Dorothy L Sayers Her Life And Soul:

Dorothy L. Sayers Barbara Reynolds, 1997 Remembered above all as the detective writer who created Lord Peter Wimsey Sayers was also a scholar and one of the first women to be awarded a degree from Oxford University Reynolds who completed the translation of Dante's Divine Comedy that Sayers left unfinished when she died and who is chairman of the Dorothy L Sayers Society profiles the famous writer on the 100th anniversary of her birth Annotation copyright by Book News Inc Portland OR The Letters of Dorothy L. Sayers, Volume II Dorothy L. Sayers, 2024-03-26 This second volume of Dorothy L Sayers covers the seven years in which the greatest detective novelist of the golden age and the creator of Lord Peter Wimsey turns away from mystery writing to become a playwright and in turn a controversial figure Accused on the one hand of blasphemy acclaimed on the other as one of the most influential lay theologians of her time she found herself drawn into a vast network of correspondence dealing with a wide range of social concerns These after all are the years of World War II of air raids threats of invasion rationing lack of domestic help congested travel and blackouts But there was no blackout in the creativity of Dorothy L Sayers in fact this is the peak period of her creative endeavors seventeen plays several books innumerable articles and talks and hundreds of letters The letters reveal the context of her published words and send the reader back to them with new understanding But the issues they raise are not merely those of her time many are startlingly topical even today The letters take us behind the scenes of her thinking activity and personal life Here is an unknown Dorothy L Sayers whose influence on her contemporaries and beyond has yet to be measured But at the same time here is the Sayers whom we have always known and loved witty engaging creative passionate committed Barbara Reynolds Dorothy L Sayers's acclaimed biographer has selected and annotated these letters from the hundreds that Sayers wrote during one of the most fascinating times of her life The Living Church, 1993-07 Women of Mystery Martha Hailey DuBose, 2000-12-11 In this remarkable book Martha Hailey DuBose has given those multitudes of readers who love the mystery novel an indispensable addition to their libraries Unlike other works on the subject Women of Mystery is not merely a directory of the novelists and their publications with a few biographical details DuBose combines extensive research into the lives of significant women mystery writers from Anna Katherine Green and Mary Roberts Rinehart with critical essays on their work anecdotes contemporary reviews and opinions and some of the women's own comments She takes us through the Golden Age of the British women mystery writers Christie Sayers Marsh Allingham and Tey to the leading crime novelists of today focused on the women who have become legends of the genre And though she laments so many mysteries so little time she makes a good effort mentioning some of the best of the rest When DuBose writes of the lives of her principal players she relates them to their times their families their personal situations and above all to their books She subtly points out that Sayers whose experience with the men in her life was inevitably disastrous created in Lord Peter the ideal lover one who is all that a woman desires and needs DuBose gives us the curriculum vitae that Dorothy Sayers created to help her bring Peter

Wimsey to a virtual actuality Ngaio Marsh would give up an active presence in the theatrical world she loved but she recreated it for herself as well as her readers in many of her novels The biographies of these woman are as engrossing as the stories they wrote and Martha DuBose has shined a different intimate and intriguing light on them their works and the lives that informed those works This book is so full of treasure it s hard to see how any mystery enthusiast will be able to do without it And what a gift it would make for anyone on your list who has been heard to announce I love a mystery Some of the treats inside In the Beginning The Mothers of Detection Anna Katherine Green Mary Roberts Rinehart A Golden Era The Genteel Puzzlers Agatha Christie Dorothy L Sayers Ngaio Marsh Margery Allingham Josephine Tey Modern Motives Mysteries of the Murderous Mind Patricia Highsmith P D James Ruth Rendell Mary Higgins Clark Sue Grafton and more

G. K. Chesterton Ian Ker,2011-04-21 G K Chesterton is remembered as a brilliant creator of nonsense and satirical verse author of the Father Brown stories and the innovative novel The Man who was Thursday and yet today he is not counted among the major English novelists and poets However this major new biography argues that Chesterton should be seen as the successor of the great Victorian prose writers Carlyle Arnold Ruskin and above all Newman Chesterton s achievement as one of the great English literary critics has not hitherto been fully recognized perhaps because his best literary criticism is of prose rather than poetry Ian Ker remedies this neglect paying particular attention to Chesterton s writings on the Victorians especially Dickens As a social and political thinker Chesterton is contrasted here with contemporary intellectuals like Bernard Shaw and H G Wells in his championing of democracy and the masses Pre eminently a controversialist as revealed in his prolific journalistic output he became a formidable apologist for Christianity and Catholicism as well as a powerful satirist of anti Catholicism This full length life of G K Chesterton is the first comprehensive biography of both the man and the writer It draws on many unpublished letters and papers to evoke Chesterton s joyful humour his humility and affinity to the common man and his love of the ordinary things of life

Between the Image and the Word Trevor Hart,2016-04-15 The central contention of Christian faith is that in the incarnation the eternal Word or Logos of God himself has taken flesh so becoming for us the image of the invisible God Our humanity itself is lived out in a constant to ing and fro ing between materiality and immateriality Imagination language and literature each have a vital part to play in brokering this hypostatic union of matter and meaning within the human creature Approaching different aspects of two distinct movements between the image and the word in the incarnation and in the dynamics of human existence itself Trevor Hart presents a clearer understanding of each and explores the juxtapositions with the other Hart concludes that within the Trinitarian economy of creation and redemption these two occasions of flesh taking are inseparable and indivisible

At the Mercy of Their Clothes Celia

Marshik,2016-11-29 In much of modern fiction it is the clothes that make the character Garments embody personal and national histories They convey wealth status aspiration and morality or a lack thereof They suggest where characters have been and where they might be headed as well as whether or not they are aware of their fate At the Mercy of Their Clothes explores the agency of fashion in modern literature its reflection of new relations between people and things and its embodiment of a rapidly changing society confronted by war and cultural and economic upheaval In some cases people need garments to realize themselves In other cases the clothes control the person who wears them Celia Marshik s study combines close readings of modernist and middlebrow works a history of Britain in the early twentieth century and the insights of thing theory She focuses on four distinct categories of modern clothing the evening gown the mackintosh the fancy dress costume and secondhand attire In their use of these clothes we see authors negotiate shifting gender roles weigh the value of individuality during national conflict work through mortality and depict changing class structures Marshik s dynamic comparisons put Ulysses in conversation with Rebecca Punch cartoons articles in Vogue and letters from consumers illuminating opinions about specific garments and a widespread anxiety that people were no more than what they wore Throughout her readings Marshik emphasizes the persistent animation of clothing and objectification of individuals in early twentieth century literature and society She argues that while artists and intellectuals celebrated the ability of modern individuals to remake themselves a range of literary works and popular publications points to a lingering anxiety about how political social and economic conditions continued to constrain the individual
