empire is a ground breaking examination of The Asianadian one of Canada's first anti racist anti sexist and anti homophobic magazines Over the course of its seven year run the small but mighty magazine led a nation wide dialogue for all Canadians on the struggles and social issues that concerned Asians in Canada The Asianadian established a national platform for then emerging Asian Canadian writers artists musicians activists and scholars like Sky Lee Jim Wong Chu Joy Kogawa Himani Bannerji and Paul Yee Columns like On the Firing Line and the Dubious Achievement Awards provided space to laugh back at the embarrassing concoction of Orientalist stereotypes in the media and to critique inconsistencies and superficialities within Canada's newfound multicultural image Situating the story of The Asianadian within the history of Canada Angie Wong celebrates and builds on the work of its creators from the Asianadian Resource Workshop Extensive interview material with the co founding members editors volunteers readers and contributors captures their dedication and spirit of anti racist collectivism Wong's analysis helps to dismantle cultural assumptions that have relegated Asian Canadian history contributions and injustices to the periphery of Canadian experience and identity On the heels of the COVID 19 pandemic and a resurgence of anti Asian racism Laughing Back at Empire amplifies the voices that speak shout and laugh together at empire's self congratulatory and exclusionary narratives

Creating Participatory Dialogue in Archaeological and Cultural Heritage Interpretation: Multinational Perspectives John H. Jameson, Sherene Baugher, 2022-02-28 This volume examines evolving trends and transnational perspectives on public interpretation of archaeological and cultural heritage as well as levels of communication from local to regional national and international It is presented in the context of the evolution of cultural heritage studies from the 20th century expert approach to the 21st century people centered approach with public participation and community involvement at all phases of the decision making process Our premise is not just about bringing in community members to be partners in decision making processes some projects are being initiated by the community not the heritage experts In some instances community members are central in initiating and bringing about change rather than the archaeologists or heritage specialists In several cases in the book descendants take the lead in changing heritage narratives The book addresses several central questions Do these actions represent new emphases or more fundamental pedagogical shifts in interpretation Are they resulting in more effective interpretation in facilitating emotional and intellectual connections and meanings for audiences Are they revealing silenced histories Can they contribute to or help mediate dialogues among a diversity of cultures Can they be shared experiences as examples of good practice at national and international levels What are the interpretation and presentation challenges for the future Cultural heritage as an expression of a diversity of cultures can be an important mediator between pasts and futures In the past people in power from the dominant ethnic racial socio economic gender and religious groups determined the heritage message Minorities were often silenced their participation in the building and growth of a city county or nation s history was overlooked New philosophical methodological trends in public interpretation are reshaping the messages delivered at archaeological cultural heritage sites worldwide The role of the experts as well as the participatory engagement of audiences and stakeholders are being redefined and reassessed This book explores these processes their results and effects on the future

Transnational Higher Education in Computing Courses Jenny Carter, Clive Rosen, 2019-09-24 There has been exponential growth in transnational education TNE in the last few years as UK universities have looked to expand their markets Recipient countries have sought short cuts to developing their higher education provision which has proved a lucrative income stream for some universities But overseas collaborations are not without risk Recipient countries can be concerned with external influence over curricula quality being diluted and higher education being infected by neo imperialism These concerns are not without foundation There are risks for providers too Reputations can be damaged if academic standards are compromised Conflicts of interest can occur between quality of provision and the pot of gold on offer Staff can view overseas collaborations as distracting from their research and commitment to home students Computing is a particularly popular subject for TNE but critical thinking analysis independent learning and creativity can be compromised Preventing plagiarism is difficult Constant changes in technology result in constant curricula revision which causes severe problems for overseas collaborations This book focuses on TNE in the computing domain However cross cultural issues challenge TNE management and administration whatever the subject area If the ever present tensions are not continuously monitored they can quickly threaten the sustainability of the collaboration This book identifies many of the threats and some of the solutions The readership for this book is truly global Any international development officer in higher education considering an overseas collaboration will benefit from this book Any academic becoming engaged in or already involved with a TNE partnership either as provider or recipient will gain information and insight into the practice and issues Researchers in TNE will discover more lines of enquiry Students considering a course with an overseas provider or in coming to the UK to study will be better prepared thereby enabling a more fulfilling and rewarding experience Anyone who has an interest in TNE whether at the senior executive level operational level delivering programmes or as a recipient of TNE should read this book The wealth of experience gathered here will provoke questions prompt debate and offer solutions It has been written by people who know the issues bear the scars and are happy to share their knowledge It will greatly benefit future transnational collaborations

The UN and Transnational Corporations Tagi Sagafi-nejad, John H. Dunning, 2008-10-16 Are transnational corporations TNCs and foreign direct investment beneficial or harmful to societies around the world Since the birth of the United Nations more than 60 years ago these questions have been major issues of interest and involvement for UN institutions What have been the key ideas generated by the UN about TNCs and their relations with nation states How have these ideas evolved and what has been their impact This book examines the history of UN engagement with TNCs including the creation of the UN Commission and Centre on Transnational Corporations in 1974 the failed efforts of these bodies to craft a code of conduct to temper the revealed abuses of TNCs and with the advent of globalization in the 1980s the evolution of a more cooperative relationship between TNCs and developing countries resulting in the 1999 Global Compact

The Routledge Handbook of Spanish Translation Studies Roberto Valdeón,África Vidal,2019-05-28 Written by leading experts in the area The Routledge Handbook of Spanish Translation Studies brings together original contributions representing a culmination of the extensive research to date within the field of Spanish Translation Studies The Handbook covers a variety of translation related issues both theoretical and practical providing an overview of the field and establishing directions for future research It starts by looking at the history of translation in Spain the Americas during the colonial period and Latin America and then moves on to discuss well established areas of research such as literary translation and audiovisual translation at which Spanish researchers have excelled It also provides state of the art information on new topics such as the interface between translation and humour on the one hand and the translation of comics on the other This Handbook is an indispensable resource for postgraduate students and researchers of translation studies

Latin American Identities After 1980 Gordana Yovanovich,Amy Huras,2010-04-23 Latin American Identities After 1980 takes an interdisciplinary approach to Latin American social and cultural identities With broad regional coverage and an emphasis on Canadian perspectives it focuses on Latin American contact with other cultures and nations Its sound scholarship combines evidence based case studies with the Latin American tradition of the essay particularly in areas where the discourse of the establishment does not match political social and cultural realities and where it is difficult to uncover the purposely covert This study of the cultural and social Latin America begins with an interpretation of the new Pax Americana designed in the 1980s by the North in agreement with the Southern elites As the agreement ties the hands of national governments and establishes new regional and global strategies a pan Latin American identity is emphasized over individual national identities The multi faceted impacts and effects of globalization in Bolivia Ecuador Mexico Cuba Brazil Chile Argentina and the Caribbean are examined with an emphasis on social change the transnationalization and commodification of Latin American and Caribbean arts and the adaptation of cultural identities in a globalized context as understood by Latin American authors writing from transnational perspectives

Africa and the Disruptions of the Twenty-first Century Paul Zeleza,2021-02-19 This collection of essays interrogates the repositioning of Africa and its diasporas in the unfolding disruptive transformations of the early twenty first century It is divided into five parts focusing on America s racial dysfunctions navigating global turbulence Africa s political dramas the continent s persistent mythologisation and disruptions in higher education It closes with tributes to two towering African public intellectuals Ali Mazrui and Thandika Mkandawire who have since joined the ancestors

Making Feminist Politics Suzanne Franzway,Mary Margaret Fonow,2011-02-17 In this timely and detailed examination of the intersections of feminism labor politics and global studies Suzanne Franzway and Mary Margaret Fonow reveal the ways in which women across the world are transforming labor unions in the contemporary era Situating specific case studies within broad feminist topics Franzway and Fonow concentrate on union feminists mobilizing at multiple sites issues of wages and equity child care campaigns work life balance and queer organizing demonstrating how unions around the world are broadening their focuses from contractual details to empowerment and family and feminist issues By connecting the diversity of women s experiences around the world both inside and outside the home and highlighting the innovative ways women workers attain their common goals Making Feminist Politics lays the groundwork for recognition of the total individual in the future of feminist politics within global union movements Publisher description Indigenous Cosmopolitans Maximilian Christian Forte,2010

Timely and original this volume looks at indigenous peoples from the perspective of cosmopolitan theory and at cosmopolitanism from the perspective of the indigenous world In doing so it not only sheds new light on both but also has something important to say about the complexities of identification in this shrinking overheated world Analysing ethnography from around the world the authors demonstrate the universality of the local indigeneity and the particularity of the universal cosmopolitanism Anthropology doesn t get much better than this Thomas Hylland Eriksen Professor of Anthropology University of Oslo Author of Globalisation Book Jacket Mapping Southern Routes of Migrant Women Sondra

Cuban,2022-03-30 Whereas most migration research still focuses on South to North migration this book shines a light on mobilities within the Global South Using migration to and within Chile as a case study the book looks at the experiences of women who make up a large proportion of migrants within Latin America Mapping the experiences aspirations and struggles of women moving to and in Chile the book exposes the unexpected issues encountered by migrant women in their new destination country particularly the discrimination that leaves them feeling invisible unsettled and immobile Within the region there is a long history of feminized migration and domestic labour circuits that spurs migrants residential movements but slows their social progress Yet despite these challenges the migrant women expressed their agency through the support networks they created among their compatriots and their transnational families Overall the book demonstrates the growing migrant populations that exist within the Global South and the impact of domestic and care labour markets in driving gendered migration in particular This book will be of interest to researchers and advanced students in the fields of mobilities and migration cultural geography international development and gender studies especially those with an interest in Latin America

Third Sector Organizations in Sex Work and Prostitution Isabel Crowhurst, Susan Dewey, Chimaraoke Izugbara, 2021-03-30 Third Sector Organizations in Sex Work and Prostitution is about sex work and prostitution third sector organizations TSOs non governmental and non profit organizations that provide support services to and advocate for the well being of people operating in the sex industries With a focus on three vast and extremely diverse regions Africa the Americas and Europe this book provides a unique vantage point that shows how interlinked these organizations histories and configurations are TSOs are fascinating research sites because they operate as zones of contestation which translate their understandings of sex work and prostitution into different support practices and advocacy initiatives This book reveals that these organizations are not external to normative power but participate in it and are subject to it conditioning how they can exist who they can reach out to where and what they can achieve Third Sector Organizations in Sex Work and Prostitution is a resource for scholars policymakers and activists involved in research on and work with third sector organizations in the fields of sex work and prostitution gender and sexuality and human rights among others Social Security Bulletin, 2012 The South African Short Story in English, 1920-2010 Marta Fossati, 2024-09-05 Through detailed close readings alongside investigations into the history of print culture Marta Fossati traces the development of the South African short story in English from the late 1920s to the first decade of the twenty first century She examines a selection of short stories by important Black South African writers Rolfes and Herbert Dhlomo Peter Abrahams Can Themba Alex La Guma Mtutuzeli Matshoba Ahmed Essop and Zo Wicomb with an alertness to the dialogue between ethics and aesthetics performed by these texts This new history of Black short fiction problematises and interrogates the often polarised readings of Black literature in South Africa that can be torn between notions of literariness protest and journalism Due to material constraints short fiction in South Africa circulated first and foremost through local print media which Fossati analyses in detail to show the cross fertilisation between journalism and the short story While rooted in the South African context the short stories considered also hold a translocal dimension allowing us to explore the ethical and aesthetic practice of intertextuality These are writings that complicate the aesthetics ethics binary generic classifications and the categories of the literary and the political Theoretically eclectic in its approach although largely underpinned by a narratological analysis The South African Short Story in English 1920 2010 When Aesthetics Meets Ethics offers a fresh perspective on the South African short story in English spotlighting several hitherto marginalised figures in South African literary studies Rethinking Transitional Gender Justice Rita Shackel, Lucy Fiske, 2018-10-08 This book draws together established and emerging scholars from sociology law history political science and education to examine the global and local issues in the pursuit of gender justice in post conflict settings This examination is especially important given the disappointing progress made to date in spite of concerted efforts over the last two decades With contributions from both academics and practitioners working at national and international levels this work integrates theory and practice examining both global problems and highly contextual case studies including Kenya Somalia Peru Afghanistan and DRC The contributors aim to provide a comprehensive and compelling argument for the need to fundamentally rethink global approaches to gender justice Minority Accommodation through Territorial and Non-Territorial Autonomy Tove H. Malloy, Francesco Palermo, 2015-10-08 Minority Accommodation through Territorial and Non Territorial Autonomy explores the relationship between minority territory and autonomy and how it informs our understanding of non territorial autonomy NTA as a strategy for accommodating ethno cultural diversity in modern societies While territorial autonomy TA is defined by a claim to a certain territory NTA does not assume that it is derived from any particular right to territory allocated to groups that are dispersed among the majority while belonging to a certain self identified notion of group identity In seeking to understand the value of NTA as a public policy tool for social cohesion this volume critically dissects the autonomy arrangements of both NTA and TA and through a conceptual analysis and case study examination of the two models rethinks the viability of autonomy arrangements as institutions of diversity management This is the second volume in a five part series exploring the protection and representation of minorities through non territorial means examining this paradox within law and international relations with specific attention to non territorial autonomy NTA

The Synchronization of National Policies Pertti Alasuutari, 2015-09-25 The Synchronization of National Policies shows how it is possible that there is remarkable uniformity in the policies that the nation states adopt although there is no world government Mainstream research attributes such global governance to the influence of leading countries to functional requirements created by capitalism and technological development or to international organizations This book argues that to understand how national policies are synchronized we need to realize that the global population forms a single global tribe of moderns divided into some 200 clans called nations While previous research on the world culture of moderns has focused on the diffusion of ideas this book concentrates on the active role of local actors who introduce global models and domesticate them to nation states In national policymaking actors justify new policies by international comparisons by the successes and failures of models adopted in other countries and by building and appealing to the authority of international organizations

Consequently national policies are synchronized with each other Yet because of the way such domestication of global trends takes place citizens retain and reproduce the understanding that they follow a sovereign national trajectory This book will be of interest to students and scholars of sociology world culture theory globalization international relations and political science

The Department of Labor's ... Findings on the Worst Forms of Child Labor ,2007 Contraband Corridor

Rebecca Berke Galembo,2017-12-26 The Mexico Guatemala border has emerged as a geopolitical hotspot of illicit flows of both goods and people Contraband Corridor seeks to understand the border from the perspective of its long term inhabitants including petty smugglers of corn clothing and coffee Challenging assumptions regarding security trade and illegality Rebecca Berke Galembo details how these residents engage in and justify extralegal practices in the context of heightened border security restricted economic opportunities and exclusionary trade policies Rather than assuming that extralegal activities necessarily threaten the state and formal economy Galembo's ethnography illustrates the complex ways that the formal informal legal and illegal economies intertwine Smuggling basic commodities across the border provides a means for borderland peasants to make a living while neoliberal economic policies decimate agricultural livelihoods Yet smuggling also exacerbates prevailing inequalities obstructs the possibility of more substantive political and economic change and provides low risk economic benefits to businesses state agents and other illicit actors often at the expense of border residents Galembo argues that securitized neoliberalism values certain economic activities and actors while excluding and criminalizing others even when the informal and illicit economy is increasingly one of the poor's only remaining options Contraband Corridor contends that security neoliberalism and illegality are interdependent in complex ways yet how they unfold depends on negotiations between diverse border actors
