Double Native A Moving Memoir About Living Across Two Cultures:

Double Native Fiona Doyle, Fiona Wirrer-George Oochunyang, Kate Hunter, 2012 Growing up on the west coast of Queensland Cape York Peninsula in the 1970s and 1980s Fiona Wirrer George Oochunyang had an idyllic traditional life At the age of 16 she moved to Sydney to attend the NAISDA Dance College where she studied with the legendary Page brothers As a young woman she carves out a fragile relationship with her absent father inspiring her to better understand her Austrian ancestry and how it meshes with her Indigenous identity The model of a modern woman the author shares the joys and challenges that come with growing up in a divided community in this powerful and candid memoir and offers a rare insight into the burgeoning years of the contemporary Indigenous dance movement A Foreign Affair Gerd Gemünden, 2008-04-30 With six Academy Awards four entries on the American Film Institute's list of 100 greatest American movies and more titles on the National Historic Register of classic films deemed worthy of preservation than any other director Billy Wilder counts as one of the most accomplished filmmakers ever to work in Hollywood Yet how American is Billy Wilder the Jewish migr from Central Europe This book underscores this complex issue unpacking underlying contradictions where previous commentators routinely smoothed them out Wilder emerges as an artist with roots in sensationalist journalism and the world of entertainment as well as with an awareness of literary culture and the avant garde features that lead to productive and often highly original confrontations between high and low Atlanta, 2003-08 Atlanta magazine's editorial mission is to engage our community through provocative writing authoritative reporting and superlative design that illuminate the people the issues the trends and the events that define our city The magazine informs challenges and entertains our readers each month while helping them make intelligent choices not only about what they do and where they go but what they think about matters of importance to the community and the region Atlanta magazine's editorial mission is to engage our community through provocative writing authoritative reporting and superlative design that illuminate the people the issues the trends and the events that define our city The magazine informs challenges and entertains our readers each month while helping them make intelligent choices not only about what they do and where they go but what they think about matters of importance to the community and the region Dragon Tales: A Memoir Jacqueline Hudson, 2020-01-20 Dragon Tales A Memoir By Jacqueline Hudson Dragon Tales A Memoir is an autobiographical story of Jacqueline Hudson's life all the funny and sad she has observed in her life time told in short movie clip experiences Although the stories are not always told in chronological order it's not written in a strict timeline it was written however as she could remember it All the names in the book are real people whom may have had an impact in her life both great and greater to them Thank You The Posen Library of Jewish Culture and Civilization, Volume 7 Israel Bartal, Kenneth B. Moss, 2024-01-05 Volume 7 of the Posen Library captures unprecedented transformations of Jewish culture amid mass migration global capitalism nationalism revolution and the birth of the secular self Between 1880 and 1918 traditions and regimes collapsed around the world migration and imperialism remade the lives of millions nationalism and secularization transformed selves and collectives utopias beckoned and new kinds of social conflict threatened as never before Few communities experienced the pressures and possibilities of the era more profoundly than the world's Jews This volume seventh in The Posen Library of Jewish Culture and Civilization recaptures the vibrant Jewish cultural creativity political striving social experimentation and fractious religious and secular thought that burst forth in the face of these challenges Editors Israel Bartal and Kenneth B Moss capture the full range of Jewish expression in a centrifugal age from mystical visions to unabashedly antitraditional Jewish political thought from cookbooks to literary criticism from modernist poetry to vaudeville They also highlight the most remarkable dimension of the 1880-1918 era an audacious effort by newly secular Jews to replace Judaism itself with a new kind of Jewish culture centering on this worldly aesthetic creativity by a posited Jewish nation and the secular modern and free individuals who composed it This volume is an essential starting point for anyone who wishes to understand the divided Jewish present

The Oxford Handbook of Indigenous American Literature James Howard Cox, Daniel Heath Justice, 2014 Over the course of the last twenty years Native American and Indigenous American literary studies has experienced a dramatic shift from a critical focus on identity and authenticity to the intellectual cultural political historical and tribal nation contexts from which these Indigenous literatures emerge The Oxford Handbook of Indigenous American Literature reflects on these changes and provides a complete overview of the current state of the field The Handbook's forty-three essays organized into four sections cover oral traditions poetry drama non-fiction fiction and other forms of Indigenous American writing from the seventeenth through the twenty-first century Part I attends to literary histories across a range of communities providing for example analyses of Inuit Chicana o Anishinaabe and M'tis literary practices Part II draws on earlier disciplinary and historical contexts to focus on specific genres as authors discuss Indigenous non-fiction emergent trans Indigenous autobiography Mexicanoh and Spanish poetry Native drama in the U.S. and Canada and even a new Indigenous children's literature canon The third section delves into contemporary modes of critical inquiry to expound on politics of place comparative Indigenism trans Indigenism Native rhetoric and the power of Indigenous writing to communities of readers A final section thoroughly explores the geographical breadth and expanded definition of Indigenous American through detailed accounts of literature from Indian Territory the Red Atlantic the far North Yucat'an Amerika Samoa and Francophone Quebec Together the volume is the most comprehensive and expansive critical handbook of Indigenous American literatures published to date It is the first to fully take into account the last twenty years of recovery and scholarship and the first to most significantly address the diverse range of texts secondary archives writing traditions literary histories geographic and political contexts and critical discourses in the field

Halloran,2020-04-14 What an achievement It is a major work The letters taken together with the excellent introductory sections so balanced and judicious and informative what emerges is an amazing picture of William Sharp the man and the writer which explores just how fascinating a figure he is Clearly a major reassessment is due and this book could make it happen Andrew Hook Emeritus Bradley Professor of English and American Literature Glasgow University William Sharp 1855 1905 conducted one of the most audacious literary deceptions of his or any time Sharp was a Scottish poet novelist biographer and editor who in 1893 began to write critically and commercially successful books under the name Fiona Macleod This was far more than just a pseudonym he corresponded as Macleod enlisting his sister to provide the handwriting and address and for more than a decade Fiona Macleod duped not only the general public but such literary luminaries as William Butler Yeats and in America E C Stedman Sharp wrote I feel another self within me now more than ever it is as if I were possessed by a spirit who must speak out This three volume collection brings together Sharp s own correspondence a fascinating trove in its own right by a Victorian man of letters who was on intimate terms with writers including Dante Gabriel Rossetti Walter Pater and George Meredith and the Fiona Macleod letters which bring to life Sharp's intriguing second self With an introduction and detailed notes by William F Halloran this richly rewarding collection offers a wonderful insight into the literary landscape of the time while also investigating a strange and underappreciated phenomenon of late nineteenth century English literature It is essential for scholars of the period and it is an illuminating read for anyone interested in authorship and identity
