Evangelicals Incorporated Daniel Vaca,2019-12-03 A new history explores the commercial heart of evangelical Christianity American evangelicalism is big business For decades the world s largest media conglomerates have sought out evangelical consumers and evangelical books have regularly become international best sellers In the early 2000s Rick Warren s The Purpose Driven Life spent ninety weeks on the New York Times Best Sellers list and sold more than thirty million copies But why have evangelicals achieved such remarkable commercial success According to Daniel Vaca evangelicalism depends upon commercialism Tracing the once humble evangelical book industry s emergence as a lucrative center of the US book trade Vaca argues that evangelical Christianity became religiously and politically prominent through business activity Through areas of commerce such as branding retailing marketing and finance for profit media companies have capitalized on the expansive potential of evangelicalism for more than a century Rather than treat evangelicalism as a type of conservative Protestantism that market forces have commodified and corrupted Vaca argues that evangelicalism is an expressly commercial religion Although religious traditions seem to incorporate people who embrace distinct theological ideas and beliefs Vaca shows members of contemporary consumer society often participate in religious cultures by engaging commercial products and corporations By examining the history of companies and corporate conglomerates that have produced and distributed best selling religious books bibles and more Vaca not only illustrates how evangelical ideas identities and alliances have developed through commercial activity but also reveals how the production of evangelical identity became a component of modern capitalism

The Epworth Herald ,1897 Unbelief Chris Foote,2016-02-26 I dont know about you but I have to take some comfort in the story of Peters going down into the water Please dont think me unkind But how worthless would I feel with my level of unbelief if he had no doubt in him whatsoever as he ventured onto the waters How low would my head sink thinking of my unbelief if he kept the faith and did cartwheels on top of the water He mightve even started to Riverdance all over the sea But he didnt He was human just like you and me I mean he was a disciple who saw the miracles firsthand He journeyed with Jesus and witnessed the paralyzed walk the blind see and the mute speak And now he actually sees Jesus walking on the water What else does he need to see Nothing After all this Peter has the faith to volunteer to step out of the boat and onto the water with Jesus Wow How amazing is that That is beyond courageous in my book I wonder if he waited with bated breath for Jesus to agree to his request I wonder if he stepped out of the boat with fear and trepidation waiting for something firm below his feet or if he pushed his brother Andrew and Bartholomew out of the way to leap onto the waves Regardless it didnt take long before the soggy platform started to diminish And the passage says all he saw was the wind and down he went But there Jesus was with a helping hand to save him and to ask him why he doubted Its as if Jesus was asking Aint you seen enough of me to trust me What else do you want from me before you believe And I think He has said that to us many times too
