Post-socialist Informalities Abel Polese, Lela Rekhviashvili, Borbála Kovács, Jeremy Morris, 2018-10-19 This book is a comprehensive collection of key scholarship on informality from the whole post socialist region From Bosnia to Central Asia passing through Russia and Azerbaijan the contributions to this volume illustrate the multi faceted and complex nature of informality while demonstrating the growing scholarly and policy debates that have developed around the understanding of informality In contrast to approaches which tend to classify informality as bad or transitional meaning that modernity will make it disappear this edited volume concentrates on dynamics and mechanisms to understand and explain informality while also debating its relationship with the market and society The authors seek to explain informality beyond a mere monetaristic economic approach rediscovering its interconnection with social phenomena to propose a more holistic interpretation of the meaning of informality and its influence in various spheres of life They do this by exploring the evolving role of informal practices in the post socialist region and by focusing on informality as a social organisation determinant but also looking at the way it reshapes emergent social resistance against symbolic and real political order s This book was originally published as two special issues of Caucasus Survey and the Journal of Contemporary Central and Eastern Europe The Wiley-Blackwell Companion to Economic Geography Trevor J. blue collar workers everyday life in a central Russian industrial town coping with simultaneous decline and the arrival of transnational corporations Everyday Post Socialism demonstrates how people manage to remain satisfied despite the crisis and relative poverty they faced after the fall of socialist projects and the social trends associated with neoliberal transformation Morris shows the other life in today s Russia which is not present in mainstream academic discourse or even in the media in Russia itself This book offers co presence and a direct understanding of how the local community lives a life which is not only bearable but also preferable and attractive when framed in the categories of habitability commitment and engagement and seen in the light of alternative ideas of worth and specific values Topics covered include working class identity informal economy gender relations and transnational corporations Survival of a Perverse Nation Tamar R.

Shirinian,2024-10-11 In Survival of a Perverse Nation Tamar R Shirinian traces two widespread rhetorics of perversion sexual and moral in postsocialist Armenia showing how they are tied to anxieties about the nation s survival In her fieldwork with Armenians Shirinian found that right wing nationalists focus on sexual perversion centers the figure of the homosexual while questions of moral perversion surround oligarchs and other members of the political economic elite While the homosexual is seen as non or improperly reproductive the oligarch s moral deviations from the caring and paternalistic expectations associated with national leadership also endanger Armenia s survival Shirinian shows how both figures threaten the nation s proper social reproduction a source of great anxiety for a nation whose primary point of identity is surviving genocide In the existential threat posed by these forms of perversion Shirinian finds paths where nonsurvival might mean the creation of futures that are queerer and more just Detailing how the language of perversion offers trenchant critiques of capitalism as a perversion of life Shirinian presents a new queer theory of political economy      Modeling Economic Growth in Contemporary Slovakia Michael Augustin, Peter Jančovič, Bruno S. Sergi, 2024-11-15 This edited collection analyses various aspects of Slovakia's economy including recent developments and events such as the COVID 19 pandemic and war in Ukraine highlighting issues that arise from the current economic model making it difficult for Slovakia to revitalize and adapt the economy to new circumstances      Defensible Space on the Move Loretta Lees, Elanor Warwick, 2022-02-02 Both theoretically informed and empirically rich Defensible Space makes an important conceptual contribution to policy mobilities thinking to policy and practice and also to practitioners handling of complex spatial concepts Critically examines the geographical concept Defensible Space which has been influential in designing out crime to date and has been applied to housing estates in the UK North America Europe and beyond Evaluates the movement mobility mobilisation of defensible space from the US to the UK and into English housing policy and practice Explores the multiple ways the concept of defensible space was interpreted and implemented as it circulated from national to local level and within particular English housing estates Critiquing and pushing forwards work on policy mobilities the authors illustrate for the first time how transfer mechanisms worked at both a policy and practitioner level Drawing on extensive archival research oral histories and in depth interviews this important book reveals defensible space to be ambiguous uncertain in nature neither proven or disproven scientifically      Smoking Geographies Ross Barnett, Graham Moon, Jamie Pearce, Lee Thompson, Liz Twigg, 2017-02-09 Smoking Geographies provides a research led assessment of the impact of geographical factors on smoking The contributors uncover how geography can show us not only why people smoke but also broader issues of tobacco control providing deeper clarity on how smoking and tobacco is governed The text centres on one of the most important public health issues worldwide and a major determinant of preventable mortality and morbidity in developed and developing countries Records the outcomes of a long term research collaboration that brings a geographical lens to smoking behaviour Uncovers how geography can play a part in understanding not only why people smoke but also broader issues of tobacco control Provides a deeper understanding of how smoking and tobacco is governed regarding where people may smoke but also more subtle governance as a climate is produced in which smoking becomes denormalised Brings both quantitative and qualitative perspectives to bear on this major source of mortality and morbidity      Global Asian City Francis L. Collins, 2018-07-23 Global Asian City provides a unique theoretical framework for studying the growth of cities and migration focused on the notion of desire as a major driver of international migration to Asian cities Draws on more than 120 interviews of emigrants to Seoul including migrant workers from Indonesia Philippines Thailand and Vietnam English teachers from Australia Canada New Zealand South Africa UK and USA and international students at two elite Korean universities Features a comparative account of different migrant populations and the ways in which national migration systems and urban processes create differences between these groups Focuses on the causes of international migrant to Seoul South Korea and
