COVID Returning to old patterns of behavior is a wasted chance A theological opportunity for the church lies in rediscovering the classical aim of leisure The early church during the first two centuries offers us an understanding of leisure quite unique from the dominant expressions of leisure such as Greek scholē Roman otium and the Jewish Sabbath By exploring early Christian practices we can find insights about leisure for mission today These practices include setting aside a single day of the week to worship sharing in a common meal open to all and following the meal incorporating into nonwork time care and engagement in the health and vitality of the community in the name of Jesus Christ The followers of Jesus were consistent if extraordinary in meeting weekly on the Lord's Day to worship eat together and go out into the neighborhood to live out their faith
