LatinX Students in Higher Education Nichole Margarita Garcia, 2025-04-11 The most recent addition to the Key Issues on Diverse College Students series this important volume bridges theory to practice in order to help higher education professionals support LatinX students in colleges and universities LatinX Students in Higher Education challenges the traditional metrics of student success in higher education for LatinX students offering a revised definition of student success to re envision the skills and abilities that these students bring from their communities into institutions of higher education and community based settings Garcia s powerful counter story narratives shed light on the urgent need for systemic reform and ultimately this book challenges institutions to adopt more inclusive and anti racist practices that honor cultural identity community and resilience This is a must read for researchers educators student affairs professionals students and policymakers committed to creating an equitable higher education system and promoting the success of LatinX populations in higher education

Strengthening Anti-Racist Educational Leaders Anjalé D. Welton, Sarah Diem, 2021-10-21 This edited volume expands on the existent research on anti racist educational leadership by identifying what type of capacity building is needed for school administrators to facilitate anti racist change in their schools Racial inequities in education persist in part because the solutions that districts and schools choose to employ largely ignore why and how institutional and structural racism is the root cause of inequities in education Yet racial inequities in schooling can be redressed if districts and schools have leaders who are deeply committed to combatting racism in their daily practice and structures of schooling This book underscores why we need more educational leaders who adopt an anti racist stance in how they lead and are prepared to work toward racial justice and equity in a society so entrenched in racism Through diverse perspectives and voices including scholars in the field of educational leadership sociologists of education school and district administrators and grassroots community members and activist groups this book addresses issues related to anti racist educational leadership at various levels

Undocumented Immigrants and Higher Education Alejandra Rincón,2008 Rincon reviews the struggle by undocumented immigrant students to gain access to college by paying in state tuition rates These efforts which have been successful in ten states can be characterized as a human and civil rights struggle based on the fundamental premise that no group should be subjected to discrimination Undocumented students seek equality under the law while affirming their humanity and thus their rights as human beings Undocumented immigrants seek to overturn government and media images that portray them as aliens and illegals devoid of all rights simply because they are working and living in a country other than the one in which they were born Understanding and Supporting Undocumented Students Jerry Price,2010-10-19 This volume is about a student group whose particular needs are not well understood students without legal residency status better known as undocumented students Student affairs professionals may know that undocumented students are on campus but they often know little about them For many of these students this is by design they choose to exist in the campus shadows to avoid sharing their secret and jeopardizing their status Their fear of being discovered is understandable they believe that they could be deported if their residency status were disclosed This volume provides a broad overview of the factors that contribute to the experiences of undocumented students It examines the applicable federal and state laws and policies the students precollege experiences their academic and socioemotional experiences on campus and their lack of professional employment opportunities after college However when it comes to understanding the experiences of undocumented students the whole is greater than sum of its parts Understanding these students their experiences and their needs requires more than simply understanding the individual components of their social cultural and legal environment This volume also contains the actual stories of undocumented students graphically illustrating the cumulative effect their legal status has on their day to day lives This is the 130th volume of the Jossey Bass higher education quarterly report series New Directions for Student Services An indispensable resource for vice presidents of student affairs deans of students student counselors and other student services professionals New Directions for Student Services offers guidelines and programs for aiding students in their total development emotional social physical and intellectual

Undocumented Students in Higher Education Graciela Rodriguez, 2013 Abstract The purpose of this project was to write a grant to support the Napa Valley DREAM Team NVDT in its efforts to increase the academic achievement and personal growth of undocumented children and young adults in the area An extensive literature review consultation with key informants and personal communication with undocumented youth their families and allies were used to create a comprehensive needs assessment Every year tens of thousands of undocumented students graduate from high school despite the social economic and legal challenges of their immigration status with limited opportunities to participate fully in society If funded this program will support undocumented students who have the skills and aspirations to pursue a college education and achieve a more meaningful life thus contributing to the economic and social well being of the nation Actual submission and or funding of this grant were not required for successful completion of this project

Supporting AB 540 Undocumented Students in Higher Education Alma Martinez, 2016 The purpose of this project was to establish a Cooperative Inquiry CI to explore how we might expand our personal capacity in the roles we currently play on our campus related to our work with AB540 students We had five staff members from the same higher education campus who all currently worked with AB540 students in different roles Together we went through cycles of action and reflection over the course of a ten week quarter In each cycle this group relied heavily on journaling through our actions so that all of our reflections could be shared at our next meeting The majority of our learning came from our personal reflections as well as the shared reflections from the group Overtime this group began to have influence on the real time decisions that were occurring on the campus around the campus next steps to support AB540 students Abstract p 1
