Alex Mackey, 2011-01-27. Microsoft has introduced a large number of changes to the way that the .NET Framework operates. Familiar technologies have been altered, best practices replaced and developer methodologies adjusted. Many developers find it hard to keep up with the pace of change across .NET's ever widening array of technologies. You may know what's happening in C# but how about the Azure cloud? How is that going to affect your work? What are the limitations of the pLINQ syntax? What you need is a roadmap, a guide to help you see the innovations that matter and to give you a head start on the opportunities available in the new framework. Introducing .NET 4.0 with Visual Studio 2010 is designed to provide you with just that roadmap. It serves as a no-nonsense primer that will help experienced .NET developers understand the impact of the new framework and its associated technologies. This book will keep you updated on the changes and help you to seize new opportunities confidently and quickly. Cloud Tools 4 u by Rejo Mathew, 2018-03-26. Field Programmable Logic and Application

EU Policy and Legal Framework for Artificial Intelligence, Robotics and Related Technologies - The AI Act Nikos Th. Nikolinakos, 2023-07-06 Artificial Intelligence AI can benefit our society and economy but also brings with it new challenges and raises legal and ethical questions According to the author of this comprehensive analysis it is imperative to ensure that AI is developed and applied in an appropriate legal and regulatory framework that promotes innovation and investment and at the same time addresses the risks associated with certain uses of AI related technologies Essential to understanding the relationship between policy and law this book traces the evolution of EU policy on artificial intelligence and robotics focusing in particular on the EU s ethical framework for AI which defines trust as a prerequisite for ensuring a human centric approach The main part of the book provides a thorough and systematic analysis of the Commission's 2021 proposed AI Act which establishes harmonised rules for the development, placement on the market and use of AI systems in the EU. The author painstakingly compares the Commission's proposed AI Act with the numerous compromise proposals of the Council of the European Union leading to the final version of the Council's AI Act, general approach and its formal adoption on 6 December 2022. The author also examines with extraordinary detail the amendments proposed by the relevant committees and political groups of the European Parliament, revealing the position the Parliament is likely to adopt in the forthcoming negotiations with the Commission and the Council on the text of the AI Act. Numerous legislative and policy documents are presented in detail while the analysis also considers the comments made by all interested parties, e.g. the European Commission, Council of the European Union, European Parliament, governmental organisations, national competent authorities and stakeholders, actors with different conflicting interests such as corporations, business and consumer associations, civil society and other non-profit organisations. In the course of its in-depth analysis, this book will provide readers with crucial insight into the reasons behind the European Institutions' different approaches and the often contradictory interests of stakeholders. Because the policy arguments are carefully balanced and drafted with scrupulous care, this volume will establish itself as a reference resource to be consulted for years to come.

Component Deployment Alan Dearle, Susan Eisenbach, 2005-11-03 This volume of Lecture Notes in Computer Science contains the proceedings of the 3rd Working Conference on Component Deployment CD 2005 which took place from 28 to 29 November 2005 in Grenoble, France and co-located with Middleware 2005. CD 2005 is the third international conference in the series, the first two being held in Berlin and Edinburgh in 2002 and 2004 respectively. The proceedings of both these conferences were also published by Springer in the Lecture Notes in Computer Science series and may be found in volumes 2370 and 3083. Component deployment addresses the tasks that need to be performed after components have been developed and addresses questions such as: What do we do with components after they have been built? How do we deploy them into their execution environment? How can we evolve them once they have been deployed? CD 2005 brought together researchers and practitioners with the goal of developing a better understanding of how deployment takes place in the wider context. The Program Committee selected 15 papers: 12 long papers, three short papers out of 29 submissions. All submissions were reviewed by at least three members of the Program Committee. Papers were selected based on originality, quality, soundness and relevance to the workshop.
