Globalization and Education Jeffrey S. Brooks,Anthony H. Normore,Melanie C. Brooks,Nicola Sum,2022-06-01 Globalization and Education Teaching Learning and Leading in the World Schoolhouse explores the various ways educators work is influenced by globalization This book presents topics and contexts traditionally marginalized in mainstream education research discourses and shows how local and global education issues are intersecting and shaping the ways in which ideas and practices are shared around the world Each chapter presents an educational issue in an understudied international context such as Saudi Arabia Guyana Bangladesh Malaysia Indonesia Brazil and Nepal Topics range from how the knowledge industry shapes education in schools to the impact of globalization on school leadership teaching and learning We invite scholars and practitioners to join us in the world schoolhouse a place where discussion about educational understanding and improvement is not bounded by national borders school systems or language This book will both challenge and expand thinking about the complexities of education during a time of globalization and change

Developing Professional Practice 0-7 Sonia Blandford,Catherine Knowles,2016-05-20 Developing Professional Practice 0 7 provides a thoroughly comprehensive and cutting edge guide to developing the understanding and practical skills necessary for working within early years education The new edition is fully updated for the revised Early Years

Foundation Stage Statutory Framework The updated edition covers all core topics associated with developing effective professional practice including leadership and management personalised learning and continuing professional development There is also a strong focus on parent carer engagement setting accountability for the lowest attaining groups the parent carer and child voice in education transition SEND reform early intervention and developing leadership at all levels including as a business model Readers can explore in depth issues and take ownership of them by applying theory to real practice in schools and early years settings Chapter contents are directly linked to the Early Years Teacher Standards providing a clear understanding of how the content relates to competencies and allowing readers to reflect critically on best practice Discussion points and case studies further connect theory to practice and offer a genuinely accessible and engaging introduction to supporting the education of babies toddlers and young children This vibrant dynamic and interactive approach uses examples of real practice along with a range of additional features tailored to support the reader in developing their knowledge skills and understanding Developing Professional Practice 0 7 is essential reading for anyone training to work in the early years and an invaluable resource for all those already in the early stages of their careers Agree to Differ UNESCO, Tudor Rose, 2015-05-11 The International Decade for the Rapprochement of Cultures IDRC builds on the strong momentum created by and the achievements of both the International Decade for a Culture of Peace and Non Violence for the Children of the World 2001 2010 and the International Year for the Rapprochement of Cultures 2010 It is to be understood as a commitment for addressing the urgent need to take into account and clearly demonstrate new articulations between cultural diversity and universal values The rapprochement of cultures implies that international security and social inclusion cannot be attained sustainably without a commitment to such principles as compassion conviviality hospitality solidarity and brotherhood which are the corner stones of human coexistence inherent in all faiths and secular ideologies The current surge of flaring conflicts acts of violence and intolerance demands urgent actions Peoples and nations have to join forces for the development of a universal global consciousness free from racial ethnic and social prejudices The United Nations have proclaimed the period 2013 2022 as International Decade for the Rapprochement of Cultures to address these global challenges with UNESCO as the lead agency for the United Nations system The Implementation of Teacher Evaluation for Professional Development in Primary Education in Taiwan Chao-Wen Liu, 2011-02-14 Teacher evaluation is an activity of assessing teachers performance It is equivalent to teacher appraisal teacher performance management in England This study explores the complexities of implementing Teacher Evaluation in primary schools in Taiwan It concentrates principally on the development of Teacher Evaluation in Taiwan in the light of international research especially that relating to the English context The philosophical perspective with which this study is most closely aligned is constructivism In particular using qualitative methods of documentary analysis and interviews it explores the nature of Teacher Evaluation and the meaning held by implementers Government publications including books journals and other documentation from public institutions were examined to trace the development of Teacher Evaluation in Taiwan and how it might be influenced by globalisation Interviews were carried out with 3 head teachers and 7 teachers from 3 primary schools in Taiwan and 3 officers from different levels of official organisations A Recommended Model of Teacher Evaluation was synthesised from the review of international research Using the Recommended Model of Teacher Evaluation to evaluate the implementation of Teacher Evaluation for Professional Development in Taiwan the effectiveness of the project was demonstrated However by looking at the empirical data some limitations were observed including deficiencies in the administrative system teachers heavy workload the reluctance of teachers to accept changes and insufficient knowledge of the relevant policy Other obstacles were noted including inadequately trained evaluators the lack of a mechanism for professional dialogue and the incoherence of the educational policy This study shows that most teachers agree with the measures in the Teacher Evaluation for Professional Development implemented by the Ministry of Education although some supplementary measures need to be established in a more sophisticated manner before it can be implemented fully Finally this study further proposes suggestions for a Teacher Evaluation model based on the Recommended Model of Teacher Evaluation the implementation of the current Teacher Evaluation for Professional Development and ideal models mentioned by the interviewees

The Palgrave Handbook of Educational Leadership and Management Discourse Fenwick W. English,2022-10-13 This Handbook explores the discourse within the field of educational leadership and management It provides a clear analysis of the current field as well as older foundational ideas and newer concepts which are beginning to permeate the discussion The field of educational leadership and management has long acknowledged that educational contexts include a variety of leaders beyond school principals and other school officials such as informal and middle level leaders By looking at the knowledge dynamic rather than a static knowledge base this Handbook allows research to be presented in its multidimensional evolving reality
